COME TO THE WATER: PRECIOUS FOUNTAIN, HEALING STREAM

I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert.....

Isaiah 43

As we gather for Annual Conference, God will be with us as a wellspring of love, a fountain of comfort, a healing river, a restoring stream.

In this past year, we have experienced desert times and places. We moved toward the cross, seeking the healing stream. Our hearts and minds and doors opened for prayer, worship and Christian community. We gathered in record numbers and offered unprecedented generosity. God's love was poured out upon us and through us.

The traditional gathering hymn for annual conferences calls us together in June, 2002:

And are we yet alive, and see each other's face?

Glory and thanks to Jesus give for his almighty grace!

What troubles have we seen, what mighty conflicts past, fightings without and fears within, since we assembled last!

Let us take up the cross till we the crown obtain, and gladly reckon all things loss so we may Jesus gain.

Come to the 2002 Annual Conference Session, remembering all God's gifts.

Come to the water, the precious fountain of God's love.

Come, bringing a cross to add to the centering worship space.

The crosses, amid flowing water and green plants, proclaim Christ Victorious among us. God gives water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert. God graciously abides with us, offering generous provision.

Near the cross, near the water, may we be renewed to share Christ's ministry in the year to come.

Bishop Ricardo Pereira Diaz

Methodist Church of Cuba

Ricardo Pereira Diaz was born in 1956 in Rancho Veloz, Villa Clara, Cuba. After attending schools in his native country he began his work in the church as a lay worker in 1974. He studied and worked in Pilon and Niquero and he was named as assistant to Bishop Rodriguez in the Church of Vedada in 1980 and 1982. He served as pastor in Cuba 1982 through 1996. He was appointed District Superintendent in Pinar del Rio in 1982 until 1986, when he moved to Havana to serve in that city. His ministry has been marked by a strong focus on evangelism and missions. As episcopal leader, he has prepared 25 pastors for the Annual Conference in Cuba.

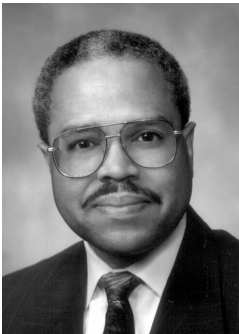

He served in various capacities in the Annual Conference, while serving as pastor and district superintendent, from youth ministry to lay ministries, and in several administrative positions in his ministry. He was elected Bishop in March of 1999.

He has preached in the Florida Annual Conference and in many other settings, including the SEJ Volunteers in Missions in North Carolina and the Workshop on Evangelism of the World Methodist Council.

Joseph L. Harris

General Secretary, United Methodist Men

Dr. Harris earned a bachelor's degree in political science at the University of Massachusetts in 1974; a Master of Divinity in 1980 and a Doctor of Ministry Degree in 1985 from Oral Roberts University Graduate School of Theology.

Dr. Harris was the first African American to be appointed as a district superintendent of the Oklahoma Annual Conference. He served as pastor of Quayle United Methodist Church and also served as associate pastor at the 5000 member Asbury United Methodist Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma. In addition to his pastoral responsibilities, he directed Destination Discovery, a model ministry of The United Methodist Church for latchkey children. Dr. Harris served as chair of the Oklahoma Conference Commission on Religion and Race. He is a trustee of Asbury Theological Seminary and has been a trustee at Oklahoma City University.

Seventeen articles have been published about Dr. Harris and his ministry in religious and secular newspapers and magazines. Among Dr. Harris' many awards have been the Human Relations Award from the Oklahoma Commission on Religion and Race, appreciation awards from Quayle United Methodist Church, Destination Discovery Apartment House Ministry and CCEBS Award for scholastic honors from the University of Massachusetts.

Dr. Harris serves as the General Secretary of the General Commission on United Methodist Men.

He is married to Nancy Harris and has 2 children: Sarah, age 23 and Joseph II age 21.

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

SECTION I: RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. A member may speak only once on any motion until all who desire to speak have done so; and then he/she may speak only one additional time.
3. The chairperson of an agency (or someone designated by him/her) shall be allowed to speak last on his/her report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Speeches shall be limited to five (5) minutes except by consent of the Conference.
5. If any part of these rules conflict with The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, the Discipline shall prevail.
6. The Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall apply to the Annual Conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the Conference.

SECTION II: VOTING

1. Voting shall be by "yes or no" or by a "show of hands" or by "standing" at the discretion of the chair.
2. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the Conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting. The chair may call for a count vote if he/she is in doubt as to the outcome of the vote.
3. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the Conference. The bar of the Conference shall be determined by the Conference at the beginning of the first session.

SECTION III: ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

SECTION IV: CONFERENCE STRUCTURE

1. The Bishop and Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, Committees, and Ministry Groups authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Conference, except in those cases where the Discipline or the Annual Conference directs otherwise.
2. Near the end of each quadrennium, the representatives of all Boards, Agencies, Commissions, Committees, and Ministry Groups shall submit a list of qualified, suggested nominees to the Nominations Committee for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Agencies, Commissions, Committees, and Ministry Groups.
3. Recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.
4. A. At the beginning of each quadrennium all boards, agencies, commissions, committees, and ministry groups shall elect their officers only after all their members have been notified of the organizational meeting. A member of the Cabinet or the Conference Staff (designated by the Cabinet) shall serve as the convening officer for the organizational meeting.
B. All elections in the boards and agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by written, secret ballot of those present and eligible to vote. Nominations from the floor may be made.
C. Tenure for membership for all persons on boards, agencies, commissions, committees, and ministry groups shall be four years with possibility of re-election for a second four year term.
5. The membership of the Annual Conference is to be as outlined in the complete Lay/Clergy Equalization Plan found in the 1991 Journal pages 400 - 401.

6. The Conference structure shall be as detailed by the organizational structure for the North Carolina Annual Conference, as presented on page 185 in the 2000 Journal. The North Carolina Annual Conference will organize its ministry, using The Connectional Table Configuration as follows:

A. Structure Monitoring Group

A group will be established for the purpose of evaluating the conference structure for effectiveness. It will also ensure that the Conference Rules are accurate in the description of the structure of the Annual Conference, making proposals for change as structure evolves. This group will be elected by the Annual Conference and made up of seven people, four of whom are not serving within the Conference Structure.

B. North Carolina Conference Connectional Table

1. The Connectional Table will be the link among the circles of ministry. Its purpose is to provide a place for joint planning and problem-solving, to discern the vision for mission and ministry for the North Carolina Conference, and to strengthen the connection between the Annual Conference and the local church. The Connectional Table is linked to the Annual Conference Session. The Annual Conference Session will have the responsibility of hearing the Connectional Table's vision, and either affirming that vision or setting forward an alternate proposal.

2. Membership: Meeting on a quarterly basis, the Connectional Table will be made up of 31 people - 3 representatives from each circle of ministry, 12 at-large members selected by the Conference Committee on Nominations, the Bishop, 2 District Superintendents, and the Executive Director of Connectional Ministries. At-large members will ensure connecting links between districts and local churches and the Connectional Table. Membership in the Connectional Table will be for four-year terms, with one quarter of the table changing each year. The Conference Committee on Nominations will meet once each year to nominate representatives to the Conference Connectional Table and to the five circles of ministry. Openings occurring during the year due to moves, resignations and other reasons will be filled by the Bishop and Cabinet. The Committee on Nominations will be made up of one representative of the monitoring and accountability group, the 12 District Superintendents, 12 others to be nominated by the bishop (at least 75% of whom should be laity), and the Bishop, who will serve as convener.

C. Five Circles of Ministry

The agencies, boards and commissions defined by the Book of Discipline will organize themselves according to the requirements outlined in the current Book of Discipline and will connect through the circles of ministry. Ministry areas not prescribed by the Book of Discipline will be organized by the circles of ministry, using task forces or standing groups to plan and implement ministry and mission. Circles of ministry will organize, plan, lead, and evaluate, as they live out the vision as embraced by the Conference. Circles of ministry are accountable to the Connectional Table for holding up and living out the vision affirmed by the Annual Conference, and for faithfully presenting ministry needs to the Connectional Table. Each circle of ministry will organize itself and will determine its schedule of meetings, meeting at least once a year.

Membership in the five circles of ministry will be for one four-year term with the option to extend for an additional four-year term, using staggered classes to provide continuity within the ministry area.

1. Spiritual Formation and Leadership Development Circle

This circle of ministry will encompass the work of all Christians (lay and ordained), taking care to carry forward the work of Christian nurture and spiritual formation, including the work of the United Methodist Youth.

2. Mission Development Circle

This circle of ministry will carry forward the work of witness, outreach/missions, and social justice, including the work of the United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men.

3. Episcopal Circle

This circle of ministry will encompass the work of the bishop and cabinet, annual conference program, ecumenism, Christian unity, congregational development, monitoring and accountability, and nominations.

4. Resource Ministries Circle

This circle of ministry will include the work of the treasurer's office, insurance, disability, trustees, pensions, equitable compensation, finance and administration.

5. Communications Circle

This circle of ministry will carry forward the work of archives and history, information systems, publications, electronic reporting, and the linking of the local church, the annual conference, and the world.

7. There shall be a director of ministerial relations/assistant to the bishop with such duties and responsibilities as determined by the Annual Conference or assigned by the presiding bishop.

8. The Conference Secretary:

A. The position of Conference Secretary shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the North Carolina Annual Conference, with adequate funding provided.

B. The position of Conference Secretary shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.

C. The responsibilities of the Conference Secretary shall be defined as specified by the Annual Conference of 1973 (Conference Journal 1973, pages 289-290).

9. The Conference Statistician:

A. The position of Conference Statistician shall be continued on a part-time basis with those duties stipulated by The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, with adequate funding provided.

B. The position of Conference Statistician shall be limited by a tenure of eight years, effective at the beginning of the 1972-1973 Conference Year.

10. Compensation: The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also, the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The Conference treasurer shall pay these amounts.

11. The Conference Lay Leader: The Conference Lay Leader shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Annual Conference following General Conference on nomination by the Bishop and Cabinet and the Executive Committee of the Board of Laity. Should the vacancy occur at any other time it would be filled by the same procedure. The Conference Lay Leader shall serve as the chairperson of the Commission on Laity.

12. Committees and Boards:

A. The Conference Board of Trustees shall meet periodically at times and places designated by the Board at least twice a year. The annual meeting shall be held either at Annual Conference or within 30 days prior thereto.

B. There shall be a Program Committee of the Annual Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, Assistant to the Bishop, the Conference Secretary, Conference Treasurer, the host district superintendent, the Conference lay leader, the Conference president of the UMM, UMW the UMY, the Executive Director of Connectional Ministries, and others as selected by the resident Bishop as deemed appropriate. The Committee shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Annual Conference expense fund. The Committee may also make a recommendation for a site for holding the Annual Conference.

C. The Cabinet will designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district which will be responsible for ushers, flowers, and other related items of hospitality.

D. There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the Conference Secretary, and the district superintendents. They are charged with the responsibility of providing for all details of the memorial service. The Conference Secretary shall serve as its chairperson.

E. There shall be a Committee on Daily Minutes elected each year to examine and edit the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference.

F. There shall be a Committee on Appeals appointed quadrennially, composed of five members whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Buildings, or any other questions that may properly come before it.

G. There shall be a Committee on Rules which shall provide to the Conference a document of Rules of Order and Procedure and the policies and standing rules and structure that the Conference from time to time shall adopt for its functioning. This document shall be presented to each Annual Conference.

H. There shall be a Committee on Resolutions and Reference which shall schedule all resolutions for consideration by the Annual Conference, including resolutions from boards and agencies printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports. This scheduling will not constitute a recommendation for approval, disapproval or referral of such a resolution. Any resolution not in Conference publications will be reviewed by this committee, which shall recommend to the Annual Conference approval, disapproval, or referral to another board or agency. With each report the committee shall state the rationale for the recommendation.

I. There shall be a North Carolina Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. which shall have the responsibility, upon consultation with the Conference Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry, the Conference Commission on Health and Human Services, or the North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc., as appropriate, for nominating and electing forty (40) percent of all voting members of each of the boards of trustees of the affiliated institutions with the exception of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. The North Carolina Annual Conference shall elect the trustees of the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. in staggered four-year terms. (See 1992 Journal, page 320.)

13. No person may serve on more than one board of trustees of an institution to which trustees are elected by the Conference.

SECTION V: FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION

1. The Conference Treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.

2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall present the budget for adoption by the Annual Conference only after all other committees, commissions, boards, and agencies having claims on the budget have presented their report.

3. Each district superintendent shall furnish the Conference Treasurer as early as possible following the completion of the Charge Conferences an official copy of the amounts budgeted by each local church for Conference apportionments; and a schedule of salaries of clergy as budgeted shall be sent to the presiding bishop.

SECTION VI: REPORTS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS, AND AMENDMENTS TO REPORTS

1. All reports, recommendations, and resolutions to be included in the The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports shall be sent to the Conference secretary, on or before the deadline date announced by the Conference Secretary and published in the Conference calendar. Reports or Recommendations should be typewritten or in some other form acceptable to the Conference secretary.

2. Resolutions presented to the Annual Conference, other than those printed in conference publications, shall be submitted in writing to the Conference secretary and the chairperson of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference 30 days prior to the opening of Annual Conference, to allow review by the secretary and Resolutions and Reference Committee, and by all members of the Conference. A resolution is considered "presented" to the Annual Conference when it is distributed in Conference publications or distributed to members on the floor of the Annual Conference after authorization by the Conference Secretary and chairperson of the Resolutions and Reference Committee or the Assistant Conference Secretary. The expense for distributed copies shall be borne by the agency or person originating the resolution, and all copies distributed shall indicate the source of the resolution. No resolution shall be voted on unless it has been on the floor overnight, and no resolution or revised resolution shall be distributed later than the second night of the Annual Conference session. All resolutions shall be referred to the Resolutions and Reference Committee, and this Committee shall report to the Annual Conference daily.

3. Motions presented to the Annual Conference and amendments to motions shall be in writing and placed in the hands of the Conference Secretary prior to or immediately following presentation.

4. Any report, recommendation, resolution, or motion requiring funding beyond the Conference budget as presented by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be submitted in writing to the Conference Secretary with copies for all the lay and clergy members of the Conference. Such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. No such report, recommendation, resolution, or motion shall be distributed later than the second night of the Conference. All such reports, recommendations, resolutions, or motions shall be referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

SECTION VII: PASTOR'S REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE - STATISTICS

1. Final remittances for the current calendar year shall be made to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

2. Each table of the report shall be completed for individual churches.

3. Table II shall be completed in even dollars only.

4. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the Conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

SECTION VIII: THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. The Conference Secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.

2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: the Conference claimants, lay members of the Conference boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference, and lay members of the Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he/she may deem advisable. Copies shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $10.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of the Journal shall be deposited with the Conference treasurer and credited to the Journal Account.

3. The Conference shall publish a one volume Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year.

SECTION IX: DISTRICTS

1. The number of districts shall be twelve.
2. Any motion to change the number of districts must be presented in writing, and must be considered no sooner than the day following its introduction. Any change in the number of districts shall be approved at one annual conference to take effect at the next annual conference.
3. A district conference may be held annually in each district.
4. The district president, sub-district presidents, and the local church presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship shall be delegates to the District Conference, in addition to those named by the 1972 Discipline.
5. The district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the district superintendent and the Conference lay leader.

SECTION X: DISPLAYS AT THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Display tables and similar matters shall be allocated by the Conference Secretary only to those agencies, boards, commissions, groups or circles of ministry that are officially sanctioned by the North Carolina Annual Conference or by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. "Officially sanctioned" is defined as having direct official endorsement from the General Conference of the United Methodist Church or the North Carolina Annual Conference.

No board, agency or similar official group granted display space or similar privileges shall offer its display space to a group or agency that is not officially sanctioned by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church or the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Space may be provided in a separate "Ministry and Advocacy" area adjacent to the meeting place of Annual Conference for groups not officially sanctioned by the North Carolina Annual Conference or by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church but that are of interest to the members of the Annual Conference. Display tables and similar matters related to the Ministry and Advocacy area shall be allocated by the Conference Secretary.

This rule effective upon the adjournment of the 2001 Annual Conference.

SECTION XI: AMENDMENTS

These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing.

SECTION XII: WHEN THE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon adoption by the Annual Conference.

J. Alex Maultsby III, Chairperson
James L. Bryan, Conference Secretary

EXECUTIVE SESSION OF THE 2002 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 2002, 10:00 A.M.

Executive Session for All Clergy: Trish Stewart led the clergy in singing a variety of hymns (O, How I Love Jesus, His Name is Wonderful and Leaning on the Everlasting Arms). Bishop Marion M. Edwards called the 177th session of the North Carolina Annual Conference Executive Session to order at 10:00 a.m. and reminded the members that this was the 34th meeting since 1968 of the United Methodist Church. The Bishop welcomed the clergy and guests to the Executive Session, then opened with prayer and the singing of My Hope is Built. Bishop Edwards then read from ¶365.5 designating the purpose of the Executive Session as set forth in The Book of Discipline. He also quoted from ¶605.6, which states that decisions made by the Executive Session will apply to the Annual Conference as a whole. Bishop Edwards recognized the Order of Elders, Order of Deacons and Order of Local Pastors. The Bishop noted the addition of Local Pastors to this year's Executive Session.

Bishop Edwards addressed the Executive Session on the subject of caring for each other in covenant ministry. Bishop Edwards introduced Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons, sexual ethics coordinator; Jane Clark Moorman, clergy counselor; David Brownlee, large membership church coordinator for Wellspring Ministries; and Branson Sheets, small membership church coordinator for Wellspring Ministries. Sheets will split his time between Wellspring and Bailey UMC. Glenda Johnson will be devote her time to spiritual formation with Wellspring. He encouraged pastors to become members of covenant groups: Study, Enrichment, Accountability and Learning (SEAL groups).

Bishop Edwards expressed some concern about pastoral leadership in the covenant community. He expressed three concerns: gossip, sexual ethics, and undermining your successor when returning to the former church. These are chargeable offenses under the Discipline. Finally, he reminded the Executive Session how fortunate they are to be a part of the best Annual Conference in the denomination. He stated that there were over fifty clergy persons who requested admission into the North Carolina Annual Conference in the past year.

Motion: The Bishop explained the voting rights of members in full connection. He stated that the Executive Session must grant special permission for visitors to be present. The Bishop then requested that a motion be made to allow guests to be present. A motion was made, seconded, and approved.

Passing of the Character of the Clergy: The Bishop explained the purpose and meaning of passing the character of the clergy as set forth in ¶605.6. The district superintendents stood as Bishop Edwards declared them blameless in their character and official administration. Due to illness, Ed Morrison was not present. The Bishop then called for the vote to approve the conduct and administration of the district superintendents, and they were approved.

Bishop Edwards called on the district superintendents to report on the character of the clergy in their respective districts. The Elizabeth City District has a complaint filed against one clergy person. The remaining eleven district superintendents reported nothing against the clergy of their districts. With the exception of the one clergy with an unresolved complaint, the Bishop asked the Executive Session to pass the character of the clergy of the North Carolina Annual Conference. They were passed.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Edwards expressed his appreciation to the Board of Ordained Ministry for their work. He then called Roger Elliott, chairperson of the Board, to present the report.

Elliott referred to the Annual Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the ERRATA sheet containing additional changes. He pointed out the eight major duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry as printed on page 1 of the report. The board view themselves not as gatekeepers but mentors.

Elliott gave an overview of the individual committee reports printed on pages 1-12 of the Annual Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Executive Session was directed to page 3 to the nominations for the Board of Managers, Pastors' School and Convocation. No other nominations were made. The Bishop called for the vote and the nominees were elected.

The Administrative Review Committee nominations were presented. Pursuant to The Book of Discipline 2000, ¶1633, these persons are to be elected by the Executive Session upon nomination by the Bishop. No other nominations were made. The Bishop called for the vote and they were elected.

Elliott referred to Question 33, "Who are elected as members (Deacons and Elders) in full connection?" One candidate is eligible for Deacon in full connection and eighteen candidates are eligible for Elder in full connection. These candidates were presented to the Bishop, who asked the candidates the historic Wesleyan questions. Each responded appropriately. The Bishop called for the election of members in full connection and they were elected. The members of the session stood and sang, "I am Thine, O Lord." Bishop Edwards then led a prayer for the new members of the Annual Conference.

The Executive Session was directed to Question 19, "Who have received the certificate of candidacy for ordained ministry?" A correction was noted: change Robert Licht's charge conference to Long Memorial (DU). Those listed were asked to stand and they received applause. Elliott then addressed Question 46, "Who are discontinued as Probationary Members?" A question was asked regarding involuntary discontinuance of a Probationary member, Warren Trall Heitzenrater. Another question was asked regarding Warren Trall Heitzenrater. Lisa Cole was asked to report for the Administrative Review Committee. Cole reported that all the requirements for due process had been met. Bishop Edwards called for the vote on the discontinuance.

Question: Mark Wethington, Southern Pines (SA), asked a question regarding a discontinuation. Bishop Edwards commented that he needed to lift out the person he had a concern about since three people were recommended for discontinuance. Wethington did so. The Bishop granted Wethington permission to speak to the situation of Warren Heitzenrater, Efland (BU). Of the three recommended for discontinuance only Heitzenrater's was involuntary. Wethington questioned the accuracy of the information used against Heitzenrater that resulted in the involuntary discontinuance. The complaint pertained to the standards of competency in ordering the life of the church. Patrice Cheasty-Miller, St. Paul (DU), asked for reconsideration to allow Heitzenrater more time to grow and develop. Paul Stallsworth, Broad Creek-St. Peter's (NB), asked if it would be appropriate for Heitzenrater to address the Executive Session. Warren Heitzenrater was requested to come forward. He asked if anyone had any questions. The Bishop directed them to speak or make his own statement. Jimmie Tatum, Camp (WI), asked the Board of Ordained Ministry Executive Committee to remind the Executive Session why they recommended the involuntary discontinuance of Heitzenrater.

Motion: Kermit Braswell, Raleigh District, moved that the "body of the Conference be Deacons and Elders in full connection for the involuntary discontinuation discussion of Warren Heitzenrater." The motion was seconded. Wethington asked a Disciplinary question (See Board of Ordained Ministry minutes of the Executive Session). The Bishop then ruled that the Heitzenrater matter would be before the voting body of the Executive Session. The Bishop called for the vote and it was approved.

The Bishop then asked for the vote concerning whether to come back to the Heitzenrater issue at the end of the Executive Session or to dismiss persons not in full connection and discuss the issue at the present time. The first vote was inconclusive. A second vote was taken to continue with the remainder of the business and wait until the end of the Executive Session to deal with the matter. The Executive Session was directed back to Question 46. Jeanne Beard Allen and J. Allen Lovell were granted voluntary discontinuance. The Bishop called for the vote and it was approved.

Elliott then referred to Question 21: those approved and appointed as local pastors and probationary members licensed for pastoral ministry. The Bishop called for a vote on those listed under Questions 21. They were approved. Several corrections were noted: Delete Heather Herrin Wong and Nancy McGee Willard under Question 19; Add Heather Herrin Wong and Milton Earl Little to Question 21(a); Delete Milton Earl Little from Question 21(b); Add Joyce Christine Day and Nancy McGee Willard to Question 21(b) and delete the same from Question 21(c). The name of Matthew Evans was added to Question 21(a) and he has completed twenty-one courses. The local pastors were voted on again and approved.

Elliott then referred to Question 22, which required no action. No one was listed under Question 23, "Who has been reinstated as local pastor?"

The Executive Session was referred to Question 24, which required no action. The name of Carmen (Randi) Godfrey was deleted. Bishop Edwards welcomed those persons from other Annual Conferences and Methodist denominations serving in the NC Annual Conference and they were greeted with applause.

Those listed under Question 25 were presented for approval. The name of Charles R. Sheppard was deleted. Under the name Kenny Jamaine Walden, delete Southern Baptist and add National Baptist. The Bishop called for the vote, and they were approved. Elliott referred to those listed in Question 26, which required a 2/3 vote. The Bishop called for their election and they were approved.

Elliott addressed Question 28 and presented the candidates for probationary membership to Bishop Edwards. The Bishop asked for any questions directed to the candidates and called for their approval. They were approved. Elliott then presented the candidates for Probationary Membership under the 1992 Discipline. The Bishop called for the vote and they were approved. The members of the session sang "Have Thine Own Way, Lord."

Elliott then turned to Questions 31(c) concerning those who are continued as probationary members elected under the 1992 Book of Discipline. He asked that all those listed to stand. No vote was required.

Elliott referred to Question 34(a), "Who are elected for ordination as Deacons in full connection?" A correction was made to the spelling of Thornton and the degree should be listed as BME University of Evansville. The Bishop called for the vote and Janet Grinnell Thornton-Irvine was elected. The members were then directed to Question 35(b), "Who are elected for ordination as Elders after probationary membership under the 1996 Book of Discipline?" Stanley Alton Gallagher-Smith was presented. The Bishop called for the vote and he was approved. Elliott moved to Question 36(b), "Who have been elected and ordained Deacon under the 1992 Book of Discipline as probationary members?" Bishop Edwards called for the vote and they were elected.

Elliott then turned to Question 37(a), "Who have been elected and ordained elders under the 1992 Book of Discipline as theological graduates?" Under the name Robert Dan Rose, Duke Divinity School was changed to Asbury. The Bishop called for the vote to approve them for ordination as Elders and they were approved.

Simeon Dufrene Cummings was presented for readmission under Question 39(b), "Who are readmitted as members in full connection?" This required a 2/3 vote. The Bishop asked for the vote and he was approved.

Those transferring from other annual conferences (Question 41) were recognized and approved. Elliott referred to Question 45, "Who have transferred out to other Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church?" Elliott then turned to Question 47(a) and presented Mary Smith Trum to be granted an honorable location. The Bishop called for the vote and it was approved. Those listed under Question 47(b) were presented and approved. No action was required for Question 48.

Under Question 50(a), two persons withdrew their conference membership to unite with another denomination. Jeanne Beard Allen withdrew from the ordained ministerial office under Question 50(b). Under Question 50(c), two persons withdrew under complaints or charges. The Bishop called for the vote on Question 50 and they were approved for termination.

Elliott referred to Question 51, "Who have been suspended under the provisions of ¶359.1c or ¶2711.3b?" This was for information only and required no action.

Under Question 53, Elliott read the names of the probationary and ordained ministers who have received appointments in other Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church. Under Question 54, Geiselle Thompson received the 2/3 vote required for leave of absence greater than five years. Upon vote of the members, clergy listed on leave of absence under provisions of Question 54(a) were approved. Elliott then referred to Question 54(c), those placed on leave since the last session of Annual Conference, and they were approved. Under Question 55(a) Suzanna Ross Helms and Joyce Lenore Parker each required a 2/3 vote for family leave granted for more than 5 years. The Bishop called for the vote and both were approved. Clergy listed on family leave under provisions of Question 55 were approved by vote of the members.

Charles Pollock removed Julie Hilton Steele from Question 57(a) and added Julie Hilton Steele, Fairmont (RA), as of 07/01/2002 to Question 57(c). Persons granted incapacity for the first time and those continuing incapacity leave under Question 57(a) and (c) were presented. The Bishop asked the members for approval. They were approved.

Elliott addressed Questions 58, 59, and 61: those retiring or recently retired. He called the name of each person retiring in the current year and they were asked to stand. He noted that Joseph Eugene Kossan retired in the interim. The Bishop called for the approval of first time retirees and they were approved. He then asked the Executive Session to approve the retirement relationship for those listed and they were approved.

Elliott then referred to Question 87, "Who are appointed to extension ministries for the ensuing year?" Phillip H. Barrineau was corrected to read Chaplain, Hospice of Scotland County; Laurinburg: First CC. The Bishop asked the members to approve those appointed to extension ministries under Question 87. They were approved.

Kelli Walker-Jones was deleted under Question 82. Mary Ellen Phelan Switzer was voted on separately due to her extension beyond the time limit, and she was approved. The Bishop called for a vote on the others listed and they were approved.

Everyone stood as Roger Elliott read the names of those clergy and clergy spouses who have died since our last meeting. Samuel Duncan McMillan, Jr. was added to Question 52(c). Bishop Edwards led the Executive Session in a prayer for their families. The Bishop moved the approval of Question 52. It was approved.

Bishop Edwards dismissed everyone but the Deacons and Elders in full connection. The Bishop then recognized Elliott to resume the Heitzenrater issue discussion. He began with a prayer. A lengthy discussion ensued. The question was called. The vote was to sustain the recommendation of the Board of Ordained Ministry to discontinue Warren Trall Heitzenrater as a Probationary member. (A "yes" vote was to agree with the recommendation and a "no" vote was to disagree with the recommendation of the Board of Ordained Ministry and continue Heitzenrater as a probationary member.) The report of the board was sustained. Elliott then moved the adoption of the full report of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Bishop Edwards then commented and requested that Heitzenrater be supported, and loved. The Bishop called for the vote to approve the report as a whole and it was approved. He thanked the Board of Ordained Ministry for their work.

Adjournment: The Bishop dismissed the Executive Session at 12:42 p.m.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 2002

Communion Service: Special music greeted the Conference members as they gathered in the auditorium in preparation for the communion service. Soloist Camilla Pruitt, offered a beautiful and moving rendition of Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross. Bishop Marion Edwards used the words of that song to remind the conference of their calling and purpose: drawn to the Cross, washed in the Fountain, nourished at the Table, sent out to Embrace. The Bishop stated that Jesus frees us to go out into His world to become “not just good people but nice people.” His message was followed by the celebration of Holy Communion.

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order at 3:01 p.m. for the business session. He gave a brief historical perspective of The United Methodist Church and The North Carolina Annual Conference. The Conference began with the singing of “And Are We Yet Alive.” Charles Michael Smith served as music leader for the session. Bishop Edwards recognized James Bryan as the Conference Secretary and complimented the secretarial staff for their work behind the scenes to make Annual Conference successful.

Announcement: James Bryan asked everyone to turn their cell phones off and to leave the auditorium to take/make telephone calls.

Organization of the Conference: James Bryan, Conference Secretary, referred to the rules, defined the bar of the Conference, and presented motions of order. The Bishop clarified that the bar of the Conference is the main floor and the stage of the Cumberland County Auditorium and does not include the balcony. That area is reserved for guests.

The Bishop called for the vote on the motions of order and they were approved.

Welcome: Bishop Edwards recognized Milton Gilbert, Goldsboro District, as the host district superintendent for Annual Conference. Gilbert then addressed the Conference and welcomed everyone on behalf of the Goldsboro District.

Point of Personal Privilege: Milton Gilbert, with the help of Martin Armstrong, and Richard Williams presented a very special gift from the Goldsboro District and Conference to Bishop and Mrs. Edwards. The Bishop thanked Gilbert, the Goldsboro District and the Conference for their acts of kindness.

Report of the Committee on Conference Rules: J. Alex Maultsby III, chairperson, presented the report of the Committee on Conference Rules. Maultsby directed the Annual Conference to the Conference Rules of Order and Procedure as printed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002, page 15-20. He noted the following changes to be made: Section VI (1), page 18, insert “on or before the deadline/date set by the Conference Secretary;” Section VI (2), page 19, replace “at least 24 hours in advance” with “on the floor overnight;” Section X, page 20, replace “tent” with “area.”

Bishop Edwards then called for the vote on the adoption of the Conference Rules and they were adopted.

Report of Monitoring and Accountability Ministry Team: William Cummings, chairperson, presented the report found in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002, page 37. He explained the function of this ministry team and encouraged the Conference to read the entire report as printed.

Presentation of Special Guest: Bishop Edwards recognized guest preachers Reverend Marjorie Thompson, Bishop Ricardo Pereira Diaz of the Methodist Church of Cuba, Reverend Jackie Leveron, (FL Conference) translator for Bishop Diaz’s entire stay, and Dr. Joseph Harris, United Methodist Men General Secretary. Herbert and Mary Zigbou, missionaries to Liberia were introduced. The bishop also recognized a number of conference members serving within the connexional structure of United Methodism included Edith Gleaves, Sam Dixon and Anna Gail Workman of the General Board of Global Ministries, Mary Jane Pierce Norton of the General Board of Discipleship, Jerome Smith of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Conference, Clay Smith of the Hinton Rural Life Center, and David Harvin of the General Board of Church and Society.

State of the Church Address: Bishop Marion Edwards delivered his state of the church address. He invited The Reverend Camille Yorkey to speak as part of the address. Yorkey shared some of her experiences as a chaplain in New York City following the September 11, 2001 attacks on the World Trade Center. Bishop Edwards then invited Otis Hardy to speak about Disciple Bible Study in prison ministry. He shared how involvement in Disciple Bible Study changed his life. The Bishop then reiterated his vision and strategies for the quadrennium 2001-2004. He announced the leadership team for Spiritual Formation: David Brownlee, large membership churches; Branson Sheets, small membership churches; and Glenda Johnson, spiritual formation. Glenda will help establish SEAL (Study Enrichment, Accountability, and Learning) groups.

The Bishop received applause for his desire to revive small membership churches, not close them. Bishop Edwards revealed his second strategy to develop 20 new missions in communities affected by poverty. A third strategy is to strengthen local churches for inclusive mission. His fourth strategy is to start twenty new congregations over the quadrennium. Finally, Bishop Edwards wants to develop the resources of money, personnel and equipment for mission. A new foundation for the Office of Congregational Development is generating funds.

Bishop Edwards cited several specific examples where spiritual accountability created significant ministry in the church and in this Conference. He encouraged the Conference to be involved in spiritual formation and called for a new vision of spiritual accountability in leadership. The Wellspring model is a basis for spiritual formation.

Bishop Edwards concluded his state of the church address with the Conference singing "I Have Decided to Follow Jesus." (See State of the Church Address).

Offering: An offering was received for Project Agape in Armenia. This is a joint effort with the Western North Carolina Conference. $3,770.79 was received.

Report of the Conference Statistician: Statistician The Reverend George Speake directed the Conference's attention to The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002, page 118-19. He pointed out the increase in worship attendance and membership. Speake commented that women out-number men in The United Methodist Church of North Carolina Conference. He noted that over 27,000 people attend small groups.

Report of the Structure Review Team: Kim Lamb, chairperson, presented the Structure Review Team report. She directed the Conference to The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002, page 30. She outlined the report and spoke of the need for better communication. The Circles of Ministry were encouraged, and the monitoring of this structure will continue. No changes were recommended. The Bishop thanked Lamb for the report.

Report on the Russia United Methodist Theological Seminary: Chairperson Carol Goehring presented a video which highlighted the seminary and featured Russian Bishop Ruediger R. Minor. She reported that $333,000 of a $500,000 pledge had been collected to date. Bishop Edwards thanked the Conference for their participation and commented that the North Carolina Conference leads The United Methodist Church in raising money for this initiative.

Report of Council on Finance and Administration: Carl Frazier, president of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, and J. Allen Norris, Jr., Conference Treasurer, presented the Council's report. Frazier noted that 97% of the apportioned funds were paid. Frazier referred to page 75-81 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002. The proposed budget reflects a 5.29% increase. He pointed out several increases: line item 78: Conference Claimants – Retiree Insurance, $350,000; Item II: Past Service Liability – Pensions, $200,000. These increases represent 2/3 of the budget increase total. The Conference budget to be raised in 2003 is for January 1, 2004 to December 31, 2004.

Frazier then directed the Conference to Item V, page 90, to the 5.0% increase recommended for the District Superintendent Salary. He then referred to Item VI, L, page 92, regarding information about minimum reserve funds. Frazier stated that Items I and V are on the table to be voted on by the Conference at a later time. Item VI and Item VII are for information and require no vote.

Frazier moved the adoption of Items III and IV. Bishop Edwards called for the vote and these Items were approved.

Point of Personal Privilege: Carl Frazier asked for a moment of personal privilege. He announced that a portrait of Allen Norris has been commissioned and will hang in the Methodist Building. Norris addressed the Conference noting that June 28, 2002 was his last day in office.

Bishop Edwards requested a moment of personal privilege and praised Norris for his work and his commitment. The Bishop expressed his own gratitude and appreciation for Norris.

Motion: Carl Frazier moved on behalf of the Council of Finance and Administration the nomination of Sharon Strother for Conference Treasurer. The Bishop called for the vote and she was elected unanimously. Strother then addressed the Conference sharing personal information and her work philosophy. She introduced her husband, David Newberry.

Conference Committee on Nominations: Hope Morgan Ward, Conference Connectional Ministries Executive Director, presented the Nominations Report. She directed the Conference to The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002, page 40, 2003 Conference Advance Specials. She asked the Conference to review the list which will be voted on later. She then referred to nominations listed on pages 61-63 and in the Book of Handouts 2002-2003. She noted the following changes: Oxyvenia Hughley was deleted from Archives & History; Kermit L. Braswell was added to Pensions; Marjorie Daniels was deleted from Stewardship.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Roger Elliott, chairperson of the Board, presented a report to the Conference outlining the purpose and scope of the Board of Ordained Ministry to the Annual Conference. He gave statistics regarding the number of people elected into membership of Annual Conference in the various categories. He also spoke about the number of persons retiring.

Elliott called on the Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministries Chairperson, Richard Williams. Williams referred to pages 54-55 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002, Division of Deacons and Diaconal Ministries, Board of Ordained Ministries, for revisions. Williams made the following corrections to the report: Ronda Torres and Nancy Pugh were added as a Deacon in full connection. Janette Singley was added as candidate to be commissioned. The Bishop called for a vote on the diaconal ministries recommendations and they were approved.

Elliott then recognized the members who were rotating off the Board of Ordained Ministry and thanked them for their service.

Recognition of Extension Ministries: Elliott recognized all those serving in Extension Ministries. He asked those present to stand and be recognized. Bishop Edwards expressed thanks for their ministry.

Announcements: Secretary James Bryan made announcements. He noted that praise music will begin at 7:00 p.m. The Committee on Resolutions and Reference will meet following the afternoon business session. There will be a Communion Service Friday morning at 7:30 a.m. The afternoon session was dismissed at 5:13 p.m.

FIRST DAY, EVENING WORSHIP SESSION

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 2002

A Celebration of Christ's Ministry: The liturgists were Bishop Marion Edwards, Reverend Faye B. Rouse and Reverend Andrew Keck. The guest preacher was Bishop Ricardo Pereira Diaz. Soloist Amy Edwards accompanied by Camilla Pruitt, sang "Amazing Grace." The organist for the worship service was Reverend William J. Weisser. Local pastors licensed for the first time were recognized. Candidates were commissioned to probationary membership and ordained as Deacons in probationary membership. (For synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Celebration of Christ's Ministry, Thursday, June 6, 2002.)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 2002

Morning Worship: Bishop Marion M. Edwards was the liturgist, and Dr. Joseph Harris was the preacher. The service began at 8:30 a.m. with prayer.

Announcements: Bishop Edwards stated that Ed Morrison is recovering at home after heart surgery this week at Moore Regional and directed the secretary to send him greetings as well. James Bryan, Conference Secretary, made announcements and mentioned another prayer request.

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order for the morning's business.

Report of Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry: Higher Education and Campus Ministry Commission Chairperson, the Reverend Regina Henderson presented the report of the Commission. Henderson requested that the Conference consider approval of the vital partnership agreement with the colleges and the Annual Conference. The Western North Carolina Conference has already approved the partnership agreement. The Bishop called for the vote to support the agreement and it was approved.

Report of Christian and Interfaith Unity Council: Chairperson Eric Lindblade presented the report of the Council explaining the three aspects of the Christian and Interfaith Unity Council. Lindblade introduced Paul Stallworth to present the Christian Unity award honoring Dr. Geoffrey Wainwright of Duke University. Stallworth gave a brief synopsis of Wainwright's life, career and writings. He stated that Christian Unity was an essential part of Dr. Wainwright's ministry and teaching. Dr. Wainwright addressed the Conference sharing his vision and desires for ecumenical cooperation with all faiths. Bishop Edwards recognized Mrs. Wainwright.

Brief Recess: Bishop Edwards announced a brief recess to prepare for the upcoming Memorial Service.

All Saints Celebration - Memorial Service: Bishop Marion M. Edwards presided, Reverend Glenda Johnson preached, Reverend Lisa Brown Cole served as lector and Reverend Shane Benjamin was liturgist. The Trinity Ringers, Trinity UMC in Elizabethtown, provided special music. Ms. Judy Aycock was organist. As the Bishop read the name of each one who had died, a bell tolled, and family members and friends lit a candle for each person named. (For synopsis of entire service, see worship bulletin, All Saints Celebration and Memorial Service, Friday, June 7, 2002.)

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 2002

The North Carolina Partners in Caring: President Jerry Smith conducted the meeting. Names of Partners in Caring who had died in the past year were read to the Conference. Caswell Shaw led in prayer. Henry Lovelace addressed the Conference. Branson Sheets referred to the nominations listed in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002, page 98-99. Smith asked for the vote to approve the nominations and they were approved. The NC Partners in Caring completed their annual report.

Plenary Session: The Bishop called the session to order at 1:34 p.m.

Report of Joint Committee on Incapacity: Charles Pollock, chairperson of Joint Committee on Incapacity, made revisions to the report on pages 93-95 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002. Stacey Graves was removed from Lines 9(F). Debra Watson was added to Line 9. Julie H. Steele was added to Line 10. He instructed the Conference to change Line 12 to Line 13. The new Line 12 should read "Who has had their Incapacity Leave terminated since the last Annual Conference? Stacey Z. Graves – March 15, 2002." The Bishop called for the vote on the report as a whole and it was accepted.

Report of Commission on Equitable Compensation: Steven N. Formo, chairperson, presented the report on Equitable Compensation on pages 72-75 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002. Formo praised Allen Norris for his work with the Commission. Formo moved the adoption of the salary recommendation. Darron Flowers, lay member of Fremont (GO), expressed concern over the percentage increase of student pastors' salary compared to district superintendents' salary. Flowers did not offer a motion but encouraged the Conference to close the gap. The Bishop asked Carl Fraizer if the percentage increase for district superintendents was the same for pastoral clergy. Formo then explained the formulas for computing salary levels for full time and student pastors and referred to page 84 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002. Allen Norris explained that because benefits are increasing greater than the salary portion of the district superintendents' compensation, a percentage larger than 5% is reflected in the budget. The Bishop asked for the vote to approve the report as a whole and it was approved.

Announcements: James Bryan, Conference Secretary, made announcements. Tickets for the Laity Dinner were still available.

Report of Disaster Recovery Ministries and the Marion Edwards Recovery Center Initiatives (M.E.R.C.I.): Barbara Tripp, director of the DRM/MERCI, referred to the report printed on page 46 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002. Tripp presented a video depicting people that The United Methodist Church assisted in the aftermath of hurricane Floyd. Steve Hall addressed the Conference on behalf of the DRM/MERCI.

Report of Committee on Disaster Response: James R. Huskins, chairperson, addressed the Conference and gave the report of the Committee on Disaster Response. See The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002 pages 46-47.

Report of the United Methodist Publishing House: Cindy Keen, Raleigh Cokesbury Manager, brought the report from the United Methodist Publishing House and introduced the Cokesbury team for this part of North Carolina. She highlighted some of the new publications and the contents in the Conference packet that were available to Cokesbury shoppers. She promoted the Cokesbury Golf Tournament. She then presented a check for $14,147.83 for the Board of Pensions.

Report of Committee on Itinerate Clergy Moving Expense: Chairperson Carl Belcher referred the Conference to the report printed in The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2001 on pages 58-60. He stated that there is no recommendation for an increase. He pointed out an addition to Section II (B). He also presented the addition to Section II (H) which adds a 20% stipend for taxable reimbursements to help offset the tax effect for those who do not meet the IRS requirements to receive the moving reimbursement tax free. The Bishop called for the vote and the report was accepted.

Historical Moment: Reverend Donnie L. Jones was recognized to address the Conference. His presentation depicted the life of James Hood, a famous African Methodist Episcopal Zion pastor and bishop.

Recognition: Bishop Edwards asked Pensions Chairperson Reverend William Sherman to present the retiring clergy. He did so, and each retiring conference member had an opportunity to speak briefly to the Conference.

Report of the Board of Laity: Conference Lay Leader Jeanne Rouse introduced Mr. Mack B. Parker, UMM president. Parker presented the report on page 52 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002, of the United Methodist Men. Parker introduced Mr. Denver King who represented the SEJ of United Methodist Men. Parker presented Reginald Ponder the John Wesley Fellow Award.

Mrs. Emily Innes, UMW president, addressed the Conference on behalf of the UMW. Innes spoke briefly of the accomplishments and giving of the UMW. She directed the Conference's attention to page 52 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports 2002. Innes stated that the UMW theme for this year is "Ordinary People with an Extraordinary Mission."

Rebecca Coley, UMYF president, was introduced and addressed the Conference. She presented the report of The United Methodist Youth as printed on pages 66-67 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002.

Jeanne Rouse noted that Coley also served as Conference Board of Laity Secretary. Rouse recognized all the members of the Conference Board of Laity. A special thanks was given to Hope Morgan Ward for serving as the Conference staff representative to the Board of Laity.

Lay Ministry of the Year: Jeanne Rouse listed all the nominees for outstanding lay ministry of the year. The Lay Ministry of the Year Award was presented to the Bolivia Lay Ministry Outreach at Prospect UMC (RO). Mabel Cummings and Reverend Bill James Locklear received the award on behalf of Prospect.

Presentation: Jim Huskins, chairperson of Committee on Disaster Response, was recognized to make a presentation. Huskins introduced Mike Ward, North Carolina State Superintendent of Public Education. Ward, on behalf of the State of North Carolina, presented Bishop Edwards with the Order of the Long Leaf Pine, the highest honor that North Carolina gives to volunteers. Bishop Edwards was recognized for his work in the aftermath of hurricane Floyd devastation. Barbara Tripp and the staff and volunteers of Disaster and Recovery Ministries were also honored with the Order of the Long Leaf Pine.

Report of the Committee on Episcopacy: Episcopacy Chairperson Cashar Evans presented the report. Evans focused on the wide vision and leadership of Bishop Edwards which has not only affected us but also the world. In conclusion to his report Evans asked the Conference to stand as he offered a prayer for Bishop Edwards. Bishop Edwards responded to the report with gratitude and praise of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Report of Older Adult Ministries: Susan McGuire, chairperson, presented the report and spoke about the unique opportunities afforded to Older Adult ministries. She presented the video "Ministry in Motion: Senior in Action." The video reminded us of the great, rich resource of older adults.

Announcements: Bishop Edwards invited everyone to attend the Laity dinner tonight. Sid Huggins, Dean of the Cabinet, gave the benediction. The afternoon session was dismissed at 4:58 p.m.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 2002

Worship Service: Bishop Marion Edwards presided and the guest preacher was Bishop Ricardo Pereira Diaz. Reverend Hector Millan participated in the service. The Monte de Sion Praise Band provided special music. The Conference donated instruments to the praise band. An offering was received for the Methodist Church of Cuba.

Announcement: Mark Wethington announced that the Wesley Heritage Foundation has been offered a matching grant of $50,000 to get the Obras de Wesley (Works of Wesley) to the Spanish speaking churches of the world. The Obras de Wesley project is an Advance Special.

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 2002

Morning Worship: Bishop Marion M. Edwards presided and Bishop Ricardo Pereira Diaz was the preacher. Reverend Jackie Leveron served as interpreter. The service began at 8:30 a.m. with prayer. The Monte de Sion Praise Band provided prelude music. The service concluded with the singing of Freely, Freely and a prayer led by Bishop Pereira Diaz.

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order for the order of the day at 9:22 a.m. He led the Conference in a morning prayer.

Announcements: James Bryan, Conference Secretary made announcements.

Report on the Board of Pensions: The Bishop called on Reverend William Sherman to present the Board of Pensions report. Sherman commented on the unfunded liability and the increases in the budget that will cover the deficit by the year 2021. He invited Sharon Strother to make a presentation. Strother gave a graphic illustration to show the progress and the plan to deal with the unfunded liability.

Sherman then resumed his report. He reminded the Conference that health care for the retirees is a significant expense through CIGNA. He made corrections to the report. Under Section I (B) (2) and (3) on page 99, the words "and life" were deleted. He moved the adoption of Section I and it was approved.

In Section II, Sherman added the name of Debra Watson, effective 11/01/2001, and deleted the name of Stacey Zane Graves. The name of Julie Hilton Steele, effective 7/1/2002, was added under Section II, "We recommend the following pastors to be placed on Incapacity Leave for the first time." Under Section II, "Who have been placed on Incapacity Leave since the last Annual Conference?" add "terminated 03/15/2002" to the name of Stacey Zane Graves. of Samuel D. McMillan, Jr. was added as Section III (W). Frances McMillan – 05/28/2002 was added as Section IV (J).

Sherman moved to Section V and continued corrections. Under Section V (D), add Guy Vassar Soule, Jr. (Age 66, 24.00 years under appointment with 3.50 years of North Carolina credit and 20.50 years of North Carolina MPP/CPP). Sherman moved the adoption of Section V as corrected and it was adopted.

Under Section VIII (A), page 101, delete everything in parentheses and replace with "MPP/CPP are included in line items for these appointments." The change was voted on and approved.

Under Section VIII (B), the following corrections were made; David Girod, Mary Martha Hatch, Regina Henderson and Alex Maultsby were added and delete the names of John G. Cottingham, Para Drake, Ellen H. Metcalf, Virgil Huffman and Delores Langley.

Sherman then referred to Report B on page 102 and noted the increase from $445 to $467 per service year. The Bishop called for the vote and it was adopted. Sherman indicated the remainder of Report B was for information. Under Report B, Item IV (b) and (c), the bold printed information states that payments are to be made through the local church treasurer. No action was required. He explained that the housing exclusion allowance under Report C must be adopted annually. Sherman moved the approval of Report C and it was approved. Sherman then moved the adoption of the report as a whole, and it was adopted.

Report of the Commission on Congregational Development: Steve Compton, Director of Congregational Development, brought the report.

Motion: Darron Flowers, lay member Fremont UMC, moved that the Conference “reconsider the report on equitable compensation.” Flowers was concerned about the student pastor salary. The Bishop called for the vote to reconsider and the motion failed.

Stephen Compton then turned the Conference’s attention to Congregational Development. He gave an overview of the work and accomplishments of congregational development including new church development, assisting small membership churches, and seeking major funding resources for significant programs and ministries. This includes the purchases of properties and other assets. Compton promoted the $10 Club, a program that makes a call five times a year to raise funds for new church development. Compton introduced Allen Bingham, chairperson of Congregational Development, to share additional information concerning the changing pace of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Bingham then invited Compton back to address the Conference about developing new churches and the $10 Club. Compton presented a video to promote the $10 club. It is available for church presentations and is produced by the NC Annual Conference. First UMC, Fuquay-Varina, New Beginnings, and Windborne were recognized and received their charters. The Bishop congratulated these congregations. The Bishop’s hope and dream is for there to be 50,000 $10 Club members. Bishop Edwards wants to be able to purchase the land before a new church is started.

Report of Committee on Insurance: Chairperson Charles Crutchfield offered the proposed rates for the year 2003 with HealthFlex, which reflect a 16% rate increase. Crutchfield suggested that personal health care and health monitoring is the best way to control health care cost, and subsequently insurance costs. A visual presentation entitled “Take Time to Care for Yourself” was shown. He promoted the health awareness fair at Annual Conference, outlined some of the driving forces behind the change and increase in health care cost and encouraged people to eat right and eat less. The committee recommended the adoption of Plan B500 and Pharmacy Plan 3. If the Conference remains with the current plan, rates will increase 27%. Bishop Edwards called for discussion. William Olsen, Washington First (GR), asked for clarification and spoke in favor of keeping the current plan. William Sherman responded that an additional $90,000 would be needed to cover the retirees insurance costs if the Conference remains with the current plan. Lon Miller, Incapacity Leave, spoke against changing the current plan. Eric Miller, Englewood lay member (RM), spoke in favor of the insurance committee’s recommendation. He stated that government employees are not receiving salary increases and their insurance and health care costs are rising. Bishop Edwards asked for the vote to call the question and the question was called. The Bishop called for the vote and the Conference adopted the recommendations of the committee.

Celebration of Missions: Steve Taylor, Director of Missions, introduced Ray Buchanan to celebrate the mission efforts of the Conference. He presented Bishop Edwards the Ready, Fire, Aim Leadership Award from Stop Hunger Now. The Key Taylor Award for excellence in mission was presented to Halifax UMC, (RM). Anne Shepard, lay member and Leonard Rex, pastor, accepted the award. Taylor then introduced a video presentation entitled “Your Story and Missions.” Special music accompanied the presentation. The music, narration and slide show told the story of missions in the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Report of the North Carolina Council of Churches: Dr. George Reed and Reverend Dr. Joe Brown both from the North Carolina Council of Churches were introduced. After Brown spoke Reed then spoke on behalf of the NCCC and thanked the Conference for their contributions and commented on the lottery issue before the legislature. Bishop Edwards thanked Dr. Reed and Dr. Brown for their comments and encouragement.

Motion: Sam Brown, retired (RA), moved “to restore funding to the NC Council of Churches.” The motion was seconded and the Bishop called for discussion. Roger Elliott, Edenton Street (RA), spoke against the motion. Steve Hickle, Fairmont (RA), spoke in favor of the motion. Lon Miller, Incapacity Leave, spoke against the motion. Charles Smith, Rocky Mount District, spoke for the motion. David Banks, Jonesboro (SA), spoke against the motion. The question was called from the floor. Bishop Edwards asked for the vote and the question was called. The Bishop took a vote by a show of hands and the vote was too close to call. He then took a standing vote and the tellers counted the votes. After the vote was counted Bishop Edwards announced that the Brown motion passed by a vote of 344–321.

Report of the Committee on Resolutions & Reference: Alan Swartz, chairperson, introduced ten resolutions to be voted on by the Conference. The committee recommended the referral of resolution #4, North Carolina Conference Funding of North Carolina Council of Churches Christian Unity Committee Projects, because it deals with funding. The committee will seek an opinion from CF&A before the resolution is brought before the Conference for a vote. Resolution #4 was referred. CF&A then announced a meeting at 1:00 p.m. after lunch to address the resolution.

Bishop Edwards then asked the body for a consensus on a starting time for the afternoon session. The consensus was to delay and begin at 1:15 p.m.

Announcements: Conference Secretary James Bryan offered a prayer of dismissal and blessing of the meal. The morning session ended at 12:10 p.m.

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 2002

Plenary Session: Bishop Edwards called the Conference to order for the afternoon’s session at 1:35 p.m.

Report of the United Methodist Foundation: Lynn James, executive director of the UMF, presented the report as printed on pages 116-17 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002. He noted that the return rate on investments was 10.3% over a 10-year period and that the past year was a very challenging year. James asked Bishop Edwards and Carl Frazier to assist him in the presentation of the “Saints of God Award for Outstanding Christian Stewardship and Service,” given by the United Methodist Foundation. This year’s recipient was J. Allen Norris, Jr., who was escorted to the stage by Sharon Strother. James congratulated Norris and welcomed Strother as the new treasurer of the UMF as well as the NC Conference Treasurer. Caswell Shaw led the Conference in the singing of I Sing a Song of the Saints of God.

Report of Commission on Clergy Counseling and Consultation: Bishop Marion Edwards invited Dr. Ted Kunstling, chairperson, and Jane Clark Moorman to present the report. Dr. Kunstling praised the Conference for the work it was doing in providing counseling for ministers and their families. He referred to the report on page 53-54 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002, noting the 1-800 phone number for appointments. Jane Clark Moorman, director, stated that 175 individuals, representing 140 families or 20% of the clergy, have sought counseling and consultation from her. She reiterated that her services are free of charge and all services are strictly confidential. Bishop Edwards thanked Moorman and Kuntsling for their report.

Report of Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries: Robert Flynn, council chairperson, brought the report and introduced Mark Hicks, Executive Director. Hicks gave an overview of the expansion and growth of Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries. Disciple is in 51 prisons along with a new ministry called "Faithful Friends." The training manuals are now complete. Bishop Edwards welcomed Mark Hicks, a member of the Western North Carolina Conference, as an affiliate member of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Report of Children's Ministry-Episcopal Initiative on Children and Poverty: Wayne Hicks presented the report. He began with a video. Teddy Bears, the children's choir from All God's Children (EC), sang as part of the presentation.

Report of Wellspring Ministries: David Brownlee, Branson Sheets and Glenda Johnson addressed the Conference. Brownlee thanked God for all that is taking place in the Conference and stated that the purpose of Wellspring is to enable congregations to continue that work. He promoted several events that are sponsored by Wellspring Ministries. Branson Sheets outlined his responsibilities for working with small membership churches. Sheets talked about the Wellspring Leadership Academy and two conferences based on needs of churches that have less than 50 in worship on Sunday. Glenda Johnson explained that she would be working with spiritual formation initiatives. She will be promoting and encouraging SEAL groups among the clergy. Another area Johnson will work with is spiritual direction. Brownlee concluded the report by stating that they will be looking for teaching congregations.

Historical Moment: Lawrence Johnson made a presentation depicting the historic struggle of African-American Christians to be a part of The United Methodist Church.

Report of the Conference Board of Trustees: Chairperson Bill Simpson presented the report of the Conference trustees printed on page 67-71 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002. Simpson announced that he could continue as the chairperson of the Conference Board of Trustees in spite of the fact that he will be appointed as a district superintendent. He noted corrections to the report stating that Pineview (RO) and Restoration (GR) have been closed and their properties transferred to the Conference Board of Trustees. The bulk of the Trustees' report dealt with the purchase of land and the construction of a new building for Conference offices. The offer authorized by the Conference last year on the first tract of land was rejected. The offer made on the second site was accepted. The tract includes 10.2 useable acres and 4.388 acres in natural areas and is located in the Greenfield Park section of east Raleigh. The offer made was contingent on the approval by the Bishop and the Annual Conference. Simpson offered the adoption of the report in two phases: (1) the standard Conference Board of Trustees report and (2) the proposal for the purchase of the land to build a new Conference headquarters. The Bishop asked the Conference to vote on the adoption of the Trustees' Report as corrected and it was adopted.

Bishop Edwards then referred to the report on pages 68-71 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002. He clarified the reason for this vote was to approve the purchase of the land at Greenfield Park. Lon Miller, Incapacity Leave (EC), was recognized and asked a question and made a suggestion. Sid Huggins, Greenville District, was recognized to speak. The question was called, the vote was taken, and the purchase of the land was approved. Simpson thanked Sharon Strother for her service to the Trustees.

Motion: Kermit Braswell, Raleigh District, moved "that the Annual Conference urge the Conference Board of Trustees to consider giving the balance from the sale of the Raleigh townhouses, after the completion of the Methodist Center, toward the payment of the Pension and Health Insurance Liability." The motion was seconded. Braswell clarified that the motion was an advisory motion regarding excess monies after the sale. Bishop Edwards asked for the vote on the motion and the motion passed. The Bishop thanked Simpson and the Trustees for their work.

Report of Monitoring and Accountability: William Cummings, chairperson, presented the report. Cummings outlined the scope of the reports that will be forthcoming at the 2002 Annual Conference and 2003 Annual Conference.

Betha Welcome Center Campaign/SEJ: Bishop Edwards invited Jim Hanna, Dorothy Phelps Jones and Belton Joyner to report on the Betha Welcome Center Campaign. Jim Hanna spoke briefly about the Southeastern Jurisdiction and its programs. Hanna thanked the Bishop and the North Carolina Conference for what they do for the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Belton Joyner promoted the campaign for the Betha Welcome Center to be built at Lake Junaluska. Dorothy Phelps Jones then addressed the Conference. Joseph and Shirley Betha were featured in the video presentation "Yesterday's Gift to Tomorrow" that outlined the details of the Betha Welcome Center, which would continue their legacy of strengthening the African-American presence in The United Methodist Church. The video is available for church presentations. Donations should be sent to the Conference office. Bishop Edwards gave his personal endorsement to the campaign. The Bishop welcomed the Bethas' daughter, Josefa. She was greeted by the Conference with applause.

Report of Igniting Ministries: Bill Norton gave an overview of some of the statistics concerning the effectiveness of Igniting Ministries. He presented a video and reiterated the schedule of local and regional training events that can be repeated by those who have attended a previous event. Norton congratulated Chestnut Street (RO) for the designation as a Welcoming Congregation.

Report of Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries: Wray Stephens, executive director, stressed the importance of camping ministries and praised the work of camping directors. He introduced the new co-directors of Camp Chestnut Ridge: Rhonda and Allen Parker. The Parkers were unable to attend due to camp staff training. Stephens introduced the board of directors for camping ministries and they were thanked by the Conference. He concluded by thanking Bishop Edwards and the Conference for the support that camping ministries receives in the spiritual formation of children, youth and adults.

Report of United Methodist Retirement Homes: Christopher Cryder, president and CEO, brought the report. He narrated a PowerPoint presentation that gave an overview of all the facilities and statistics of the occupancy that makes up the whole system of the United Methodist Retirement Homes. Cryder offered his services to any church or group that would like more information.

Walter Brown, Trinity (DU) asked a question. Jim Huskins, Edenton (EC), asked whether or not the United Methodist Retirement Homes would consider locating a home in the Edenton area. Reginald Ponder, EXTMIN, was recognized to speak.

Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Reference Report 2: Alan Swartz, chairperson continued his report from earlier in the day.

Resolution 1, To Create Commission on Small Town and Rural Churches: The committee recommended to refer this resolution to the Structure and Review Committee for consideration. The Bishop asked for discussion. Lon Miller, Incapacity Leave (EC), was recognized to make an amendment but agreed to the referral to committee.

Resolution 2, Proposing Active Opposition to Racism and Advocating Active Evangelization of Ethnic Minority Communities by All Local Churches: Friendly amendments were offered on PowerPoint. Lon Miller, Incapacity Leave (EC), was recognized to address the issue of the resolution. Greg Jones, Ayden (GR), spoke against the resolution. One of the pastors asked the question about what "pastors" meant. It was stated that it referred to everybody.

Motion: Rodney Hamm, Burlington District, moved "to refer Resolution #2 to the NCC Cabinet & BOM for the purpose of designing instruments of evaluation for the clergy & local church with special regard to ministries of inclusiveness, ¶632.2(q)." The motion was seconded. The Bishop called for the vote to refer and the motion passed.

Resolution 3, Concerning The United Methodist Church and Mental Illness: Two amendments were made: under paragraph 11, change NAMI to National Alliance for Mentally Ill (NAMI); replace “I” to “we” throughout the entire resolution; insert “mentally ill” after the phrase “awareness of those;” insert the word “to” after the word “those” in the last Furthermore. The committee moved the adoption of the resolution as amended.

Motion: Jim Huskins, Edenton (EC), moved to add to the next to the last paragraph after district superintendent “and to plan and hold seminars that will inform pastors of services that are available to their people.” The Bishop called for a vote on the amendment and it was passed. The amended resolution was then before the body and the resolution was supported.

Resolution 4, North Carolina Conference Funding of North Carolina Council of Churches Christian Unity Committee Projects: It was noted that the funding requested will not change the budget. Billy Olsen, Washington: First (GR), offered an amendment to change $5,000 to $16,000 and mentions the earlier decision by the Conference to reinstate funding to the NCCC. The Bishop ruled the amendment out of order. Paul Stallsworth, Saint Peter’s-Broad Creek (NB), spoke for the resolution and offered corrections. He corrected the spelling of “resolved” and changed UCCCC to NCCC. The Bishop called for the vote and the resolution passed.

Resolution 5, Towards a Just Peace in the Middle East: Corrections were noted. In the first paragraph, replace “stood against” with “deplored.”

Motion: Quinton Covington, Central (RO), moved “to delete paragraph ‘and be it further resolved...’” Bill Jeffries, retired (DU), spoke against the amendment. The Bishop called for the vote on the Covington amendment and it passed.

Amendment: Dennis Levin, Ayden (GR), moved to amend paragraph 4 by inserting “support our government’s active involvement...” after the phrase “Palestinians and the Israelis and we.” Bishop Edwards sought clarification of the amendment and then asked for the vote on the amendment. The amendment was passed.

Henry Jarrett, Fairmont (RA), clarified the meaning of mandate. He asked to replace the word “mandate” with “referred to.” Roger Armistead, Trinity-Zion (RO), spoke. Lon Miller, Incapacity Leave (EC), spoke.

Amendment: Kris Myer, Brookland-Brooksdale (DU), offered an amendment and moved to replace the last paragraph with:

Therefore be it resolved, the North Carolina Annual Conference deplores the current state of violence existing between the Palestinians and the Israelis and support our government’s active involvement in diplomatic efforts to bring about the cessation of the violence.

The Bishop called for the vote on the amendment to the amendment and it passed. He then called for the vote on resolution 5 as amended and it passed.

Resolution 6, Open Hearts, Open Minds and Open Doors: The committee moved the adoption of the resolution.

Motion: Paul Chitnis, St. Mark’s (RA), moved to amend the last paragraph to read “...barriers that estrange or divide us and encouraging all to Christian perfection. And that...” The amendment was passed. Resolution 6 was adopted as amended.

Resolution 7, Waging Peace: The committee offered a change to the last paragraph. Sam Brown, retired (RA), asked to make an amendment.

Amendment: Frank Lloyd, Wallace (GO), asked to change the last paragraph to “Be it further resolved that we commend President Bush for his actions against terrorism. The amendment was defeated. Douglas Brown, Camp (WI), asked for clarification.

Amendment: Darron Flowers, Fremont (GO), moved “to delete last paragraph, ‘Be it further resolved....’” The Bishop called for the vote and the amendment passed.

The amended resolution was put before the Conference and the resolution was approved.

Resolution 8, Reaching Out to Cuba: The committee urged adoption of the resolution. Sam Brown, retired (RA), was recognized to speak for the resolution. Greg Jones, Ayden (GO), spoke against the resolution.

Amendment: Ben Ball, St. Peters (NB), moved to add a paragraph to the end to read "Once the following conditions are met: the government of Cuba agrees to hold free and fair elections and guarantee basic human rights including freedom of speech, assembly, and worship." The Bishop called for the vote and the amendment passed.

The resolution as amended was then placed before the Conference and it passed.

Resolution 9, The Freedom God Gives: The committee recommended the adoption of the resolution. Ben Lewis, Conference Youth Representative, asked a question concerning the issue of sexual preference. David Banks, Jonesboro (SA), denied that the resolution made any reference to sexual preference. Lewis continued to speak against the resolution.

Amendment: Tom Jeffries, Soapstone (RA), moved to "delete the last paragraph." Powell Osteen, Garber (NB), spoke against the amendment. Bishop Edwards called for the vote on the amendment and it failed.

Charles Morrison, Saint Paul (GO), spoke against the resolution as a whole. Ben Sharpe, Cornerstone (FA), spoke for the resolution.

Motion: James Coile, retired (NB), moved to postpone the resolution indefinitely. David Banks spoke against the motion. The Bishop called for the vote on the motion to postpone.

Point of Order: Powell Osteen offered a point of order.

The vote was taken and resolution 9 was postponed indefinitely.

Resolution 10, Concerning the Evaluation of Ministry: The committee moved that the resolution be referred to the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Bishop called for the vote and the resolution was referred.

Announcements: Secretary Bryan made announcements. Bishop Edwards dismissed the afternoon session at 6:10 p.m.

THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 2002

A Service of Consecration and Ordination: The ordination service began at 7:30 p.m. Liturgists were Bishop Marion Edwards, Reverends Eldrick R. Davis, Denise Conner Waters, and Susan H. White. Bishop Marion Edwards was the featured preacher. The Lay Representative was J. Allen Norris. Roger Elliott and Samuel McMillan III presented the elders for ordination. Richard Williams presented the deacon in full connection. (For synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Ordination, Saturday, June 8, 2002.)

FOURTH DAY, MORNING SESSION

SUNDAY, JUNE 9, 2002

The Love Feast: The Love Feast began at 9:00 a.m. Special music was provided by the John Wesley (FA) sanctuary choir under the direction of Marvin Curtis. Sam Wynn presided. The service concluded at 10:10 a.m.

Recognition: Charles Michael Smith announced that it was the Edwards' fortieth anniversary. The Conference sang Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee. A skit was presented by Danielle Kirkland as "Twinkles" and Jack Jenkins as "Happy Jack." They crowned the Edwards as king and queen for a day. Mrs. Edwards was presented a bouquet of roses on behalf of the cabinet.

Plenary Session: The Bishop called the session to order at 10:20 a.m.

Announcements: James Bryan, Conference Secretary, announced that the official registration for the 2002 Annual Conference was 1,488 persons. Jeanne Rouse stated that the New Bern and Rockingham districts lay ministry of the year displays could be viewed in the arena.

Continuation of Report of Council on Finance and Administration: Carl Frazier, chairperson, reported that the resolution referred to the council last year was not yet resolved. The resolution dictates that CF&A look at the apportionment formula during the year 2002-2003 and report back to the 2003 Annual Conference.

Frazier added a new line item to the budget for the North Carolina Council of Churches. The amount requested in 2002 to be raised in 2003 for 2004 is $16,000. This addition changed the bottom line on page 81 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002 to $16,508,256, which reflects a 5.39% increase. Frazier moved the adoption of the budget. Lon Miller, Incapacity Leave (EC), was recognized to speak. Norma Walters, Mount Zion (DU), asked a question regarding Section V. Bishop Edwards called for the vote on the budget and it was adopted.

Frazier then moved the adoption of Section V, District Superintendent's Salary. Walters was recognized again and asked to change the policy on how the district superintendents' salaries are determined. Currently the increase is tied to the average increase received by pastors.

Motion: Norma Walters moved that district superintendents' salaries be considered separately. Sam Wynn, New Bern district, spoke against the motion. David Banks, Jonesboro (SA), addressed the issue and suggested that CF&A to consider the average real dollar increase. The question was called. The vote was taken and the motion failed.

The Bishop then called for the vote of Section V as recommended by CF&A. It was adopted. Bishop Edwards called for the vote on the budget as a whole. The budget was adopted.

Conference Committee on Nominations: CCM Executive Director Hope Morgan Ward brought the Nominations Report. Ward directed the Conference to page 40 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002, particularly the Rainbow Covenant report. She moved the adoption of the Rainbow Covenant and it was adopted. The Bishop called for a vote and it was adopted. Ward directed the Conference to pages 61-63 of The Conference Program, Recommendation and Reports 2002, Section I (A), Trustee/Campus Nominations and placed the nominees for election. The Bishop called for the vote and they were elected. Ward then placed the nominees for Trustees for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. before the Conference and they were elected. She then referred the Conference to the Book of Handouts 2002-2003. Several corrections to District Officers and Committees were made by the district superintendents. Charlene Pierce Guider, New Bern District, was added to the Committee on District Superintendency. In the Wilmington District, Tim Russell was added to the Committee on Ordained Ministry. Jim Tosto was added to the Disaster Response in the Goldsboro district. The Bishop called for the vote on the nominations as corrected and they were elected.

Ward invited Jimmy Cummings to come forward to be honored for his service and work to the Annual Conference staff. Cummings received a standing ovation and was presented a gift from the Conference. Jesse Brunson also presented a gift to Cummings.

Motion: Allen Norris made a motion to hold the 2003 Annual Conference at the Cumberland County Center Complex. The Bishop called for the vote and it passed. The 2003 Annual Conference will be June 4-7, 2003 (subsequently changed to June 2-5 by the Bishop and Cabinet).

STRUCTURE REVIEW COMMITTEE

The Structure Review Team was established at the 2000 Session of the Annual Conference when the current annual conference structure was adopted. The purpose of this group is to evaluate the structure for effectiveness, and to ensure that the Conference Rules are accurate in the description of the structure of the Annual Conference. For the last two years, this group has attended ministry circle and connectional table meetings; it has collected data through a survey format; and it has interviewed those in conference leadership positions to obtain their assessments.

At the 2001 Session of the Annual Conference, this group reported a need for strengthened communications. The stated need was to improve communications between the local church and the conference. Over the past year, our Communications Circle of ministry has begun a weekly e-mail service called "News Briefs." Issued each Monday; this offers up-to-date information about what is happening at local churches who submit information and what is happening on a conference level. As of the date of this report, the News Briefs are being sent to those on the conference e-Mail list, mainly clergy. The work of establishing a new list containing the email addresses of the lay members of the annual conference is currently underway. When this list is complete, the News Briefs will be distributed directly to our lay members as well as our clergy members.

We continue to encourage the Circles of Ministry to share the good news of their work with the entire conference, possibly using the News Briefs as a vehicle.

At this time, the Structure Review Team has no recommendations for change, and has found the Annual Conference Structure to be in accord with the structure as outlined in the Conference Rules.

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

As a Fire Is Meant for Burning

We are learners; we are teachers; we are pilgrims on the way.

We are seekers; we are givers; we are vessels made of clay.

By our gentle, loving actions we would show that Christ is light.

In a humble, listening spirit we would live to God's delight.

Conference Connectional Ministries embraces the expansive ministries of the North Carolina Annual Conference and creates arenas in which ministry can be holistically envisioned, strengthened, renewed, coordinated, and evaluated. The Connectional Table met in September, November, January, and March - four times in the 2001-2002 conference year, as set forth in the conference rules. The Connectional Table, convened and led by the bishop, continues to develop a life of worship, covenant prayer, and Christian conferencing. The members of the Connectional Table work face to face, in a circle, celebrating ministry, solving problems, and planning for new ministry initiatives.

Dialogue at the 2001-2002 Connectional Table meetings focused on the quadrennial invitation, mission, and strategies as embraced by the 2001 Annual Conference Session:

- the invitation, Come to the Water, Gift of Jesus Christ
- the mission, To make leaders bold and congregations faithful in mission to the world
- the strategies,
 - * to offer clergy and laity resources for spiritual formation, overflowing evangelism, and faithful leadership;
 - * to develop 20 new ministries in communities affected by poverty

- * to transform and strengthen existing churches for effective, inclusive mission
- * to start 20 new congregations
- * to discover and utilize new financial resources for mission and ministry

The Connectional Table worked together in evaluation of the 2001 Annual Conference Session and in planning for the 2002 Annual Conference Session, in assessing and re-directing the work of Wellspring, in the closure of Disaster Recovery Ministries and the launching of the ministries of Marion Edwards Recovery Center Initiatives (MERC), in considering the special needs and opportunities for churches of small membership, in encouraging and expanding Igniting Ministry opportunity, in assessing the alignment of financial resources toward the embraced ministry priorities of the annual conference and in planning the next steps in unity dialogue.

It is helpful to remember that the current structure and terminology of the North Carolina Conference was emerging parallel to new commended structure and terminology of the general church. The language of the 2000 Discipline, therefore, is providential and helpful in describing the focus and expanse of Connectional Ministries.

Paragraph 607. Connectional Ministries - Each annual conference is responsible to focus and guide the mission and ministry of The United Methodist Church within its boundaries by:

1. envisioning the ministries necessary to live out the mission of the church in and through the annual conference;
2. creating and nurturing relationships and connections among the local, district, annual conference, and general church ministries;
3. providing encouragement, coordination, and support for the ministries of nurture, outreach, and witness in districts and congregations for the transformation of the world;
4. ensuring the alignment of the total resources of the annual conference to its mission;
5. developing and strengthening ethnic ministries, including ethnic local churches and concerns;
6. providing for advocacy and monitoring functions to ensure that the church is consistent with its stated values.

It is recommended that each annual conference have a director of connectional ministries or designated person to focus and guide the mission and ministry of The United Methodist Church within the annual conference.

a) The director may be lay or clergy.

b) The director shall serve as an officer of the annual conference and shall sit with the cabinet when the cabinet considers matters relating to coordination, implementation, or administration of the conference program, and other matters as the cabinet and director may determine.

c) In partnership with the bishop and cabinet and the elected leadership of the conference, the director of connectional ministries shall have the following primary responsibilities:

- 1) to serve as steward of the vision of the annual conference, including the development, clarification, interpretation, and embodiment of the vision;
- 2) to serve as leader of the continuous process of transformation and renewal necessary for the annual conference to be faithful to our Christian identity in a changing world;
- 3) to ensure alignment of the total resources of the conference to its vision;
- 4) to ensure the connections among the local, district, annual conference, and general church ministries for the purpose of networking, resourcing, and communicating their shared ministry.

The Conference Connectional Table seeks to serve as steward of the vision of the annual conference. It is the intent and commitment of the Connectional Table to develop, clarify, interpret, and embody that vision in life and ministry together in this quadrennium. Therefore we hope as a covenant group of leaders to listen and learn, to discern and to project, to respond and to redirect as we are counseled by the vast wisdom of laity and clergy in the North Carolina Annual Conference. Your wisdom is needed and your input is invited. Contact the Office of Connectional Ministries at 1-800-849-4433, ext. 249 as you are led to do so in this year to come.

*In the midst of new dimensions, in the face of changing ways, who will lead the pilgrim people wandering in their separate ways?
God of rainbow, fiery pillar, leading where the eagles soar, we your people, ours the journey, now and ever, now and ever, now and evermore.
The Faith We Sing, number 2238*

Hope Morgan Ward, Director of Connectional Ministries

COMMUNICATIONS CIRCLE

The General Church, through the creation of Igniting Ministry, brought the story of United Methodism and the invitation of Jesus Christ, into mainstream American media in 2001. The Communications Circle was part of that history. The Communications Circle, with financial assistance from the North Carolina Conference on Finance and Administration, and a matching grant from Igniting Ministry, placed television advertisement on broadcast stations across the conference during Back to School time. A joint agreement with Norfolk District in Virginia, and the Western North Carolina Conference resulted in broadcast advertising reaching the NC Conference from Norfolk and Greensboro. The NC Conference was the first to initiate “partnership” television buys across conference lines. Another conference-wide advertising schedule is planned for Back to School 2002. Availability for matching funds for Igniting Ministries will last until 2004.

While television advertisements are an important part of Igniting Ministry, the heart of this emphasis is the local church where invitation, welcome and nurturing take place. Training was offered to teach skills in invitation, welcoming, and discipling at 10 locations across the conference, and with the additional training that was offered at Annual Conference, at least 2500 persons were trained. Another training event in Igniting Ministry is scheduled for Saturday, July 27, 2002, 10am – 5pm at Asbury UMC in Raleigh. Camille Yorkey and Bill Norton, who attended national leader’s training, have led all the NCC training and many of the training events across the Southeastern Jurisdiction and in other jurisdictions. Their gifts and expertise have been invaluable to Igniting Ministries in the North Carolina Conference and the The United Methodist Church.

The Walton Memorial Media Center, the NCC Resource Library under the leadership of Laura Bailey, continues to provide resources to local churches from every district. Nearly 100 new videos and video-based studies have been added to the library this year. These new resources cover a wide variety of topics such as missions, United Methodist interpretation, Bible study, church leadership, grief counseling, and parenting. Laura is available to help with local church resource questions in person, by phone or e-mail.

Archives and History moved to new quarters on the second floor of the conference building. The move gives more space and visibility to the historical collection of Methodism in the North Carolina Conference.

The work of the Communications Circle is varied and vibrant. We see our task of “telling the world what the church is up to . . .” as challenging and joy-filled. We will continue to live out the Great Commission in meaningful and exciting ways into the 21st century.

Lib Campbell, Convener

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

"Archives and History is now on the second floor of the Methodist Headquarters Building! The new space gives us better protection for our records and is near the media center. Our staff person, Laura Bailey, takes care of both of these areas of work. We are well pleased! Frank Grill, Conference Historian, spent 4 days organizing the newly moved materials in our collection. Vivian Mitchell provides invaluable help with her personal knowledge and typing skills.

Because of the widespread circulation of the church wide directory of researchers, calls from across the country are on the rise, both to the Conference Historian and to the staff. We are so pleased that our churches are recognizing their heritage with celebrations. The following churches held celebrations: Plymouth UMC, Plymouth 175 years; Providence UMC, Goldsboro, 175 years; St. Peter's UMC, Oxford, 125 years; Bethel UMC, Mt. Olive, 100 years; Ellis Chapel UMC, Hillsboro, 100 years; First UMC Sneads Ferry, 100 years; Woodington, UMC, Kinston, 100 years; North Raleigh UMC, Raleigh, 30 years. Those churches that wish to celebrate milestones in their history may contact Laura Bailey and receive a certificate signed by our Bishop.

Our meetings are held semi-annually following the Historical Society in one of our older churches. Any interested person may become a member of the NC Historical Society by paying $7 annual dues. Our spring meeting will be April 13 at Carr UMC in Durham.

Archives and History has provided grave markers for the following clergy: Rev. METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate reaches approximately 13,000 United Methodists twice a month with the latest church-related international, national, state and local news, commentaries and features. The paper targets church pastors and members in the North Carolina and Western North Carolina conferences, and is funded by a combination of subscriptions, conference grants, advertising, and an endowment.

Recent supplements included a special issue devoted to the terrorist attacks, a new Hispanic ministry insert that appears quarterly, more extensive national and state coverage, and the return of a revised Sunday School lesson, written by former NC Conference Assistant to the Bishop, Belton Joyner, Jr. The paper continues to include columns and commentary from North Carolina conference-related writers Bishop Marion Edwards, Hope Morgan Ward, Paul Stallsworth, Steve Compton, and others.

The paper continues to be the voice of United Methodism in North Carolina, and the multi-layered Advocate web site is now fully functioning as a supplement to the paper. Through the Advocate, readers receive a comprehensive overview of the varied mission and ministry that encompasses United Methodism. From consecrations to celebrations, the activity of the Church, and ultimately its vision, is reflected on the pages and on the web site of the Advocate.

EPISCOPAL CIRCLE

Those areas of Conference ministry relating to the Episcopal Circle include: Annual Conference Program, the Cabinet, Christian Unity, Congregational Development, Ecumenical Ministries, Monitoring and Accountability, and Nominations.

The mission of the Episcopal Circle is to listen to, prayerfully consider, and offer insight to the Bishop; and to receive and implement tasks of his special interests.

Our primary focus during this quadrennium is the Repentance & Reconciliation priority of the United Methodist Church within the NC Annual Conference. As this process is carried forward we seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help us recognize the truth, to repent of and reconcile our offenses against the African American community, and to continue this process with those races, colors, religions, sexes, and nationalities we have harmed, wittingly or unwittingly.

In this process we encourage local churches within the NC Conference during the next year to make use of the study – Steps Toward Wholeness: Learning and Repentance (A Study Guide for United Methodist Congregations), co-sponsored by the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns and the Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church. This study guide will be made available to pastors and congregations at the 2002 Annual Conference.

The Episcopal Circle receives budget requests from each area of ministry within the Circle. And we seek to serve the Conference and our Bishop in an advisory capacity as we address and carry forward issues brought to our table.

CHRISTIAN AND INTERFAITH UNITY COUNCIL

For many years, the concept of Christian Unity has called United Methodists to look outward, to search out where a sense of unity might be found with denominations much different from ours. However, beginning with General Conference of 2000, there is now a new dimension to the concept of Christian Unity, namely, exploring issues of unity and disharmony within our own Methodist Family. We are now more conscious of racial divisions which led to the creation of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the African Methodist Episcopal, Zion, Church and the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. A Service of Repentance and Reconciliation at General Conference began to address these issues in 2000. In 2001, a Celebration of Shared Heritage and Unity at Evans Metropolitan AMEZ Church in Fayetteville raised many of the same issues for our Conference.

Our Council encourages every local church to study this issue at a local level during this next Conference Year. A Study Guide, "Steps Toward Wholeness: Learning and Repentance," has been prepared by the General Conference Commission on Christian Unity for this purpose. The events of September, 2001 have also brought a new focus to our work as a Council. Living as neighbors with the Islamic faith and wrestling with issues of war and justice in the face of terrorism are some of the challenges facing the Council in the coming year. Finally, the Council would like to celebrate local ministries that cross denominational lines. Modest grants are available from the Council to help in these endeavors.

Eric N. Lindblade, Jr., Chairperson

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, COMMISSION ON

The Commission seeks to support our annual conference in responding to Jesus' challenge to be "my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8). Our response necessarily reflects the diversity of our churches of the people called Methodists and the geographical area we are called to serve. Many of our congregations were founded to serve in ministry in a rural and small town state that is transforming into an urban and suburban centers. This results in half of our annual conference membership now worshipping in only 120 of our 840 churches. These 120 churches typically average 175 or more in worship on a typical weekend.

We continue to hold before the annual conference a goal of starting 5 new churches each year. Many of us now realize that this is a break-even proposition for the conference as a whole. Our worship attendance each week across the annual conference has grown from 72,794 in 1990 to 83,742 in 2000, a 15% increase, while North Carolina's population has increased over 20% in the same time period. Further, the addition of 29 new churches over the past seven years has resulted in most of the growth in worship attendance experienced in the annual conference. We are also especially excited about the formation of the Wake Circles of Hispanic Ministry in Wake County and the launching of community ministry centers in the Rocky Mount District. This is in response to our bishop's challenge to open 20 new faith communities in places affected by poverty by the year 2004. We encourage our annual conference to maintain these commitments to growth affirmed by the 2001 Annual Conference.

The Office of Congregational Development continues to consult with nearly 100 churches each year. The assistance provided includes demographic research, local consultations, training and planning services for already existing congregations. The office is now leading our conference in two important initiatives for the coming year. The first is the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Ten Dollar Club. This long-term commitment to new church development has contributed to the launching of 80 churches that currently constitute over 15% of our membership. We hope to substantially increase the numbers of people committed to making new church development a priority in their giving. The second is to undergird the emerging work of the Congregational Development Fund. We hope to realize a ten-fold increase in the investment funds available to support formation of new faith communities. This funding should support future growth among the people called Methodist in eastern North Carolina.

The work of the Office and Commission on Congregational Development is multifaceted as we seek to serve rural, small town, suburban and urban churches, in a variety of socio-economic situations, within varied cultural traditions, offering to each one the gospel of Jesus Christ. Thank you for your prayers and your support.

Wm. Allen Bingham, Chairperson

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, REPORT OF

The Cabinet of the N. C. Conference gives thanks to God for God's many blessings. We are especially grateful for the Christian devotion and leadership of Bishop Marion M. Edwards, our Conference Staff, and the laity and clergy who are making disciples for Jesus Christ across our 56 eastern counties.

We constantly work for greater effectiveness in evangelization (including starting an average of 5 new congregations each year), missions (locally and abroad), Christian education (where the growing number of short-term Bible Study/mission groups is so encouraging). We are broadening our ministries through our local churches to the poor and children at risk. Our commitment to greater inclusiveness in church membership, leadership positions, and appointments is strong and there is gradual growth there. We are intentionally celebrating the ministries of our Small Membership Churches, working to strengthen them and to deploy our pastoral leaders in those churches with even greater effectiveness.

New sanctuaries, fellowship halls, Christian life centers and parsonages are being built in every District. We continue to be a growing conference, having a net gain in membership 20 of the past 23 years, including growth in 2001. We are grateful that three of our Districts again paid 100 % of the apportioned funds for World-Wide Ministries in 2001, and the giving of the Conference as a whole to those vital ministries grew

The fresh Wellspring ministry led by David Brownlee is bringing new vitality and health. Our people have responded in marvelous ways to "Blanket Afghanistan with Love" and given strong support (that will total around $ 500,000) to the Russian Methodist Theological Seminary in Moscow. Highlights of significant developments in each District include:

BURLINGTON—351 persons joined on Profession of Faith, 100% of apportioned funds was paid; a new church (Chapel Hill UMC) was begun, Grace UMC committed resources to a new Hispanic ministry, 10 congregations either began construction or paid off indebtedness.

DURHAM—The 74 churches had a Mission Fair. More people are joining on Profession of Faith; attendance at district Events and payment on apportioned funds is growing, many neighborhoods are changing and a stronger emphasis is being put on developing spiritual leaders. Cristo Vive, the Hispanic Church, is being strengthened and that ministry is being expanded; six churches are building or expanding.

ELIZABETH CITY—Wesley Hospitality House in EC is one year old. Stephen Ministry has begun in the District (Hatteras). 7 churches are building or purchasing more land.

FAYETTEVILLE—Participated strongly in Blanket Afghanistan With Love and support for Russian Seminary. Ministries of Hand-in-Hand, Disciple Bible Study, Prison Ministry, AGAPE are growing. Most churches grew in membership, and two (Trinity and Cornerstone) moved to new Worship facilities.

GOLDSBORO—Garris Chapel is building a new sanctuary. Falling Creek built a new fellowship hall. Record high Lay Rally Attendance for 2002-586 registered attendees, with an unknown number who did not sign in. Bishop Edwards was the guest speaker. Bethel (Duplin County) celebrated its 100th year anniversary. Warsaw dedicated a new Food & Clothing Pantry and building. Numerous churches have begun contemporary worship services. Woodland will consecrate a new fellowship and classroom building on 5 May 2002. Faison is developing a program with Goshen Medical Center for Duplin County.

GREENVILLE—More churches are participating in Disciple Bible Study, Christian Believer, Emmaus Walk. The Hispanic Ministry at Grimesland is growing. Apportionments were paid 100% for third year in a row. Five churches occupied new buildings or did significant renovations. Strong emphasis is being placed on evangelism and leadership development. A new church will be started within the year. More churches are focusing on ministries with children, and there was marvelous response to mission opportunities through workteam and contributions.

NEW BERN—Five congregations are building, or have completed, new facilities. There are 100 Certified Lay Speakers under leadership of Grier Garrick. An outstanding lay ministry is Hand-in-Hand at First UMC in Morehead City. Our Lay Rally with Rosemary Brown had 650 in attendance.

RALEIGH—Over 1300 attended the Raleigh District Great Event with Tony Campolo on Sept. 16 at Memorial Auditorium. Three new churches were constituted (First, Fuquay-Varina, New Beginnings, Windborne). Edenton Street broke ground for Fellowship Hall, Kitchen, Classrooms and Offices. St. Mark's consecrated a new Education Building.

ROCKINGHAM—323 are now certified as Lay Speakers in the district; The District Native American Cooperative Ministry sponsored, for a 2nd year, a "Church-related Vocations/Scholarship Rally" attended by 135. 33 persons received $128,000 in scholarship's in 2001. Two large churches are "mentoring churches" with Disciple Bible Study (with one graduating over 100 persons). Leadership Development Workshop attendance is much better than in the past. District Churches, for a third year, helped with DISCIPLE program at the Morrison Correctional Center.

ROCKY MOUNT—Clark Street Ministries has now expanded into Rocky Mount Community Ministries. Three more Faith Communities in poor areas will be started soon. Agape Korean UMC is going well, as are several charge realignments. Sandy Cross and Nashville UMCs have large building projects underway.

SANFORD—Apportionments have been paid 100 % in past 7 years. We rejoice over the church building improvements completed and those underway. A highlight was the Weekend Mission celebration which ended with a large Lay Rally and with Jim Goodwin from Brazil as speaker. The Hispanic Ministry continues to have significant impact.

WILMINGTON—The District sponsored the Igniting Ministry Training Event, Terry Tekyl Prayer Event and the GLAD Benefit Concert for the new church start (Wellspring UMC). There was strong participation in Blanket Afghanistan with Love. New buildings are in progress at Windsor, Wrightsville, Westview, Jordans Chapel. There have been land purchases at St. Paul, Carolina Beach, Hampstead.

MONITORING AND ACCOUNTABILITY MINISTRY TEAM

The Monitoring and Accountability Ministry Team offers a ministry of advocacy for inclusiveness in the North Carolina Conference. As United Methodists, “we recognize that God made all creation and saw that it was good. As a diverse people of God who bring special gifts and evidence of God’s grace to the unity of the Church and society, we are called to be faithful to the example of Jesus’ ministry to all persons” (Par. 138, The Book of Discipline, 2000). Our goal is to encourage and guide the NCC to realize the full and equal participation of all children of God, regardless of race or ethnic background, gender, physical limitations, or age in the life and leadership of Christ’s Church.

During 2001, we offered the following ministries to encourage increased inclusiveness in the life of the NCC.

- 1) At the 2001 Annual Conference, we introduced the monitoring process as a powerful technique to build and strengthen inclusive participation. Our monitoring teams monitored the majority of conference plenary sessions and worship services to record participation rates. Results were published as daily feedback in The Saddlebag. Monitoring revealed the following patterns of plenary session participation (i.e., leadership from the podium; comments from the floor): 58% white men, 28% white women, 8% racial ethnic minority men, and 6% racial ethnic minority women. Of the Annual Conference worship services monitored, 51% of worship leaders/musicians were white men, 26% were white women, 14% were racial ethnic minority men, and 9% were racial ethnic minority women.
- 2) Our team conducted monitoring of NCC clergy appointments for 2001/2002. As of July 2001, there were 56 appointments of ethnic racial minority clergy in the NCC, and 22 cross racial appointments (19 white churches with ethnic racial pastors or associates; 3 ethnic minority churches with white pastors).
- 3) Our monitoring of the NCC District Superintendency (as of 7/01) found the following rates of representation: 83% men and 17% women; 92% white and 8% racial ethnic persons.
- 4) Monitoring of NCC Conference Connectional Table (as of 6/01) found its composition to be 40% women and 60% men.
- 5) Our Team hosted a well-attended, conference-wide Clergywomen’s Day Apart with Bishop Edwards on April 24, 2001, at St. Paul UMC in Durham.

As the Monitoring and Accountability Ministry Team enters its second year, our objectives include refining our monitoring and reporting procedures, as well as monitoring a wider scope of conference and district functions. We will continue to familiarize the NCC with the usefulness of monitoring for inclusiveness as we work to keep before ourselves and others the church’s commitment to inclusiveness as a faithful reflection of Jesus’ ministry to all persons.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

The Southeastern Jurisdictional Administrative Council celebrates a successful 2001. Under the leadership of President, Bishop William Morris, from the Nashville area and our Vice Presidents, Rev. Hope Morgan Ward and Mr. Frank Furman, we made significant strides for Christ in our service to The United Methodist Church. We appreciate the leadership that the North Carolina Conference provides the Southeastern Jurisdiction through Bishop Marion Edwards, Paul Chitnis and Jane Johnson.

A communications audit was conducted in May with United Methodist Communications and we are actively following the recommendations. We are in the process of re-vamping our telephone, websites and computer systems plus equipping staff to better serve the persons who call for information and attend events. A more unified approach for all Southeastern Jurisdiction publications and brochures will be instituted to better tell our story. Plans are in place to be more intentional in an effort to deal with racism in our institutions and seeking to recruit a more inclusive staff. More attention is being given to building morale for our large staff in our home office at Lake Junaluska. New vision and mission statements are being considered.

The Administrative Council of the Southeastern Jurisdiction has been given two tasks by the Jurisdictional Conference: (1) to provide ministry options around the jurisdiction; and, (2) to administer Lake Junaluska Assembly. We have a great heritage that began in 1913 and continues in a dramatic way into the 21st century, as we serve as a place for developing future leaders of the Church.

In an effort to support annual conferences and local churches in our mutual work of making disciples for Jesus Christ, the Ministry Team and the Junaluska Team continue to strive for events, workshops, seminars and facilities that can be used by The United Methodist Church in our equipping ministry.

The Ministry Team, in 2001, was pleased that all of the ministry options sponsored by the Administrative Council at Lake Junaluska and around the jurisdiction boasted attendance increases. New ministry options were instituted and we intentionally organized listening and sharing sessions with the College of Bishops, directors of connectional ministries and district superintendents. We offered free lodging for cabinets that hold their meetings at the Lake in exchange for time with us to discuss needs they feel the jurisdiction can meet.

The Ministry Team is fortunate to have a new Director of Hispanic Ministries. Rev. David Ortigoza has joined the Ministry staff. We celebrate the ministry of Rev. Young Yoon who has given several years as the Director of Korean Ministries. We will miss his dedicated and diligent work among us.

The Administrative Council appreciates the ministries of the seven Southeastern Jurisdiction agencies: Intentional Growth Center; Archives and History; Southeastern Jurisdictional Agency for Native American Ministries, Inc.; Southeastern United Methodist Agency for Rehabilitation, Inc.; Southeastern Jurisdiction United Methodist Volunteers in Mission; Gulfside Assembly and Hinton Rural Life Center. Cooperation and work among our agencies and ministry staff is at an all-time high.

Along with the increased Southeastern Jurisdiction's Ministry attendance, the Conference and Retreat Center at Lake Junaluska had 111,593 guest nights, which is 6.5% over 2000, and the second highest in our existence. We had 445 groups use our facilities and 71% of the persons attending were United Methodist.

This year we implemented the publishing arm of the jurisdiction, Junaluska Resources, in partnership with Providence House Publishers in Franklin, TN. The goal is to publish significant new resources for the Church generated at Lake Junaluska and around the jurisdiction. Sermons by the Lake, by Dr. Reginald Mallett, and, Kadasha Workbook, Experiential Worship for the Next Generation, by Chris Hughes and Jennifer McSwain, along with the CDs, "Live at Lake Junaluska" and "Through the Years with the Junaluska Singers," provide resources to the entire Church.

In order to improve relationships and understanding across jurisdictional boundaries, we have invited the Western Jurisdiction College of Bishops to send representatives to our Ministers' Conference in July. We have also offered the Northeast College of Bishops a place for respite for pastors and staff who have experienced great stress providing support and pastoral care to persons in New York and the Washington, DC areas during the national crisis. We continue to desire to build bridges and foster cooperation across the United Methodist Church.

The Administrative Council was proud to be a sponsoring partner with Habitat for Humanity by giving a lot on the grounds of Lake Junaluska Assembly. This is the second Habitat House built at the Lake and we were proud that Mr. Millard Fuller, the founder and president of Habitat International, visited the new home while it was under construction.

The Council will begin a Workplace Discipleship Program this summer. All of our summer staff will not only have a job, but will also have the opportunity to live, work and worship in an ethnically and culturally diverse situation. They will have opportunities to claim their call as a minister of Christ and to learn what is needed to be a Christian leader for the 21st century. Mr. Marcus Robinson, a business man from Cherokee, NC and Rev. Hardy Tippet, a retired Deacon in full connection, from the Virginia Annual Conference, will coordinate the Workplace Discipleship Program and will make available mentors to all our summer staff.

A capital fund campaign to support the ministries of the Southeastern Jurisdiction and Lake Junaluska is in its early stages. Many of our existing buildings need significant attention plus new facilities are needed to provide the kind of ministry needed for a new day in the church. Renovation of Shackford Hall will begin in August 2002. Persons who have an appreciation for our ministries and for Lake Junaluska are asked to contact us for more information.

The Administrative Council appreciates the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Fifteen percent of our budget comes from local church contributions to provide the ministry of the jurisdiction.

The Administrative Council of the Southeastern Jurisdiction celebrates the opportunity to serve the United Methodist Church. Please continue to partner with us in a mutual ministry for Jesus Christ.

Jimmy L. Carr, Executive Director

The areas of Conference ministry relating to the Mission Circle include: Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries, Evangelism, Church and Society, Disaster response, Health and Human Services, Multicultural Ministries, Ethnic and Local Church Concerns, Global Ministries, Missions, United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women.

We continue to function under our original mission which is "To inspire courage, cultivate generosity, and to ignite service for Christ's mission in the world." During the past year we have endeavored to lay claim to God's abundant resources and to boldly share the mission story through personal experience and testimony while at the same time opening up new frontiers for mission opportunities. Mission is happening in a new and exciting way in the North Carolina Conference. Increasing numbers of persons are becoming involved in the various mission areas as we live into our vision and mission we adopted a year ago. We are now involved in a variety of social, justice and mercy mission projects both locally and around the world.

During the past year the Mission Circle conducted our first Grant writing workshop. The attendance at this event was excellent. Training and skills building was provided for participants to use in the application process. A second workshop is planned for the spring of 2002.

During the past year the Mission Development Circle has met and formed a long-range plan of communications and sharing the story with our Conference membership, churches and focus groups within the Circle. We now are able to go on-line and experience the excitement of missions in our conference. Soon we will be able to make available to everyone in our conference a directory of our mission projects, contact persons and a speaker's bureau to share these programs in our local churches. After two years of laying the framework for our future efforts we look enthusiastically to the future where we can live out our vision together in all the areas of mission as we serve God.

Gary Wayne Locklear, Chairperson

The Annual Conference will approve district projects for advance specials in accordance with 651.4 of The 2000 Book of Discipline. This insures that local churches making advance specials on a district level and reported to the Annual Conference advance special will receive credit.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, COMMISSION ON

The Conference Ministry Team on Church and Society has embraced the mission. The United Methodist Church: "To make disciples of Jesus Christ." The objective of the team shall be "to be a networking group with the twelve districts and churches of the Conference to raise the level of concern and passion, and to encourage the use of each individual's gifts and abilities to the end that human rights and peace with justice will become the priority of all Christians.

The Team will place strong quadrennial emphasis on 1) working to defeat a lottery in North Carolina; 2) working for campaign finance reform; 3) working to help mediate for justice for farm workers; and 4) working for peace with justice in all areas of life. The Team sees these as more than political or public relations issues. They are moral issues.

The temptation to use money or gambling for unjust favors is a very ancient practice. The prophet Amos forthrightly spoke against those merchants of his day who ... "sell the righteous for silver and the needy for a pair of shoes...and push the afflicted out of the way..." (Amos 2:6-7. Psalm 15 defines upright persons as those who..."stand by their oath even to their hurt...and do not take a bride against the innocent." If the Church of Jesus Christ holds its peace in such times as these special interest and greed will be emboldened and the children and the poor will suffer.

The Conference Church and Society Ministry Team calls on the North Carolina Annual Conference and the people called Methodists everywhere to remember the call of the Church: We call upon all United Methodists who are citizens of the USA to work within their own states to build support for measures that would end the flood of special-interest monies...and restore integrity..." 2000 Book of Resolutions, p. 639.

William (Bill) Cottingham, Chairperson

CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND MERCY MINISTRIES, COMMITTEE ON

The Conference Committee on Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries (CJAMM) is eager to assist any of the North Carolina Conference churches in becoming advocates for the victims, for the inmates, and for the chaplains at the prisons and jails in our Conference geographic area. We offer a yearly updated booklet entitled, "Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries Opportunities" which is available through the Conference office, or from a CJAMM member. This booklet has a listing of some of the opportunities for ministries in the prisons, and a listing of what many of the churches in our Conference are doing. There is a wonderful mission being carried out by the many prison volunteers and tremendous prayer support throughout the Conference. Crime and the needs within the justice system continue to rise. The CJAMM committee encourages every church to support prison ministries by visiting and praying with our brothers and sisters there.

The main areas we are urging the churches to take on are our FIVE INITIATIVES:

- Be a PRAYING CHURCH – organize a committee and adopt a local institution praying regularly for the staff, the inmates, the victims, and the families.
- Be an ADVOCATING CHURCH – for victims, for inmates, and for local prisons.
- Be a RECEIVING CHURCH – welcome inmates and their families, as they are released when visiting or accept a family member home from an institution.
- Be a DISCIPLE BIBLE STUDY LEADING CHURCH – have members that are willing to contribute, via: teaching and/or funding the Disciple Bible Study in a local institution, through the Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries office.
- Be a FUNDING CHURCH - offer monetary assistance to chaplains for various programs that they may have.

We also give grant support to the following:

1. Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries – DBOM is a joint NC & WNC Conference venture which seeks to have every church and every prison in North Carolina involved in Disciple Bible Study.
2. MATCH (Mothers And Their Children), Inc., is a program at Women's prison in Raleigh that educates mothers in many areas of parenting, enabling them to have visits with their children in a homelike atmosphere.
3. Yokefellow Ministries – are trained volunteers sharing the love of Jesus weekly in the prisons.

4. Angel Tree Ministries – is a project by Prison Fellowship that enables caring people to provide Christmas gifts for the children of incarcerated parents.
5. Epiphany ministries – is a weekend event involving a team of Christian adults, working together to show the love and saving power of God and Jesus to youth that are incarcerated.

DISASTER RECOVERY MINISTRIES AND THE MARION EDWARDS RECOVERY CENTER INITIATIVES (M.E.R.C.I.)

It has been nearly 33 months since Hurricane Floyd flooded across eastern North Carolina. The response from across the conference and across the country continues to amaze me. Teams of volunteers from 42 different states and several foreign countries have come to our aid. These people contributed well over 700,000 hours of service to help our families recovery from the devastation caused by Floyd. With the help of these volunteers and a loyal and dedicated staff, we were able to help over 1600 families in the first 2 years.

In the process of doing the casework on families requesting help, we discovered an entire “culture” living right in our own “neighborhood”. In eastern North Carolina there lives a large group of people struggling to make ends meet, rarely able to afford the necessities and even less able to afford home repairs. As we complete the work started by Hurricane Floyd, we are evolving into an ongoing home repair ministry for those struggling to survive the daily “disasters”.

The Marion Edwards Recovery Center Initiatives will include programs for home repair, homeowner maintenance education, disaster preparedness, response, and recovery, training for Early Response Teams, VIM Team leadership training, construction skills training for mission work teams, a place for hands-on mission opportunities, and a place for other conference missions to collect and distribute materials.

The lessons learned and the knowledge gained from this disaster experience has opened our conference for a new age of disaster response and mission opportunity.

Barbara Tripp, Director, DRM/MERCI

EVANGELISM, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Evangelism exists to help the churches of the North Carolina Conference equip their membership to witness to the saving love of Jesus Christ for all persons. To that end, the Commission does not do the work of evangelism. It enables that work to be done by equipping the laity and clergy through education and inspiration. The commission provides scholarship and seed money to individuals, churches and districts to assist with training in the area of evangelism. Requests should be directed to the Conference Office. Innovative and creative ideas for evangelism opportunities are expected.

Since last report, the Commission on Evangelism has sponsored three identical Faith Sharing Workshops under the leadership of Dr. H. Eddie Fox and Dr. George Morris geographically located across the conference to enable convenience in attendance for as many persons as possible. The first event was held at Methodist College, Fayetteville March 1-2, 2002. St. James United Methodist Church, Greenville, hosted the second workshop April 5-6, 2002 and the third workshop was hosted by Fuquay-Varina United Methodist Church, April 12-13, 2002. Several hundred participants from across the conference gathered for each of the two-day events. The workshops focused on equipping persons to gracefully share their faith and Methodist heritage with a Witness of Hope in today's world. Participants received a Faith Sharing New Testament, a resource kit, and a Faith Sharing textbook to utilize in training Faith Sharing teams in their local churches.

Among the new directions for leadership development in Evangelism, the Commission is designing a School of Evangelism for pastors and leaders to provide hands-on contact and training with Evangelism's tools and resources available to churches and pastors today. The event would be set in a retreat format with ample time for hands-on exposure and experiences to be shared.

This first year of the Igniting Ministries emphasis has provided a platform for creativity in evangelism and outreach. Local churches and districts are taking the lead in intentionally offering Christ in new and inviting ways with this strategic emphasis. Across the conference, billboards, targeted mailings, printed media advertising, radio and TV spots proclaim the hearts, the minds and the doors of the United Methodist Church are open and offer invitations to persons outside of the church to come and join "the family."

The North Carolina Conference continues to celebrate numerical growth in professions of faith, worship attendance, new church beginnings, and membership. Churches in all settings are finding growth happening in their congregations. Growth in numbers without growth in faith is like faith without works. James calls it "dead". At the very least, we are missing the value of the faith we profess.

Accounting for growth in faith as our people mature in their spiritual life has yet to be measured by any tool, but it is among the most important evidences of converts becoming disciples. Although we have no reporting instrument for it, making disciples is the command of Christ and must be the primary directive for the church. The Commission on Evangelism seeks to equip the people of the North Carolina Conference to be faithful to the Great Commission of our Lord, to make disciples. By equipping the laity and clergy with education and inspiration, we lift the cause of Jesus Christ and call all people to Him. The opportunity to reach out in the name of Christ continues as we answer the call to make disciples in the name of Jesus Christ.

HISPANIC MINISTRIES TEAM

There has been substantial growth in Hispanic ministries in 2001 with several new ministries emerging. In the Burlington District, Rev. Maggie Crandall at Grace UMC along with Julio Garcia as lay missionary and a team of volunteers serve a growing Hispanic community. The Wake Circles of Hispanic Ministry in the Raleigh District began in July, 2001 with six part-time parish associates supervised by a full time pastor, Rev. Hector Millan. Local churches involved in the ministry include Millbrook UMC with Rev. Silvia Cardenas de Zamora, Avent Ferry UMC with Rafaela Millan, White Plains UMC with Edith Salazar, Sunrise UMC with Daniel Pantoja, Fuquay-Varina UMC with Araceli Padilla, and Knightdale UMC with Juan Molina. Over the next five years, we envision that each of these faith communities would develop further with the goal of becoming their own church.

Existing ministries continue to reach Hispanic communities at La Trinidad in Sanford and El Camino in Siler City, Sanford District, with Rev. Daniel de la Cruz, Cristo Vive(Durham) with Rev. Edgardo Colon-Emeric, and Trinity UMC in Jacksonville with Guillermo Flores and Ann Street UMC in Beaufort with Rev. Rusty Willis (New Bern). Lay Missioner Jeanne Mitchell and a group of enthusiastic brothers and sisters serve the Hispanic community around Grimesland (Greenville),

The Hispanic Ministries Team offered Module II training in the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries in April and May 2001, training lay missionaries as well as pastors-mentors and has scheduled a Module I training in April and June, 2002.

MISSIONS TEAM

A young, undernourished mother watches her starving baby receive formula. Barefooted children, their eyes wide, reach up small hands to grasp warm cups of milk and crusty bread. A soldier lays down his rifle and picks up a book and reads, "But I say to you, Love your enemies ...". A poor woman smiles as the rain drips from her new roof. A new Russian pastor proclaims "I baptize you in the name of the Father ...". After two years, a father closes the door on the cramped trailer as he goes to his new home. A teenager places a sweet potato into a plastic pail, beginning its journey from field to table. A young Latino family prays under a cross and flame. Echoes of laughter and rings of hammers consecrate a church: Armenia, Peru, Liberia, Robeson County, Russia, down East, a field in North Carolina, Siler City, the Caribbean. These glimpses are the Kingdom of God unveiled through the actions of North Carolina United Methodists in mission. In the past year, we have served through such ministries as Project AGAPE, Breakfast of Love and The Peru Covenant, the Ganta Mission School, the Church and Community Center, the Russian Initiative and RUMTS Capitol Campaign, Disaster Response Ministries, Society of St. Andrew, Hispanic Ministries, Volunteers In Mission, and through a multitude of other missions where our presence has brought hope in the midst of despair, proclaimed joy in the realm of sadness, and birthed life in the very face of death.

The Missions Team gave over $300,000 toward mission ministries throughout our Conference and beyond. United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM) sent out 502 servants to 16 different countries bringing forth over $487,000 of service. Soon, Russian students will attend seminary in Moscow that you are building with your gifts of $287,000 (as of 02/02.) Refugees in Afghanistan received food purchased by your gifts of $143,000 through Stop Hunger Now, and thousands of God's children were warmed by your 41,422 blankets. The true gift was transformed hearts, lives, and communities. Your obedience and love continue to make Matthew 28:20 a reality.

Mike Leburg, Chairperson

MULTICULTURAL MINISTRIES

The Multicultural Ministries Team continues its mission as defined: "To ignite hope for oneness...as we move towards joy in diversity...by embracing the Kingdom of God." Our objectives, which have directed our work, are:

1. To identify, celebrate, and support inclusive ministries in our Annual Conference.
2. To advocate and sensitize our entire Annual Conference to be inclusive in all of its life and ministry.
3. To help local churches identify and overcome the barriers of prejudice and discrimination.

CPI (Conference Plan of Inclusiveness) grants for 2001 were awarded in the total amount of $78,292 to twenty-two grantees representing the Burlington, Durham, Elizabeth City, Goldsboro, Raleigh, Rockingham, Rocky Mount and Wilmington districts.

The team will expand to include work area representatives for the ELCC, Religion and Race and COSROW. The team will also partner with all the racial ethnic ministry groups to formulate a Conference Comprehensive Plan which will come before the Annual Conference for approval at the 2003 session.

We celebrate the fact that Christ has accomplished for us what we could not achieve.

Kevin Baker and Hector Millan, Co-chairs

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES TEAM

The Conference Committee on Native American Ministries continues to work under the call "Every Member in Ministry". Our primary focus will be involving our churches in both corporate and individual ministry. The focus will continue to be on leadership development, evangelism, congregational development and missions. Task oriented Christian leadership will continue to be the most effective tool used for translating our dreams into reality.

Our goal of providing opportunities for leadership from our churches to become involved in spiritual leadership is now a reality. Our church leadership is boldly addressing the matter of understanding their unique gifts and graces and seeking avenues of deploying these gifts and graces in their own local congregations. The goal of this deployment is always to serve God in their local congregations and beyond with the results being growth and commitment. We want our membership to be involved in spiritual enrichment and leadership development programs. This process will continue to include Emmaus Walk, Disciple Bible Study, Family Camp, SEJANAM'S Native American Family Conference, "Discover God's Call", Stephen Ministry and other leadership events. This past year we were able, through much dialogue and visioning, to begin a new congregation of primarily Native Americans in the Triangle area. We will continue to work through Triangle leadership and the pastor to grow this congregation.

We have begun a new Social Ministry within the Co-op community focusing on five core areas of need: homelessness, domestic violence, the spread of STD within the Native American community, substance abuse and suicide prevention. We will aggressively pursue these five goals as we work with a team of health care, Faith-based and social professionals.

We continue to develop mission opportunities for our local church members. We have developed an extensive team of volunteers for mission projects locally, nationally and internationally. Our connections with United Methodist churches in Alaska and Bolivia have provided significant spiritual and leadership development experiences for our many team members who have served over the years.

We have initiated a "Youth in Ministry" program with a focus on helping assure there are youth ministries in our local churches, to provide training for youth leaders in spiritual formation, leadership skills, evangelism, programming and ministry opportunity awareness and involvement, to provide church vocation/scholarship awareness and commitment opportunities, and to help our youth become involved in events beyond our local churches.

PERU COVENANT, TASK FORCE ON

We give thanks to God for this mission and ministry with our sisters and brothers in the Methodist Church of Peru (IMP). Working as an intentional covenant community, the Task Force is working with the church in Peru around a connectional table as we both assume greater accountability for our covenant. Open discussions about managing the complex relationships between our churches, exercising good stewardship with our resources, and giving and receiving gifts have proven to be a means of grace. God has indeed blessed us with the movement of the Holy Spirit and granted this Conference both fruit and new seeds of greater opportunities for faithfulness:

- Needy children and families served through the Breakfast of Love
- Number of mission work teams and our Conference's visibility increased through partnership with Volunteers in Mission
- 40 attendees in the January workshop, "Evangelism in the Wesleyan Spirit"
- Number of partnerships increased between NC and Peruvian congregations
- On faith, we partnered with IMP and GBGM to participate in the process and pledged $7,000 per year for five years to support the National Plan for Evangelization and Church Growth. IMP is developing a stronger Methodist identity, reaching out to invite others into the church, and deepening Christian discipleship through this program.

- Enabling the expansion of the distribution program for Wesley's Works in Peru with the Wesley Heritage Foundation.
- Our team continues to work ecumenically in this Covenant.
- Increasing the visibility of the work of the Covenant, through speakers and printed materials, to deliver direct and concrete opportunities for your participation in this mission.

We hope that you and your congregation will ask for a speaker to bring the stories of this ministry, along with the names and faces of our brothers and sisters in Peru, to life for your church. Gracias por sus apoyos. Esperamos que Ustedes nos llamen con respecto a su participacion en la vida del Pacto.

Bendiciones del Senor para Ustedes,

Para R. Drake, Chairperson

STRENGTHENING THE BLACK CHURCH

Members of the Ministry Team for Strengthening the Black Church for the 21st Century have been working towards the goals adopted by the organization. Individuals and local churches have assisted this ministry team in its endeavors. Thus, we pause in appreciation to those individuals and local churches that gave special assistance and encouragement to our work. At the top of the list is the Reverend Dr. Jimmy Cummings, Director, Multicultural and Social Ministries. He provided valuable assistance through his office. We also offer thanks to the congregations of John Wesley United Methodist Church and Hay Street United Methodist Church for offering use of their facilities.

During this conference year the ministry Team has completed two of its goals:

An intensive survey to ascertain the needs of the Black Church within the bounds of the Annual Conference was completed. Team members Ms. LaNella Smith and Reverend Dr. Lawrence Johnson gave leadership and received information from a substantial number of churches. This information will prove invaluable in providing resources to the congregations.

A celebration of the Black Church's ministry and mission was held in Fayetteville on April 26-27, 2002 at John Wesley United Methodist Church and Hay Street United Methodist Church. The leadership included Bishop Gregory Palmer of the Iowa Area; Bishop Jonathan Keaton of the East Ohio Area, and Bishop Marion Edwards of the Raleigh Area. The theme of the celebration was "Igniting the Black Church for the New Millennium".

The celebration provided spiritual renewal in worship, resourcing through workshops, and networking within the context of fellowship. Ministry Team member the Reverend Albert Shuler chaired the Black Church Celebration committee.

The late C. Eric Lincoln and Lawrence H. Mamiya in their book The Black Church in the African-American Experience exclaims; "African-Americans in The United Methodist Church are uniquely positioned for a high level of participation in the national and international affairs of the church". It is our belief that the Black Church can experience its fullest potential through the prayers, support, and encouragement of the entire United Methodist Church .

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

"Ordinary People with an Extraordinary Mission" was the 2001 theme for the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women. In following our purpose we focused on spiritual growth, education, social responsibility, leadership development, and, most important, mission outreach locally and throughout the world.

In 2001 the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women sponsored seven conference-wide events including: the 39 & Under Event, the Spiritual Enrichment Retreat, the three day Conference School of Christian Mission, three Mother/Child Retreats, and the UMW Annual Meeting. We also held workshops on Racial Justice issues, Membership, Financial Analysis, Leadership Development, and Officer Training.

We awarded $7,000 in scholarships to applicants who are attending Methodist colleges or who plan to enter religious vocations. In addition we supported and promoted the Food Lion Community Way Days for the Methodist Home for Children and helped raise over $20,000 on their behalf.

Our 2001 pledge to mission was $430,000. We exceeded our pledge and sent a total of $437,689.90 in undesignated giving. In addition we sent $38,017.38 in designated giving for a total remittance of $475,707.28!

In this our second year of the "Mission Today" program we recognized 11 Gold, 48 Silver, and 100 Basic "Mission Today" local units.

The North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women is a strong and vital witness for Christ in the world. We look forward with great expectation for the ways God will use us in the coming year.

Emily Innes, President

SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND LEADERSHIP CIRCLE

The group spent most of the year in developing the mission statement below. Our focus now is to engage in action projects that will promote spiritual formation and transformational leadership.

Mission: To inspire, nurture, and empower individuals and Christians communities to become centers of spiritual formation and transformational leadership in the image of Christ for others.

Goals and Objectives:

1. To intentionally engage in worship, Bible Study, prayer, ministry with the poor, teaching, and Shalom in local churches, districts, and the annual conference
2. To develop creative supportive spiritual communities
3. Provide opportunities for clergy and lay members of the annual conference to develop leadership skills to work with local churches and communities.
4. Develop spirit-filled dynamic leaders who can influence people to love God and serve their churches and communities effectively.

Ideas for Working Together to Accomplish Our Mission

- A. Reading common materials and discussing materials via e-mail and in small groups.
- B. Participate together in a Spiritual Formation /Leadership Development Retreat, Bible Study, Emmaus Walk, Labyrinth, etc.
- C. Attend City and Town Meetings and help raise the spiritual consciousness of communities. Become spokespersons for ethical, right, truthful decision making.
- D. Speak in churches about the September 11, 2001 and other crises and the need to look at human life as sacred.
- E. Pray for leaders of the world.
- F. Write appropriate litanies that may be used in church services for

- G. difficult times in the life of the church and community and world.
- H. Look for resources in communities and direct people to them.
- H. Be a visible witness for spiritual formation and leadership development.

Bernice Duffy Johnson, Chairperson

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY TEAM

In children's ministries we celebrate:

"Through the Eyes of a Child" workshop for workers with preschool age children held October 2001 with nearly 70 participants.

Curriculum workshops held for Vacation Bible School through Cokesbury and the United Methodist Publishing House.

The Hand in Hand project, our ongoing intensive work under the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty, in collaboration with the Western NC Conference UMC, Methodist Home for Children and Communities in Schools is working toward developing partnerships between churches and schools to meet the needs of children and their families. Three pilot sites in the NC Conference are going well. Implementation workshops have been held in all 12 districts, and many churches are reporting prayerful discernment of participation in this ministry as well as involvement in local schools through prayer programs, staff appreciation and support, and meeting the needs of students with tutoring and materials.

Local churches recognizing Prevent Child Abuse Month with bulletin inserts and programs to raise awareness and response to this issue in our communities.

Safe Sanctuaries workshop to be held August 24, 2002 at St Marks UMC in Raleigh under the leadership of author and nationally known advocate Joy Melton.

Continued commitment to the Bishops' Initiative on Children and Poverty and local church efforts to reach out to children and the impoverished beyond their four walls. Information will be asked of local churches about their response to the Bishops' Initiative in charge conference reporting this fall.

We invite churches to give input to the needs for resources and training for ministry to, with and by children.

CLERGY COUNSELING AND CONSULTATION, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Clergy Counseling and Consultation was established by the 1999 Annual Conference to address the needs of clergy and their families for psychological services. Upon the Commission's recommendation and at the direction of the 2000 Annual Conference, the Clergy Counseling and Consultation Service was established January 1, 2001. Jane Clark Moorman, MSW, LCSW, BCD, was employed as Director by the Commission to which she reports. In developing this new service for clergy and their families, her duties include;

- 1) Providing assessment, counseling, psychotherapy and referral services for clergy and members of their families;
- 2) Providing mental health consultation to clergy regarding their pastoral counseling work with parishioners, etc.;
- 3) Developing, over the next few years, a network of mental health providers throughout the North Carolina Conference who understand the particular stresses of our clergy families and will be resources to provide counseling for them as well as for parishioners whom pastors need to refer;
- 4) Planning/providing continuing education programs designed to enhance assessment, counseling and referral skills of our clergy.

During the first year, utilization of these services has been considerable, both for counseling and consultation regarding a wide variety of personal, family, congregational related and other professional issues which frequently arise in the practice of ministry. Those who have used the service include pastors serving churches in all twelve districts as well as those in appointments beyond the local church. During the first year, more than 100 clergy and members of their families have availed themselves of these services.

A policy of strict confidentiality guards the privacy of each person who contacts the service or seeks consultation, counseling/psychotherapy, or referral. No information is given to anyone, including the Commission, the Bishop or the Cabinet, about who uses these services. In order for information to be released concerning anyone's contact with the service, a specific request through written authorization must be signed prior to such release. This is extremely important in our itinerant appointment system, and Ms. Moorman adheres to this policy closely. As Director, she is not responsible to the Bishop or the Cabinet, but rather is responsible only to the Annual Conference through this Commission.

The office is located at 2804 Montgomery St. in a Durham residential community which is easily accessible from Interstate routes 40 and 85 and is just off of the 15-501 Bypass. If you wish further information, would like to consult with the Director or to make an appointment for an office visit, please call the toll-free number 866-440-4200 or the local number 919-402-4200.

Ted R. Kunstling, M.D., Chairperson

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) maternity/paternity leave, 6) family leave, 7) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials), 8) honorable location.

The Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel, and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Conference Relations Committee acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with and adhere to the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held. The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Every Spring (since 1987) the Conference Relations Committee has hosted a luncheon for those who will be retiring from the North Carolina Annual Conference at the June session of that year. At this luncheon, the retirees and their spouses are informed about various matters relating to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This year's retirement luncheon was held at Daniels Memorial United Methodist Church in Goldsboro on Tuesday, May 14, 2002.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 2000 Book of Discipline, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities." The Discipline further states that, "In most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of The Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all clergy and diaconal ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. In The 2000 Book of Discipline it states, "There are professional responsibilities that elders are expected to fulfill and that represent a fundamental part of their accountability and a primary basis for their continued eligibility for annual appointment. Growth in vocational competence and effectiveness through continuing formation is expected of conference members."

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) it sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) it establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) it seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education.

The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the Local Church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time.

3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Clergy: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of conference apportionments. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, conference staff positions, district superintendencies, Conference Evangelists, and conference-related agencies and institutions, retired supply, and Extension Ministry categories C and D (with total funding for all category C and D applications being no more than $1500) are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

1. The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

2. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

3. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

4. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and district superintendent.

Limits to Conference Funds:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $400.00.

2. For a one CEU event, no more than $150; a two CEU event, $300; a three CEU event, a maximum of $400 if the cost of the event merits it.

3. The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.

4. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $400 per CPE unit will be granted. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.

5. Holy Land Trips - A grant according to the current policy may be made once in a pastor's career, provided funding is available.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the clergy or diaconal minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be - given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation or other appropriate time.

2. Clergy shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.
3. It is the responsibility of each participant to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

EDUCATION, COMMISSION ON

"Go into all the world, and make disciples of every nation, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:19-20.

A generation ago, we brainstormed, prioritized, promoted events, trained and identified needs of others as we took the message into the shadows beyond our four walls. Now, we collaborate, network and build relationships in a technologically filled world of cell phones, instant messages, and beepers. Successful ministries "bubble up" from hungers and cries of the heart by people with a passion for making a difference and the willingness to be part of the solution. The Great Commission remains the same. our packaging has adapted!

Each week, phenomenal opportunities for Christian nurture and discipleship are offered throughout our NC Annual Conference. Over 147,600 persons attend small group studies with over 13,750 volunteer "grassroots" leaders sharing in faith formation on Sunday morning, as well as throughout the week! Discipleship leaders have discovered we retain 95% of material taught. Spiritually hungry persons are eager to study, search, and ponder and to share.

Recently, 75% of persons responded "my small group or my Sunday School class" when asked "What do you like most about your church?" The explanations: "I enjoy the discipline of preparation." "We encourage one another to live the lessons." "I can actually feel myself growing spiritually." "Co-workers have begun to ask me about the positive changes they have seen in the way I handle day to day experiences." "I am held accountable in Christian love." "Support from the group has enabled me to help make a difference in our community."

User-friendly resources enable lay persons to be successful as Cokesbury curriculum consultants offer tailor-made local church events, as well as, telephone and electronic consultations. Internet, video equipping and a network of Christian educators reach out to enable local churches to be successful in their primary mission, "To make disciples." Creative funding through tuition-based ministries and grants from beyond the church pews enable expansion of core values into the marketplaces of community life. The Commission on Education rejoices to be part of the church of the future as a responsive creative partner in the Spiritual Formation Circle.

Elaine A. Lilliston, Chairperson

ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

A simple look at the ages and faces of clergy in The United Methodist Church helps all to understand the truth of the statistical projections indicating a tremendous loss of clergy through retirement over the next eight to ten years. The primary concern of the Committee on Enlistment is to raise the consciousness of our constituency within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference so that identification and enlistment of ordained ministers is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church. In keeping with this goal the Committee on Enlistment can provide guidance and encouragement in the process of clergy enlistment. However, the primary responsibility for identifying youth, young adults, and second career adults who need to answer God's call upon their lives falls upon local church pastors, laity in the local churches, and campus ministers.

All too frequently, persons place God's call to the ministry behind economic or security concerns. Sometimes others that are close to that person are more aware of their calling than the person themselves. The role of individuals and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees in local churches is to confirm the claim of God upon those that are called and direct them to their local church pastors, District Superintendents, and District Committees on Ministry.

During each even-numbered year, the denomination offers an event designed to help persons who are "exploring" a call to ministry. The 2002 Exploration event will be held in Chicago on November 15-17, 2002. The weekend is designed to help one explore the call to ministry, discover one's giftedness for ministry and ways in which to fulfill the call. Brochures describing Exploration 2002 are available at the session of the North Carolina Conference and various youth events in the conference. Scholarships are available through the Enlistment Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

There are other spiritual encounters that have been helpful to persons defining a call to ministry. Disciple Bible Study and Emmaus Walk events have awakened and provided opportunities to hear and respond to God's call in one's life.

The Committee on Enlistment encourages all pastors and committed laity to assist God in facilitating the process of discovery. To assist those whom Christ has called into His service is a high and holy commitment.

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, COMMISSION ON

A VITAL PARTNERSHIP

Choose instruction instead of silver

*Knowledge rather than gold.
Proverbs 8:10*

The North Carolina and Western North Carolina United Methodist Conferences and our colleges/universities and campus ministries are partners in the mission of Christ

AS PARTNERS, THE COLLEGES/UNIVERSITIES WILL:

- Embrace, re-invigorate, and foster their relationships with the United Methodist Church
- Reflect the core values shared with the church
- Nurture the faith journey of students, faculties, staffs
- Create a teaching/learning environment of excellence and faith
- Provide academic programs that contribute directly to the work of the church and equip the next generation of United Methodist Church and community leaders
- Prepare students for servant leadership
- Seek to make the colleges/universities accessible and affordable
- Furnish resource links and study opportunities for clergy and laity
- Include local district superintendents on boards of trustees, ex officio

AS PARTNERS, THE CAMPUS MINISTERS WILL:

- Form inclusive and hospitable Christian communities on the campuses served
- Nurture spiritual formation
- Send forth servant leaders

AS PARTNERS, UNITED METHODIST CONFERENCES WILL:

- Promote and support the United Methodist colleges/universities as the college of choice
- Observe regular and recurring events for the celebration of higher education and campus ministers
- Organize teams of advocates for higher education ministries
- Provide financial support and scholarship programs with financial aid packages for needy students
- Maintain and ensure that United Methodist higher education in NC remains accessible and affordable for United Methodists
- Encourage districts where colleges are located to hold district meetings on campuses

AS PARTNERS, LOCAL CHURCHES WILL:

- Seek ways to form partnerships with campus ministries and colleges
- Observe Student Day and celebrate higher education ministries
- Prepare students for college experiences and campus ministry opportunities
- Provide the college/universities with the names of prospective high school students
- Encourage the United Methodist Women to provide the names of college students to campus ministers

- Maintain contact with students from their congregations
- Create mission opportunities and internships for college students
- Open pulpits for college presidents, campus ministers, and higher education spokespersons for presentations
- Provide scholarships to fund students to attend one of our United Methodist colleges/universities in NC
- Support campus based international mission trips involving students, faculty, and staff
- Identify United Methodist laity who are interested in supporting higher education and campus ministries

All partners are committed to monitor and assess the progress and accomplishment of our missions in college/universities, campus ministries, conference and local churches.

Regina Henderson, Chairperson

ITINERANT CLERGY MOVING EXPENSE, COMMITTEE ON

The Itinerant Clergy Moving Expense Committee met to study moving expense needs and policies.

The Committee makes the following recommendations.

I. Eligibility

- A. Pastors of local churches continuing under appointment to local churches within the Conference, district superintendents, and Conference ministerial staff whose salaries are paid from the Conference treasurer's office.
- B. Pastors in section I.A. who become Conference Evangelists upon moving from an appointment to new residence. Their moving expense to return to any of the above categories will also be paid.
- C. Pastors in section I.A. who retire from serving appointment or who assume approved disability leave or return into active service from approved disability leave.
- D. Widows or widowers of clergy in section I.A. upon moving from place of appointment to new residence.
- E. Pastors moving into an appointment in the North Carolina Conference to assume full-time or student appointments under section I.A.
- F. Interim Supply pastors
- G. Pastors being appointed to leave of absence are entitled to moving expense for one leave of absence.
- H. Persons who are called to active military duty will be entitled to moving expense at the time of call up, if need be, and at the time of return, if need be, if not covered by the military, with substantiation of the military orders.
- I. Persons moving who are not defined above will not be eligible to make claim.

II. Payment of Claims

- A. All reimbursements must be substantiated with paid receipts for actual moving expenses. All reimbursements must be for expenses which are deductible for income tax purposes according to Internal Revenue code, Section 217, non-taxable fringe benefits. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
 1. Active itinerant clergy in section I.A., I.B., I.E., I.F., I.G. and I.H. (except retiring clergy, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive reimbursement of costs up to $1,500.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 2. Retiring itinerant clergy, widows, or widowers will receive reimbursement of costs up to $2,200.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking disability leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.
 3. Itinerant clergy couples will receive reimbursement of costs up to $1,750.00

- with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one member of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.
- B. Travel: The IRS standard mileage rate for moving expense deductions is $.10 per mile. This rate may be paid per mile per vehicle for a single trip to move each vehicle to the new residence. If a vehicle is used to move household goods, i.e., in lieu of a moving company, additional trips may be reimbursed as necessary. The per trip mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the Conference boundary to the appointment, or from the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement), whichever is less. Either the mileage as described above or actual out of pocket expenses for gas, oil, etc, may be reimbursed from the Conference boundary.
 - C. IRS guidelines require that moving expense reimbursements be reported on a W-2. Based on recommendation from legal counsel and their consultations with the Internal Revenue Service, we recommend that the W-2 be issued by the local church. The Conference Treasurer will provide to the local church all moving expense information to be reported on the W-2. The Conference Treasurer will make payment to the new local church appointment. The new local church will pay the clergy and include the moving expense on the W-2 that they issue to the pastor at the end of the year. In absence of a new appointment, payment will be made to and reported by the old appointment. The Conference treasurer will make this payment as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed along with all appropriate receipts to substantiate expenses. This will fulfill the 2000 Discipline, ¶12532.4, which states "The chairperson of the board of trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee, if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." Moving expense funds will be with held by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, or for having the fuel tank filled, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said pastor-parish relations committee or the parsonage committee, the superintendent may request the arbitration committee of the clergy living committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.
 - D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible itinerant clergy to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendent. Those receiving an advance must substantiate their expenditures, and any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer. All advance payments shall be included in W-2 information provided to the local church by the Conference Treasurer for inclusion on the W-2.
 - E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
 - F. Reimbursable expenses include the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, etc., moving household and personal goods, travel as defined in II.B., lodging, packing, crating, in-transit storage and insurance, labor costs, and any other expense necessary to physically move household items. Expenses which are not reimbursable include meals, purchase of household items, or any other item not reasonable or necessary for the move.
 - G. The request for moving expense reimbursement must be received in the Treasurer's Office no later than four months following the date of the move.

- H. Reimbursement will be considered a qualified, non-taxable fringe benefit not subject to income and self-employment tax when:
- Your move is 50 or more miles from the old appointment to the new appointment and
 - Your new appointment is full time for at least 39 weeks during the first 12 months at the new location.

If your appointment does not meet the above conditions, then the reimbursement will be reported as taxable for both income and employment tax. However, if your reimbursement is treated as taxable income, an additional stipend in the amount of 20% of the taxable income portion will be provided. The maximum stipend will be no more than 20% of the applicable limit stated in section II.A.

III. Review Committee

- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations.
- B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

Carl Belcher, Chairperson

LAITY, COMMISSION ON

At the 2001 Annual Conference the Conference Board of Laity issued a challenge to the laity in every local church to become "Partners with a Purpose". The laity were encouraged to become partners in ministry with their pastor(s) in an effort to enable more ministries to happen beyond the local church.

Congregations were asked to actively seek to discover new areas of ministry needed in their communities and beyond and to reach out to make them happen. Many new and outstanding ministries have been started as a result and some of these ministries will be recognized at the 2002 Annual Conference.

Each District has been given the opportunity to nominate an Outstanding Lay Ministry of the Year in their District. One of the nominees has been selected as the Conference Outstanding Lay Ministry of the Year and will be recognized at the 2002 Annual Conference and will receive a $1,000 grant from an Endowment Fund left by the late Roy Turnage, a former Conference Lay Leader.

It is our hope that every congregation will make spiritual formation a priority. Many congregations are forming small laity covenant groups that are involved in Bible study, prayer and discernment seeking to discover God's direction for their congregation and great things are happening. We encourage each congregation to promote the use of the excellent resources available such as Disciple Bible Study, Faith Quest, Companions in Christ, Witness and many more to study and seek God's will and God's direction for their church.

We celebrate all basic and advance lay speakers in our conference and encourage others to take advantage of the Basic and Advance Lay Speaking courses offered in their district and or the conference level. Lay Speakers are valuable resources who help to make certain that no pulpit is silent when the pastor cannot be there and some serve as Lay Pastors.

Another first at the 2002 Annual Conference will be a Laity Banquet on Friday night, June 7th. The Theme will be "God's Dreams...Lay Ministry's Response". John Riley of Frazer Memorial United Methodist Church in Montgomery, Alabama, will be the keynote speaker. In an effort to celebrate the outstanding lay ministries going on in our conference we will have a display by each of the District nominees for Outstanding Lay Ministry of the Year. To reinforce partnership, laity were encouraged to invite their pastor(s) to the Laity Banquet.

Remember to continue to develop our Laity Theme for the 2001-2004 Quadrennium:
“Partners in Ministry...All God’s People...”

- 2001 Setting the Table
- 2002 Welcoming the Stranger
- 2003 Telling the Story
- 2004 Singing the Song and Living the Life

Jeanne Rouse, Conference Lay Leader

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) is one of the most “unsung blessings” of our connexional support! In addition to being the underlying support to our seminaries, it provides invaluable support for the following ministries: Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for programs they provide for clergy and diaconal ministers; scholarships for students studying for the ordained and diaconal ministry in the 13 outstanding United Methodist seminaries and in non-United Methodist seminaries approved by the Division of Ordained Ministry and taught by seminary professors and conference leaders throughout the United Methodist Church; Continuing Education; Course of Study Schools (more than 2,300 people are involved in 12 Course of Study Schools); research and special programs related to candidacy and enlistment; pastoral care initiatives; clergy women concerns; racial and ethnic concerns; spiritual formation; testing and evaluation; training of boards of ordained ministry; international theological education; jurisdictional block grants; supervision issues and Dempster Fellowships. All of these ministries are nurtured by money from the Ministerial Education Fund.

The general policies for the North Carolina Annual Conference’s portion of the Ministerial Education Fund (25% of MEF apportionments) are set by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Brochures with guidelines and policies for the MEF scholarships are available from the Office of Ministerial Relations.

Some interesting facts regarding MEF are:

- More than $325 million has been given by local congregations to the MEF since 1968.
- More than $80 million from the MEF has supported conference board services in each annual conference since 1970.
- MEF supports Duke Divinity School, which for over 60 years has prepared men and women for leadership in the church as clergy and laity.

Other institutions supported by Ministerial Education Funds are: Boston University School of Theology, Boston, MA; Candler School of Theology at Emory University, Atlanta, GA; The Theological School at Drew University, Madison, NJ; Iliff School of Theology, Denver, CO; Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, GA; Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, Evanston, IL; Methodist Theological School in Ohio, Delaware, OH; Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, TX; Saint Paul School of Theology, Kansas City, MS; Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, CA; United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH; Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

The 2001 Pastors' School and Convocation took place on October 15-17. The theme was "TRANSFORMING MINISTRIES." The James A. Gray Lecturer was Miroslav Volf, the Henry B. Wright Professor of Systematic Theology at Yale Divinity School. Dr. Volf is known for his international dialogues, most notably with the Vatican Council for Promotion of Christian Unity. The Franklin S. Hickman lecturer was Reinhard Huetter. Dr. Huetter presented the second Hickman lecture on Christian Responses to War. Our keynote lecturer was Michael Krzyzewski, a lay person at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church and Head Coach of the Duke University men's basketball team.

The Convocation Preachers were: Hope Morgan Ward, the Executive Director of Connectional Ministries of the North Carolina Conference. Hope has served churches in the North Carolina Conference and has been a delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional and General Conferences. Also, we enjoyed the preaching of Dr. Willie J. Jennings, Associate Professor at Duke Divinity School.

Continuing Education Seminars were offered in a variety of subjects, including: Growing in Faith; Pilgrimage For the Spiritual Journey, Mission Initiatives, The Dynamics of Church and Culture in the Hispanic Population, Women's Ways of Worship, Health Ministry and Parish Nursing.

The 2002 Pastors' School & Convocation takes place October 14-16. The theme is "REMEMBERING WHO WE ARE." The James A. Gray Lecturer will be Dr. Richard B. Hays, George Washington Ivey Professor of New Testament at Duke Divinity School. The Franklin S. Hickman lecturer will be Roberta C. Bondi, Professor of Church History at Candler School of Theology. Invitations are in progress for our keynote lecturer and preachers for this year's event.

A detailed brochure will be available from the Divinity School later this summer. Individuals are encouraged to contact the office of Continuing Education for further details at www.divinity.duke.edu.

Richard L. Stone III, Chairperson

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN EDUCATORS FELLOWSHIP

The mission statement for the Christian Educators Fellowship, The United Methodist Church, states "Believing that called, committed, and equipped leaders enable and empower the church's teaching and learning ministry for the formation of faithful disciples in today's world, Christian Educators Fellowship, the United Methodist Church, exists to nurture and support professional Christian educators and persons who have responsibility for the many expressions of educational ministries." The North Carolina Chapter of CEF seeks to be faithful to this mission by offering monthly programs with practical insights on a variety of topics related to education ministry. Meetings during this conference year covered Curriculum Ideas for Adult Sunday School, Christian Education as Mission, New Ideas for Ministry Including "The Rotation Model," Book Reviews on Helpful and Meaningful Books, and a session on Family Systems Theory taught by a highly credentialed therapist and teacher. Both professional Christian educators and laity empowered by local churches to be involved in the ministry of education find much help and support from the community that gathers at these meetings. In addition, a two day spiritual formation retreat, "Deep Roots for Tough Times," was led for the group at Bergland Retreat Center by Rev. Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr.

OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES, COMMITTEE ON

The committee seeks to be the focal point for aging issues which impact the program and ministry of the local church and the Annual Conference as a whole. Our society is an aging society with more people over 65 living today than have existed to this point in time. Some 12 percent in the state of North Carolina, totaling over one million people and still growing, are over 65 years of age. The traditional ways of ministry to and with older adults are fast changing, in light of the very active younger older adults who are either working or seeking challenging ministry opportunity through the church. The new emphasis is on empowering older adults into ministry. Towards this goal, the committee has promoted the following services and learning programs:

1. The Vial of Life program, wherein church members work with Emergency Medical Services to establish a listing of current medications and medical conditions which are stored in a vial in the refrigerator of the home bound older person. The EMS then would be able to check the current list of medications and health issues of a home bound person when they are called in the time of an emergency.
2. An Idea Bank will maintain a list of active ministries of local churches with older adults, which could be shared with the churches who are seeking older adult ministry organization and programs in a local church. It would be a practical how-to-do program resource.
3. A Resource Library is being maintained in the Conference Audio-Visual Library for use by local churches.
4. The Norman T. Allers Academy on Older Adult Ministries is a certification program established by the Older Adult Association of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to provide training and credentials for those in older adult ministry. Clergy and lay persons are being encouraged to take advantage of this certification program.
5. To partner with other conference groups and agencies in the sponsorship of the education and training of clergy and lay persons in the spiritual development for the fourth quarter of life.
6. To raise the consciousness of how, where and why the church ought to be involved in ministry with, to and by older adults.

Aging challenges the church in its ministry. Let us be involved in intentional ministry. Thanks be to God for Long Life.

Philip S. Brown, Chairperson

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry is pleased and privileged to present to the clergy session of the North Carolina Annual Conference our report for 2002.

Our board is a strong, representative body from the clergy and laity of this Annual Conference wrestling constantly with its responsibilities outlined in The Book of Discipline 2000 (§1632). These duties require the board to exercise strong care in its examination of candidates for ordination in a way which is both fair and diligent. The Board also seeks always to encourage and sustain those in the process and to provide resources for growth for those already involved with ministry to local churches and other places of mission.

To provide this report, your Board of Ordained Ministry members have given nine (9) full days in meetings and interviews along with innumerable times for committee assignments. All of this is summarized in the names and recommendations found in this submission of our work for your approval.

The duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry include:

- 1) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy, with due regard for the inclusive nature of the Church. It provides guidance for these persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.
- 2) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ordained, commissioned, licensed, or consecrated ministry and their election as: a) Diaconal Ministers, b) Local Pastors, c) Associate Members, d) Probationary Members, and e) Full Members of the Annual Conference.
- 3) To interview and report recommendations concerning: a) Candidates for Commissioning b) Students to be appointed to attend school, c) Candidates for ordination as Deacon, and d) Candidates for ordination as Elder.
- 4) To interview applicants and make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relationships: Leaves of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leaves, Incapacity Leaves, Less-than-Full-time appointments, and Readmission to or the termination of conference membership.
- 5) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morale.
- 6) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of the clergy in the Annual Conference.
- 7) To interpret the high ethical standards of ministry as set forth in The Book of Discipline 2000, and to study matters pertaining to character.
- 8) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

Members of the North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry have worked diligently to fulfill their duties!

This year we are pleased to report that (17) persons were elected to Probationary Membership and commissioned on the Elder Track; (1) person was elected to Probationary Membership and commissioned on the Deacon Track; (5) persons were elected as Deacons in Probationary Membership (under the 1992 Discipline); (1) person was elected for ordination as a Deacon in Full Connection (transitioning from Diaconal Minister); (17) persons were elected for ordination as Elders in Full Connection (moving from Probationary Membership and Deacon's Orders); (1) person was elected for ordination as Elder in Full Connection (moving from Probationary Membership under the 2000 Discipline).

This year's retirement class includes (15) Members in Full Connection; (1) Associate Member and (1) Local Pastor. (1) Full Member retired in the interim (since the 2001 Annual Conference). We are deeply grateful for their love, commitment, and service to the North Carolina Annual Conference. Many opportunities continue to open for persons in this field of service!

Please note that various committee reports follow this introduction and are significant for the various areas of concern they address. All of this material, as well as our supportive services during the year, have been provided through the Office of Ministerial Relations under the leadership of Dr. Paul L. Leeland, Robbie W. Barrett, and Lynn J. Morris. We are indebted to these individuals for their excellent work and dedication to the Ordained Ministry of our Annual Conference.

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED ON OR BEFORE JUNE, 1988

Local pastors in progress or serving prior to 1988 must complete at least the five-year Course of Study.

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED FROM 1989-1993

The Board requires that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our Local Pastors (1980).

OR

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED IN 1994, 1995, 1996

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP (WITH DEACON'S ORDERS)

Each candidate must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for interview, effective June 1998:

1. A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, or field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.
2. A course in public worship that includes the theory, theology, and practice of planning and leading public worship.

ELDER IN FULL CONNECTION

Attention is called to the course requirements contained in ¶1326(3)a of The 2000 Book of Discipline. Candidates must complete the Methodism courses PRIOR to the interview:

1. United Methodist Polity
2. United Methodist Theology and Doctrine
3. A History of Methodism

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

Since 1971 the Committee on Pastoral Care has served the North Carolina Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. The Committee is comprised of five members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chair); one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; one Pastoral Counselor; and one member from the Commission on Health and Human Services. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families. The financial grants, of up to $400.00 per family, are provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference health insurance program should review the Health Care Benefits for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Pastoral Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single as well as married ministers. Grants of up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials, and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Whereas, conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children of the minister are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of 22.

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active, retired or on leave in accordance with ¶¶ 351, 352, or 353 of The Book of Discipline (2000), OR any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal Ministers, or candidates who are serving a local church, members of the NC Annual Conference, and whose status is active, retired, or on leave.

Special circumstances:

Grant eligibility continues for two years; for persons who have terminated their relationship with The United Methodist Church, for surviving spouses of ministers, and for former spouses of eligible persons.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors or therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Pastoral Care:

Psychiatrist: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification, North Carolina License;

Psychologist (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologist, North Carolina License; Pastoral Counselor: Member, Fellow, or Diplomat of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, Inc. (AAPC)

Counselor: Clinical Member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT), North Carolina Certified Marriage and Family Therapists, North Carolina Licensed Professional Counselors (LPC)

Social Worker: Member Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW)

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care in the following manner:

1. The counselor or therapist requests an application form, and instructions from the Office of Ministerial Relations. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.

2. Once the application and instructions for a Pastoral Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Pastoral Care Committee and should request the therapist to contact the Chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning the process. The client, not the Pastoral Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees, and payment of services that are provided.
4. The deadline for submitting grants is January 15 of the following year.

2001 REPORT

In 2001 the Committee on Pastoral Care granted $9,551.72 for counseling sessions. This represents 305 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year. Grants were processed for 47 clients during 2001 representing 207 sessions for clergy, 7 for cleric and spouse, 30 for spouse, 58 for dependent children, and 3 for families. Of these 47 clients, 11 received the 2001 maximum of $400.00 in assistance.

Cynthia D. Powell, Chairperson

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND BACKGROUND CHECKS, COMMITTEE ON

The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry evaluates all prospective and continuing candidates in accordance with requirements in The Book of Discipline 2000. Those seeking to enter ordained ministry or licensed ministry undergo a comprehensive evaluation. One component of the evaluation process involves psychological testing and background investigation, conducted under the direction of the Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks.

Psychological testing serves two purposes: (1) It provides the individual with valuable information, feedback, and guidance related to psychological health and wholeness. (2) It provides the Board of Ordained Ministry with useful information as it evaluates prospective and continuing candidates to determine their fitness, potential, and promise for fruitful and effective service in ordained and/or licensed ministry.

Psychological evaluation services are provided through a contract with Dr. Gary Brown, a retired elder from the Western North Carolina Conference. Dr. Brown is uniquely qualified, in both ordained ministry and counseling, to provide these services. The committee is indebted to Dr. Brown for his guidance and counsel.

Expenses for psychological evaluations are borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry for those persons residing within the annual conference and for those transferring into the conference when they are included with North Carolina Conference candidates for group testing.

Background checks on prospective and continuing candidates are furnished through a contract with the Oxford Document Company of Minnesota and the State Bureau of Investigation. Contract costs are borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

The Committee on Psychological Testing and Background Checks is composed of the following persons: Philip Beaman, Jimmy Cummings, David Wade, Clyde Denny, Sue Robertson. Peg Witt, and Camille Yorkey.

Philip L Beaman, Chairperson

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY (RIOM) PROGRAM BEGAN

in fulfillment of ¶417.3 of the 1984 Discipline requiring Annual Conferences to provide Counseling Elders for Probationers. Adjusting to changes in the mentoring process mandated by later Disciplines, RIOM continues to provide an opportunity for probationary members to grow and find support as they live and learn through this time-limited period of concentrated focus and reflection on ministerial theology and practice. Seventeen years of experience with this program indicates that it is of great value in preparing probationers for Full Conference Membership.

The North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry uses a "Cluster Group Model" to meet the Disciplinary requirements for providing leadership and supervision for our probationary members. Probationers meet in small "cluster" groups throughout the probationary period. These groups are arranged, as often as possible, by geographical area, in order to minimize travel time and facilitate greater fellowship. Cluster leaders are Elders who, by intention, are not members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Recognizing that these cluster groups become an important source for collegiality and support, every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster, with the same leader, throughout the probationary period.

Our groups currently meet and are organized around two somewhat differing paths to Full Connection. A candidate serving under the 1992 Discipline can complete his/her requirements for Elder's Orders within two (2) years by accepting a full-time appointment and participating in the RIOM process. The Book of Discipline 1992 provides a maximum time line of eight (8) years to complete these requirements. Under this path to Full Connection, the RIOM groups spend their first year, Phase I, focusing on practical areas of ministry. In the second year, Phase II, preparation in the four areas prescribed by the Board of Ordained Ministry (i.e., Call, Service and Disciplined Life; Proclamation; Theology and Doctrine; Worship and the Sacraments), becomes the primary focus for participants.

A candidate serving under the 2000 Discipline can complete his/her requirements for Deacon/or Elder in Full Connection within three (3) years by accepting a full-time appointment and participating in the RIOM process. The Book of Discipline provides a maximum time line of six (6) years to complete these requirements. Under this three-year probationary process, years two and three (Phases B and C), parallel Phase I and II under the 1992 Discipline. The group spends the additional year, Phase A, focusing on issues of pastoral spirituality.

During the RIOM process, certain candidates may be required by the Board of Ordained Ministry to spend an additional year or more "continuing" the probationary process. A continuance does not mean the probationer has failed or that he/she does not have the gifts and grace for ministry. This continuance is better understood as an opportunity for the probationer to continue to grow and improve in certain specific areas as recommended by the Board.

The RIOM committee also sponsors several other events aimed at sharing information helpful to candidates in their probationary process. In October 2001, the RIOM Committee sponsored a "Pre-Probationers' Seminar." The purpose of this annual seminar is to share information helpful to candidates as they begin preparations to meet the Board for probationary interviews.

Each year, Phase I and A probationers meet for an overnight retreat. A resource person, selected by the committee, leads the group in exploring issues such as call to ministry, spiritual formation, and practical concerns of pastoral leadership in the local church. This year's retreat was held in November 2001, at Avila Retreat Center, Durham, NC. The Reverend David Brownlee provided leadership for our time together focusing on issues of pastoral leadership and spirituality.

In September of each year, Duke Divinity School sponsors a retreat for candidates who are preparing for Full Connection interviews in the coming year. This annual seminar is led by faculty from the Divinity School and focuses on theology, worship, and pastoral concerns. Though not mandatory, we strongly recommend this time of reflection for all who are planning to come before the Board for Full Connection interviews. As a part of this seminar, participants are given the opportunity to meet with representatives from the Board of Ordained Ministry's interview committees to discuss their preparations for the coming year and to address questions they may have.

The Residency in Ordained Ministry Committee would like to offer a word of thanks to Jeff Arthurs, David Banks, Shane Benjamin, Allen Bingham, Dan Earnhardt, Norm Fitzgerald, Ken Hall, Jr., and Bob Wallace for their service as Cluster Group Leaders during the past year. We, as a committee, are committed to helping candidates for Ordained Ministry in every way possible.

Richard O. Greenway

SEXUAL ETHICS SUPPORT TEAM

The Board of Ordained Ministry was asked at the 1999 Annual Conference to implement a policy on professional sexual misconduct for the North Carolina Conference. Since this time the committee was organized and implemented the policy. The present committee is comprised of the following members: Tom Holtsclaw, Doris Fox, Rich Greenway, Merritt Jones, and Cynthia Powell.

The committee continued the training of sexual ethics support teams, persons available if the bishop wishes to deploy them to support persons who bring a complaint of sexual misconduct, to support persons against whom such complaints are made, and to support congregations which might be impacted by such circumstances. The careful training, coordinated by Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons, has prepared nine persons to serve as support team members.

In response to the request of the Board of Ordained Ministry in 2000, Bishop Edwards has appointed The Reverend Mary Jane Wilson-Parsons to a less-than-full-time extension ministry as Coordinator of the Sexual Ethics Support Teams. Her responsibilities include: 1) Design and implement training for SEST; 2) Make recommendations to and serve on the subcommittee of the Board of Ordained Ministry as a consultant and advisor to policy decisions; 3) Coordinate each SEST response, providing supervision to team members as needed; 4) Be available to consult with the bishop or members of the Cabinet regarding any instance of alleged clergy misconduct; 5) Provide outreach and education to members of the conference regarding the Sexual Ethics Policy and the role of the response team; 6) Be responsible for staffing the toll-free Clergy Ethics Hotline. This ministry began July 1, 2000, and is funded by the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Moral responsibility underlines the importance of our attention to this area of our life together. The sub-committee invites you to review the Sexual Ethics Policy (pgs. 248-250 of The Journal 1999). Awareness of and fulfillment of that policy will strengthen our covenant and will offer new avenues for grace in our lives.

Thomas G. Holtsclaw, Chairperson

WORSHIP, COMMISSION ON

Worship provided leadership for the 2001 Annual Conference, highlighted by a variety of music and groups from the North Carolina conference churches, and Bishop Minor and the Russia Seminary Choir. We anticipate with joy a continuation of that work in preparations for the coming year. Changes in the make-up of the COW have resulted in a smaller group of volunteer members, which will make the commission more vital and functional. On a trial basis, the stage manager function of COW is being separated and assigned to a separate person under the direction of the Conference Secretary, with the intention of allowing COW to focus more on worship and less on stage mechanics. A new slate of officers has been elected for the 2002 year. Funding in 2002 has been requested to allow COW to assemble a worship training team to go by invitation into local churches and provide leadership in contemporary worship styles. Special consideration will be given to churches of small membership.

Skip Williams, Chairperson

UNITED METHODIST MEN

United Methodist Men local fellowships were active in all twelve (12) districts during the year 2000. The fellowships, usually meeting monthly, included prayer, praise, meals and outreach ministries.

Men came from across eastern North Carolina to support our Conference Fall Rally on Saturday, November 4, 2000. The men heard Michael W. Safley, President of the Methodist Home for Children, speaking about "Being a Father in the 21st Century."

We also heard from Bishop Ruediger R. Minor, episcopal leader for the Eurasia Area, sharing information about the Russia United Methodist Theological Seminary in Moscow, including our own Conference efforts to build a chapel there.

During this Conference Fall Rally, many men talked and prayed directly with persons across the United States and Canada who were requesting prayer as part of The Upper Room Prayer Ministry telephone line. The Conference United Methodist Men have also regularly made this Upper Room Prayer Ministry available each year at the gathering of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

We dedicated our Fall Rally's offering of to honor Glenn Stevens as a John Wesley Fellow. He had served the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men as a President and as a Conference Prayer Advocate. Glenn had also served in many positions in the Sanford District, including President. He died in December 2000.

The North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men were blessed in the year 2000 with another first: we created a Conference web page: www.nccumc.org/nccumm. In addition, we established an e-mail address: nccumm@nccumc.org. We used our e-mail address for outbound communication to the churches and pastors of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

The New Bern District men raised over $2,100.00, which they contributed to the Sewer Project Capital Funds Campaign at Camp Don Lee.

The Conference United Methodist Men have affirmed their support for ministries advocated by the General Commission on United Methodist Men. Included in this support are the following ministries: the Meals for Million program through the Society of St. Andrew; the Upper Room Prayer Ministry in Nashville, Tennessee; the National Association of United Methodist Scouters; and EMS (Every Member Shares through evangelism, mission and spiritual Life).

Our Meals for Millions ministry received $11,366.00 from the North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men in year 2000. This was up from $4,883.31 in 1999, a 133% increase for which our men should be congratulated. This increase enabled the North Carolina Conference to become the number one contributor to Meals for Millions in the Southeastern Jurisdiction out of fifteen (15) conferences. Nationally, this increase enabled us to become the fourth largest contributor to Meals for Millions out of seventy-two (72) conferences. We rejoice in this effort to feed the hungry at food shelters and soup kitchens across North Carolina.

The Conference United Methodist Men raised $1,000.00 in the year 2000 for The Upper Room Prayer Ministry prayer line. We have worked towards this financial effort each year. Over one hundred fifty thousand calls were received in year 2000 by The Upper Room prayer line.

The United Methodist Church has remained the largest supporter of Boy Scouts of America. In year 2000, 417,000 boy scouts met in our church properties across the United States. The North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference supported 739 Boy Scout units in year 2000. This represented 22,122 Boy Scout youths. Many of these scouting units have worked to earn the Bishop's Award of Excellence. For many scouts, their participation in the God and Country Awards served as an entry for them to invite Christ into their lives. Our churches received into membership the scouts and their families, many of whom were not members of a local church. The Scouting ministry in The United Methodist Church also includes Girl Scouts of the USA, Camp Fire Boys and Girls and 4-H.

We encourage attendance to the Men's Congress held every four years at Purdue University. The 2001 dates are July 13-25th.

The North Carolina Conference United Methodist Men can be successful only by helping the Districts at local churches to succeed in promoting men's ministries. We will work together with the Districts and with our Pastors to help make men in the North Carolina Annual Conference disciples of Jesus Christ.

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

"True Colors" is the theme for the year 2002 in Conference youth ministry. God sees our true colors shining through and God loves us each one in our uniqueness so we have no reason to fear. Romans 1:20 tell us "God's eternal power and character cannot be seen. But from the beginning of creation, God has shown what these are like by all God has made." Psalm 139:14 speaks for us, "I praise you because you made me in an amazing and wonderful way. What you have done is wonderful. I know this very well." This theme of true colors is also expressed in the mission statement of Conference youth ministry: to walk with youth in their journey to know Christ by creating an environment in which youth can experience Christian communion to hear the Gospel, to know God's love and to respond in faith by loving and serving others...for in all of this we are making disciples of Jesus Christ. Through local church youth ministry with a variety of faces and programs and service projects; through districts offering opportunities for youth; with over 7000 youth and adults participating in Conference youth events; and with an Episcopal Initiative that calls the church to reach out and meet the needs of young people we are indeed rejoicing in the sharing of true colors!

Youth (and adults) from across the Conference have participated in ten events over the year: Confirmation Celebration, PK Getaway, Global Vision, Kaleidoscope, Rally Day, Appalachian Trail Hike, Summer Breakaway, ACS-Annual Conference Session for Youth, Youth Mission Workteam and Pilgrimage. The Confirmation Celebration offers an experience of the connectional church to those in confirmation classes from local churches. PK Getaway was a new retreat weekend offered exclusively for the teenage children of pastors in the Conference. Global Vision included a visit to New York City and a seminar to explore issues of environmental racism. Kaleidoscope is a Conference youth event that offers a spiritual life retreat for middle school youth. Rally Day was a bright and sunny spring afternoon that celebrated the place of youth within the life of the church. The Appalachian Trail Hike proved to be a mountaintop experience of God for those involved. Summer Breakaway and ACS offered times of worship and sharing experiences of fellowship and faith in small and large groups. Our youth mission workteam to Costa Rica is providing an avenue for Christian service. Pilgrimage (with 5400 in attendance-setting another record) in the Crown Coliseum for the first time with moving messages of invitation to Christian discipleship from Duffy Robbins and music by Chris Hughes and our own NC Conference youth will be a Pilgrimage not soon forgotten.

Youth Service Fund continues to be a avenue of mission for United Methodist Youth. Grants to such ministries with youth as Conduit Day Camp, "Super Saturday" at Trinity UMC in Rockingham, Asbury Basketball Camps, the Sixth Grade Senate of All God's Children UMC, Trinity UMC-Wilmington child care center-teen parent program, Fuquay Youth Initiative, Positive Attitude Youth Center in Burlington, UM Youth Home-teen mom group home in Evansville Indiana, Seeds of Peace in New York, Appalachian Service Project and the Society of St Andrew are possible only in as much as local churches support and contribute to Youth Service Fund. Youth Service Fund is raised by youth and spent by youth to benefit youth. While the contributions to YSF at Conference youth events is very good, more support from local churches is needed to reach our goal of $15,000 a year.

We rejoice in the vision that local church youth ministries are living toward in areas of mission, service, study, outreach, fellowship and spiritual growth. We celebrate and give thanks to the Annual Conference and all the people within local churches giving support and encouragement to youth ministry. We pray for God's guidance and blessing as we seek to find and live with Jesus in our lives.

RESOURCE MINISTRIES CIRCLE

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

The Board of Trustees has pursued the question of the best course of action in providing administrative space for the North Carolina Annual Conference. For four years we have reported on our investigation of renovation, re-building on the current site or relocation in a new facility. Some have been interested in the possibility of combining a new Conference headquarters site with a retreat center. By common consensus and with the agreement of the Bishop, we have determined that primary responsibility for a new Conference Retreat Center shall lie with Outdoor & Camping Ministries. Issues related to providing a Conference headquarters with offices for the resident bishop and other officials, shall be in the purview of the Board of Trustees. This does not rule out the possibility but only seeks to define priorities.

To assist the Trustees in their stewardship and fiduciary responsibility for assets, the Board obtained an appraisal of the entire site on Glenwood Avenue, the location of the United Methodist Building and the Raleigh Towne Apartments. This appraisal assigns a value of $3,200,000 to the United Methodist Building and the 3.58 acre tract of land where it is situated. The date of this appraisal was December 28, 2000.

An additional value of $1,060,000 was assigned to the land on which the Raleigh Towne Apartments are located. This does not include the value of buildings and improvements to that site. This property is under ground lease and contains fifty-one apartments built by the tenant. The lease pays all taxes and provides the Conference with some $10,000 per year of income.

It is the recommendation of the Trustees to retain the 2.42 acre property which is under ground lease until the lease matures in the year 2014. The Conference may decide at that time what is the best course of action regarding this property with its improvements.

Care is exercised to honor commitments made to our neighbors in an allied ministry, the United Methodist Childrens Home. Any recommendation to be brought to the Annual Conference regarding the disposition the United Methodist Building will receive careful review in dialogue with Childrens Home.

In the spring of 2001, the Methodist Home for Children did make a bona fide offer for the purchase of the United Methodist Building at the appraised price. The Trustees did not accept the offer at that time. We felt there needed to be additional study of what was the best decision for the Conference. The offer, however, was considered reasonable and the Trustees conveyed to the Methodist Home for Children our desire to keep in conversation on the matter.

The last session of the Annual Conference, meeting in Fayetteville in 2001, authorized the Trustees to proceed with an offer on a site in the Greenfield Park section of east Raleigh. This development, now some twenty years old, is a reputable and desirable location owned by the State of Ohio Pension Plan and administered by Nations Bank. The property is attractively landscaped, with all utilities in place and protection afforded through extensive covenants. The center portion of the park is in a nature preserve. It is well situated at the intersection of I-40 and U.S. 70 in the Garner area of Wake County. It is also within two miles of the proposed intersection of I-40 with the I-540 beltline. The site is a ten-minute drive from the current United Methodist Building. It is our conviction that this is a site which is more accessible to the majority of our Annual conference. The entire area is at the beginning point of a more remarkable development curve. Since our last Annual Conference, the entire 300-acre site across I-40 has been cleared for the construction of a major shopping center, joined by restaurants, banks, hotels and housing. Plans are on the books for extension of Greenfield Parkway with a bridge (but not an exit) across I-40 which will connect the new development with Greenfield Park.

An offer was made by the Board of Trustees for the first site shown to the Conference. The offer of $80,000 per acre for a 12-acre site was not accepted by the owners. There was a consensus on the part of the Trustees that we would benefit from expert advice and counsel in the process of evaluating the best course of action. In October of 2001, the Trustees engaged Rex Thomas as our consultant and exclusive agent. Mr. Thomas, a member of Highland United Methodist Church, is president of Grubb Ellis Thomas Linderman, a large commercial real estate firm in Raleigh. He was already known to us as our leasing agent for the United Methodist Building when he was with Highwoods Properties. He and his assistant, Joe Fourie, were given carte blanche to examine our situation and advise the Trustees of the best course of action.

After more than a month of study he came back with several recommendations. He was of the conviction that this was the time to sell the United Methodist Building and move to another site. After careful consideration, he too came to the conclusion that Greenfield Park was the best location for a new Conference headquarters.

He recommended we consider the third tract from the entrance to the Park rather than the first. He noted that the cost of the land was much more reasonable and that this site offered better visibility from U.S. 70. Also, the owners were willing to give us an additional 4+ acres in natural areas if we purchased the 10.2 acre site. The natural area is property that cannot be used for building but may be developed for walking trails and similar usages.

An offer was made to the owners of the new site in Greenfield Park contingent on (1) approval by the bishop, and (2) approval by the Annual Conference. After a period of negotiation an offer was accepted by the owners to sell the 14.588 acre site for $1,000,000. This makes the price for the net area (useable portion of 10.2 acres) $98,039 per acre.

This is before the Annual Conference at this time. The Trustees seek authorization to sell the United Methodist Building and to purchase the site in Greenfield Park as presented. The purchase of the Greenfield property would be out of reserves held by the Trustees and therefore is not dependent on the sale.

The Trustees propose that the new building be constructed utilizing proceeds from the sale of the United Methodist Building and 3.58 acre site on Glenwood Ave. We anticipate that this could be accomplished with little or no debt incurred by the Annual Conference.

William C. Simpson, Jr., President

2002 REPORT ON THE METHODIST BUILDING

The Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference is charged with responsibility for the management of property and other assets of the Annual Conference as well additional duties to facilitate the mission and ministries of the Conference. The Board is organized according to the provisions of the Book Discipline, Chapter Six, 2512.

When churches are either abandoned or closed, the Conference Board of Trustees acts as successor trustees for the local church. Currently the Conference Trustees manage eleven properties so designated. The Annual Conference maintains insurance on these properties. One site has been sold since our last session of the Annual Conference. The Drewry United Methodist Church, Durham District, was accepted by the Trustees and sold.

In addition, two other properties are slated for sale by the Board of Trustees. The St. John United Methodist Church (Wilmington, Wilmington District) and the Hope United Methodist Church (Bonlee, Sanford District) are both in process of sale. St. John is being sold to First, Inc., a ministry that works in drug rehabilitation in that community. Hope Church is being sold to the Bonlee Baptist Church, whose property is contiguous. The Trustees separated the parsonage from the Hope property in 2000, and deeded it to the Meroney Church on the Bonlee Warren Charge.

The Board also holds title to the Wakefield Property in northern Raleigh, as well as monetary assets that were designated for a new congregation in the will of Olaf Wakefield, a member of the St. Marks United Methodist Church. Windborne United Methodist Church, a newly organized congregation, is slated to receive this property and assets under the provisions of the testamentary language of the Wakefield will.

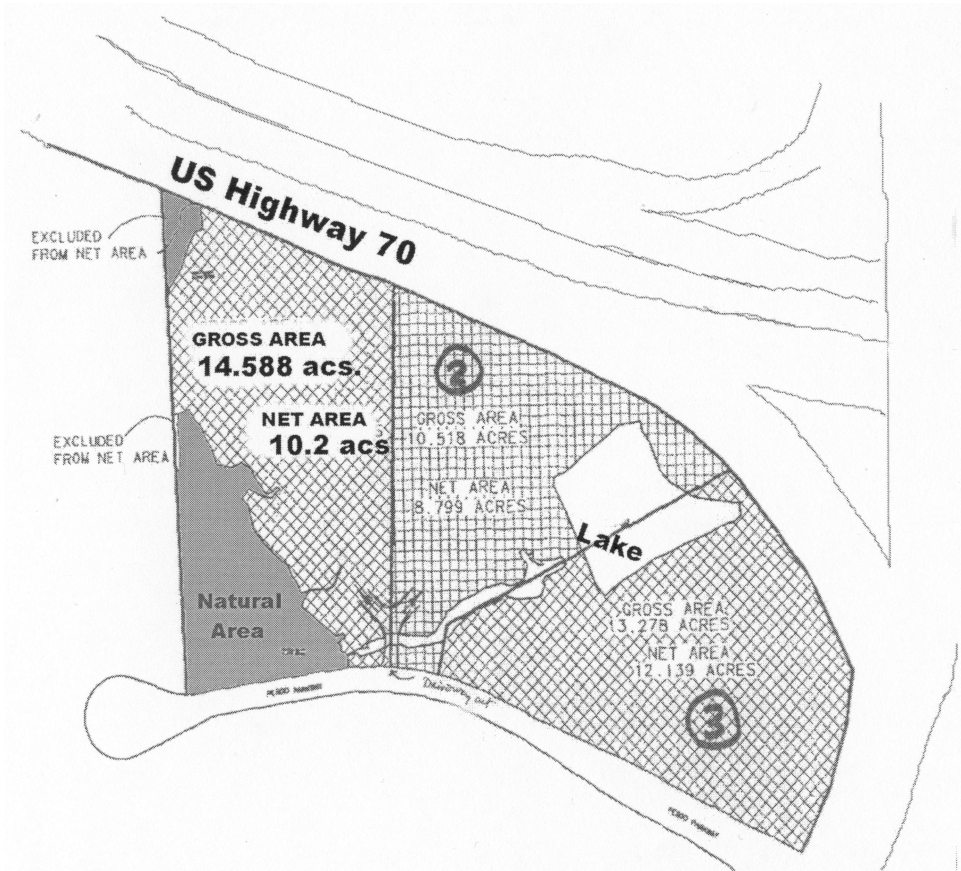

The Trustees maintain five parsonages in the Raleigh area for use of the staff of the Annual Conference. Because one parsonage was not needed at present for staff, the Trustees have assigned it for use by the Hispanic Ministries in the Raleigh area for housing a pastor. The Trustees voted to dispose of the parsonage at 4108 Brewster Dr., Raleigh. Proceeds from this sale will be held and invested for possible purchase of another parsonage as warranted by future staff needs of the Conference.

The Episcopal Residence is also managed and maintained by the Trustees. Extensive repairs and improvements have been made on this property in the past six years. The largest single property managed by the Trustees is the United Methodist Building. We continue to face issues and concerns related to an aging facility. The Trustees have made repairs, including extensive roof work during this year. The 2001 Session of the Annual Conference authorized the Trustees to pursue the relocation of the Conference Headquarters. A separate report gives the details of this proposal. [See Separate Report]

In many ways, this Annual Conference marks the end of a significant era. The Trustees wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Norris for his service as we approach the time of his retirement. There is a plaque in St. Paul's Cathedral that honors Sir Christopher Wren, the architect for that edifice and so much of London following the Great Fire. It says simply, Si monumentum requiris, circumspice, "If you seek his monument, look around you." In many ways, we believe that if you wish to see what Allen Norris has accomplished in these years of service to the North Carolina Annual Conference, you need only look around you. His hand has guided and shaped our labor together in significant and beneficial ways. Thank you, Allen for all your faithful service.

In our work of providing facilities for the ministry of this Conference, we seek your prayers, advice and suggestions.

CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

As a part of the Resource Ministries Circle, the Conference Staff Relations Committee confers and counsels with the Conference Connectional Ministries staff to continue and enhance effective ministry. In consultation with the Executive Director, the Committee makes recommendations to and meets at least annually with the staff, leads filling of staff positions and sets staff salaries. It also considers and recommends changes in other areas of staff support and concerns such as vacation, sick leave, housing, continuing education and other compensations. It functions as a Personnel Committee for the Administrative Assistants in the Methodist Building.

The Committee is composed of nine voting members (four laypersons and five clergy including two District Superintendents). Ex-officio members without vote are the Resident Bishop, Lay Leader, President of CFA, Executive Director of Conference Connectional Ministries, Director of Ministerial Relations/Assistant to the Bishop, Conference Treasurer/Business Manager, Conference Secretary and United Methodist Foundation Director.

Actions taken during our three meetings since the 2001 Annual Conference were revision of Staff Organizational Chart, approved a four percent salary increase for staff in 2002, commendation to Director of Mission Development, Steve Taylor, for his multifaceted good work, recognition of the continuing contributions of Director of Children and Youth Ministries, Sue Ellen Nicholson and Director of Communications, Bill Norton, Jr.

As Director of Multicultural Ministries Jimmy Cummings has devotedly served our conference for seven years. In retirement he will be missed on a conference level, but remembered by all for his loving spirit and gentle approach. The Conference is indebted to Hope Morgan Ward for innovative, caring and dedicated service for over five years as Council of Ministries Director, and now as the Executive Director of Connectional Ministries.

The Committee is working with the Treasurer's office to keep current policies relating to sexual harassment/molestation. In regard to hiring practices, the Committee has established a practice of appointing a search committee as needed for specific personnel searches. While the Committee has consultative responsibility in searches, the final decision in clergy appointments to staff positions rests with the Bishop.

As of the writing of this report, no selection has been made for the new Director of Multicultural Ministries, but the Bishop has appointed Charles M. Smith as the new Director of Connectional Ministries. Hope Morgan Ward is working closely with him for a smooth transition.

We annually have a luncheon with the entire conference staff and express our appreciation for their expertise and their devotion to the North Carolina Conference.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline mandates that "there shall be in each annual conference a commission on equitable compensation" (§1623), whose purpose is "to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference" (§1623.2). Three broad areas of responsibility are outlined in §1623.2, which are: "(a.) Recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b.) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c.) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations."

God calls persons to ministry to go into all the world, preaching, teaching and baptizing (Matthew 28:19), for without them the world would not have heard Christ preached (Romans 10:14). These are called to be stewards of the mysteries of God (1 Corinthians 4:1). The Church lifts up some persons for the role of clergy and ordains these persons to the work of pastoral ministry to be servants of the servants of God.

Those who are ordained to pastoral ministry answer affirmatively the historic question of John Wesley, (§1327.17) "Are you determined to employ all your time in the work of God?" For such a called, set apart and committed clergy, the Church assumes an obligation to plan adequate support. The Book of Discipline is clear that “the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges (§622.5; see also §246.12). Pastoral charges carry a responsibility for clergy salaries as one expression of their missional and ministry presences in the community. We recognize that such a missional presence also include faithful payment of apportionments in full as ministry beyond the local church.

The Commission seeks equity and fairness for both pastors and local churches. Why should this commission be so concerned about equity and fairness? Our prayerful consideration of scriptural and historical foundations are found in the following:

- a. Jesus says, “the laborer deserves to be paid,” (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us “Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of compensation, especially those who labor in preaching and teaching; for the scripture says, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,” (1 Timothy 5:17,18).
- b. Wesley was concerned that clergy have responsibility not to be “in debt so as to embarrass you in your work” (§327.18), which implies that the Church has a responsibility that it neither lead its clergy into positions of embarrassing indebtedness, nor leave them there.
- c. The Great Commission to “go into all the world preaching, teaching and baptizing” brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the Great Commission bear its promised fruit.
- d. The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the Great Commandment to “love our neighbors as we love ourselves” by desiring for each pastor what our members desire for themselves – compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our prayers, working and considering together as both laity and clergy from across The N.C. Annual Conference, we make the following recommendations, which we believe will help us move toward fairness for both local churches and pastors as together we support ordained ministry in The N.C. Annual Conference.

In 1999, we recommended that Equitable Compensation be increased by 3% plus ½% each year thereafter, until the percentage increase was equal to that of the average full-time pastoral salary increase from the preceding year. Accordingly, the recommended percentage increase would be 4.79% in 2003. However, the Commission currently recommends a 5% increase for the year 2003. For the year 2002 the average full-time salary increase was approximately 5.09%. Our recommendation again moves us more quickly toward narrowing the gap.

I. Recommended Schedule of Minimum Compensation for 2003:

A. Salary Schedule

We recommend that the student minimum salary be based on 65% of the minimum salary of full-time pastors.

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT

(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)

	2002	2003
Salary	$30,000.00	$31,500.00
Utilities	2,000.00	2,000.00
TOTAL	$32,000.00	$33,500.00

STUDENT PASTORS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)

Salary	$19,500.00	20,475.00
Utilities	2,000.00	2,000.00
TOTAL	$21,500.00	$22,475.00

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the local charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that each local charge would provide at least $3,000 for travel expense. The Commission encourages each charge to establish a plan to reimburse the pastor for all legitimate business mileage at the current rate established by the IRS. Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable compensation support shall not be affected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $3,000 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Funds support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) based on the pastor's cash base compensation (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash base compensation designated by the General Board of Pension/Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of a parsonage). Cash base compensation plus housing in Plan Compensation.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Compensation Funds:

The pastor's base compensation is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the each charge of The North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge, to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Annual Conference, the Commission and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

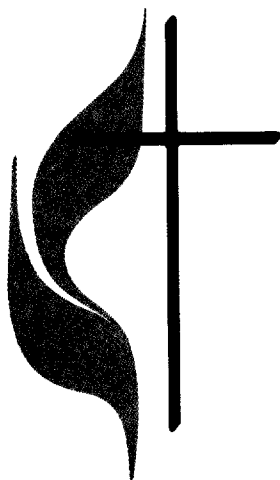

- A. In considering the base compensation for the charge, all income, including base compensation, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as base compensation in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund. Base compensation support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.
- B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one third (1/3) of the total base compensation will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application of the charge. Charges seeking more than one third (1/3) supplement shall provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendent regarding the terms of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the approval of the cabinet. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume total responsibility for base compensation and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one third (1/3) of the base compensation required for such a division.
2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge shall pay initially two thirds (2/3) of the pastoral support established by the division.

- C. Churches receiving Equitable Compensation Funds shall conduct an annual financial/stewardship campaign in the second year of receiving Equitable Compensation funds, to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
- D. The Commission further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten percent (10%) each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum base compensation for their pastor each year and receive ten percent (10%) less each year in assistance from Equitable Compensation Funds than granted the previous year.
- E. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time, secular employment. The supplement may be reinstated at the time the charges appointed pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision will be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking to be employed outside their ministerial responsibilities for emergency reasons.
- F. Equitable Compensation Funds are to be sent to charges that have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum base compensation established by the Annual Conference. The monthly base compensation supplement checks sent by the Conference Treasurer's office are to be deposited by the charge treasurer into the charge/church bank account. Checks shall not be endorsed nor cashed by the pastor.
- G. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister who is an associate member or a member in full connection of The N.C. Annual Conference, serving full time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities are equal to the Conference minimum base compensation. Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for all MPP and CPP payments on incremental increase. This policy does not restrict the Commission on Compensation, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.
- H. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form, supplied by the district superintendent. The pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent, shall carefully analyze the request. The application form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and receive the approval of the charge conference.
- I. The Commission on Equitable Compensation will not fund any charge that is also receiving funds from The Emerging Church Salary Fund. The Commission on Equitable Compensation plans further consultation and study with other Conference boards and agencies to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON
III. FINANCIAL POLICIES

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
World Service and Conference Benevolences
Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration
Past Service Liability - Pensions Episcopal Fund
Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
Black College Fund
Africa University Fund
2. Formula: The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in unadjusted apportionments from the previous year shall not increase or decrease in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration, Past Service Liability – Pensions, Episcopal Fund, and all other apportionments; district work fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness Sunday; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Response Committee and the Resident Bishop.
3. Beginning with all new congregations started in the NC Conference after July 1, 1993, the following formula shall be used to determine a new congregation's base for setting apportioned contributions for mission and service giving:

BUDGET YEAR	BASE FORMULA	MAXIMUM % INCREASE
C	$4A \div 4$	No Cap
D	$3A + B \div 4$	No Cap
E	$2A + B + C \div 4$	No Cap
F	$A + B + C + D \div 4^*$	No Cap
G	$B + C + D + E \div 4$	15% Cap

* Standard formula

 Maximum % increase cap shall be the percentage determined by Annual Conference

4. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.

5. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 19, 2002.
- B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.
- C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of CFA. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
- D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another.
- E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, Africa University, Interdenominational Cooperation, General Administration) and College Sustaining Fund, Higher Education Endowment, Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.
- F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. Investments are with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. (local), the United Methodist Church Foundation (national), area banks, and with specific minority financial institutions within the bounds of the NC Conference. The Conference is also a member of Project Equality.
- G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 2002 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 2003.
- H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, ¶ 610.5.b.
- I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶ 611.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., Board of Missions, Inc., Asbury Homes and North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc.
- J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.

IV. Approval to Solicit Funds

Any organization designated as a Conference Advance Special may ask local churches to consider opportunities for giving. It shall be at the discretion of the local church as to whether, when and how these opportunities will be presented to the membership. Solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety).

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies and programs for the privilege of soliciting funds under these policies throughout the District or Conference.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Commission on Congregational Development for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club and the John Wesley Endowment for Congregational Development.
- C. The Board of Directors for Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
- D. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
- E. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College; and Asbury Homes for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto.
- F. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- G. The Disaster Response Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.

The CFA continues to recommend that 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the ongoing priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continue to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

V. District Superintendent's Salary

CFA continues to recommend, as sustained by the 1998 Annual Conference, that the percentage change in district superintendents' salary be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary and utilities) for the prior year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. The percentage change, 2002 over 2001, is 5.09%; ($1,500 or 5.00% increase for Equitable Compensation minimum salary. See page 73. We currently recommend the 2003 salary for district superintendents to increase by 5.00% ($4,098), to $86,064.00. Utilities for the district superintendent are paid by the district.

VI. Organization and Procedure (presented for information only)

- A. The audit for 2000 will be by McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC.
- B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.
- C. The Conference treasurer will include in the monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
- D. The treasurer may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $5,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such over expenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.

- E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA. Note: CFA requests the Board of Institutions to provide regular reports (at least annually) regarding its financial monitoring of related institutions/programs.
- F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items.
- G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
- H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Compensation Funds, staff salaries, etc.)

Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year.

Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.

Second Priority

New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.

Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
 2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee which will make a recommendation to the full Council.
 3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.
- I. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Camps Endowment for Maintenance, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.

- J. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
- K. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. of the N.C. Conference.
- L. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the goal of the Council is to maintain minimum reserve funds equal to 15% of the current operating budget for World Service and Connectional Ministries and the Past Service Liability. Supplemental appropriations from current year earnings shall follow the guidelines in paragraph H above. Supplemental appropriations beyond current year earnings shall follow the following guidelines: 1. If reserves are less than or equal to 20% of the current operating budget, then only supplements to meet payroll for existing positions may be considered. 2. If reserves are above 20% and below 30% of operating budget, then only supplements to meet payroll for existing positions and unfunded liabilities may be considered. 3. If reserves are equal to or greater than 30% of operating budget, then other requests may be considered. 4. No request may be considered if the amount requested would reduce reserves below 15% of operating budget.
- M. Mailing address labels will be available for a nominal fee to conference agencies, clergy and lay members of Annual Conference or other United Methodists for church related uses.
- N. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:
June 2002: There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.
September 4, 2002: An optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.
November 6, 2002: An optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.
December 4, 2002: To consider apportionment matters and supplemental appropriations for salaries.
January 15, 2003: To look at the shortfall and make a decision regarding paying out the general church apportionments
February 5, 2003: To consider the operating budget for the current year. All payments on apportionments are due to the Treasurer by mid-January. A report of receipts, amounts allocated to the budgeted boards and agencies, and supplemental appropriations are decided at the meeting.
March 5, 2003: To consider the budget to be recommended to Annual Conference which will be raised in the subsequent year and spent in the year following that. Additionally, the CFA policy recommendations to the Annual Conference are adopted.
- O. Dates to Remember:
July 19, 2002: Apportionments sent to the Districts.
November 20, 2002: Requests for supplemental appropriations for the 2002 operating budget due in the treasurer's office.
January 14, 2003: Annual Conference and General Church remittances must be received by 8:30 A.M. in order to receive credit for 2002. (Subject to change based on GCFA final closing date.)
January 27, 2003: Requests for supplemental appropriations for the 2003 operating budget due in the treasurer's office.
January 31, 2003: Tables I and II due to the Conference statistician.
February 15, 2003: Requests for the 2005 budget, to be adopted at the 2003

Annual Conference, due in the treasurer's office.

VII. Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund, and Basic Protection Plan

A. GENERAL

1. The lay employee's supervisor is responsible for making lay employees aware of these rules and procedures. Detailed information on the CPBF and the BPP is available from the treasurer's office. Supervisors will have lay employees who are eligible for these benefits contact the treasurer's office 60 days before they are eligible for participation, or sign a waiver form if they decline to participate in the CPBF and the BPP. The form will be kept on file in the treasurer's office for future reference.
2. The Conference treasurer's office will administer the CPBF and the BPP.
3. Contributions will be withheld from the employee's pay and remitted to the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer's office within ten business days after receiving the bill from the General Board of Pensions.

B. CUMULATIVE PENSION AND BENEFIT FUND (CPBF)

1. The lay employee must be full time (at least 25 hours per week).
2. The lay employee must be an employee for 1 continuous year before becoming eligible for CPBF.
3. The conference contribution will be the same percent as it is for clergy (currently 12%).
4. The lay employee's required contribution will be the same percent as it is for clergy (currently 3%). The penalty for not making the contribution will be the same as it is for clergy.
5. Participants in the CPBF must be participants in the BPP.

C. BASIC PROTECTION PLAN

1. Participants in the BPP must be participants in the CPBF.
2. The conference contribution will be the plan document required amount less the lay employee's required contribution.
3. The lay employee's required contribution will be the same ratio as it is for clergy.

R. Carl Frazier, Jr., President

INCAPACITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Incapacity acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional incapacity to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of incapacity within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are incapacitated, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Incapacity Leave, including the source of their disability income.

Persons interested in discovering more about the process of being granted Incapacity Leave can contact a district superintendent or the chair of the Joint Committee on Incapacity.

The following recommendations are presented to the 2002 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Incapacity, through the Conference Treasurer's Office, will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Incapacity Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, chair of Joint Committee on Incapacity, Conference benefits officer, and the district superintendent before the request for Incapacity Leave can be acted upon. Whenever possible incapacity requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date. Requests presented before May 15 will be included in the Committee's report to the Annual Conference.

2. Definition of Incapacity: For the first 24 months, an active participant will be considered incapacitated for the purposes of the Comprehensive Protection Plan and the Basic Protection Plan as of the date the Administrator determines on the basis of medical evidence that such active participant was unable to perform the usual and customary duties of his/her employment by reason of bodily injury, disease, or mental or emotional disease or disorder that will presumably last for at least six continuous months, exclusive of any incapacity resulting from service in the armed forces of any country, warfare, intentionally self-inflicted injury, or participation in any criminal or unlawful act.
3. A pastor seeking to be on Incapacity secures a disability claim kit from the Office of Ministerial Relations. The applicant completes Form A, has his or her physician complete Form B, completes the applicant's portion of Form C, and submit all these forms to the Office of Ministerial Relations for completion. Disability Management Alternatives reviews the claim and recommends a determination to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits who retains the authority to approve or deny a claim.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan may be placed on Incapacity Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Incapacity with its approval.
5. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance, and Life Insurance shall be paid by the Joint Committee on Incapacity both for those approved by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits and those approved by the Joint Committee on Incapacity.
6. Pastors on Incapacity Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
7. We recommend that a lump sum grant of $3,500 be made at the beginning of Incapacity Leave. This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
8. The Joint Committee on Incapacity will review the progress of each pastor on Incapacity Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances.
9. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Incapacity Leave.
 - A. Wilson E. Barber, 115 Sea Dunes, Emerald Isle 28594 (252/354-5635)
 - B. Jack Benfield, 2609 Dunhaven Dr., Garner, NC 27529 (919/772-9436)
 - C. Robert B. Craig, 164 Cherokee Dr., Newport News, VA 23602 (757/886-1524)
 - D. Victor L. Galipi, 294 Third St., Dublin, NC 28332
 - E. Sherwood A. Godwin, 4909 Pineville St., Grifton NC 28530 (252/524-0874)
 - F. Stacey Z. Graves, 2754 Russell McPherson Rd., Burlington, NC 27215 (336/214-0198)
 - G. Carol Hayes, 4100 Five Oaks Drive, #28, Durham, NC 27707 (919/490-8625)
 - H. Bobby L. Jordan, 2085 Osborne Rd., Hamlet, NC 28345 (910/205-0473)
 - I. Ronda Lee Torres, 507 Stornoway Dr., Southern Pines, NC 28387 (910/944-2292)
 - J. Richard F. Lewis, Jr., (AM) PO Box 323, Calypso, NC 28325 (919/658-3098)
 - K. Lon W. Miller, PO Box 277, Seaboard, NC 27876 (252/589-9461)
 - L. Donna Susan Moore, 6757 David Moore Rd., Elon College 27244 (336/584-0034)
 - M. John S. Paschal, 4220 Coquina Harbour Dr., Unit B-7, Little River, SC 29566 (843/249-0652)
 - N. William Rickman Pinner, 1521 Harvey Johnson Road, Garner, NC 27529 (919/773-0116)
 - O. Clint W. Spence, 1308 Shady Lane, Durham, NC 27712 (919/477-7323)
 - P. Michael Lawrence Tart, 105 Shawn Ct., Rocky Mt., NC 27804 (919/443-1931)

- Q. J. Albert Trotter, 427 Glenwood Ave., Burlington, NC 27215 (336/229-1855)
 R. LaVerne B. Womack, Jr., 10760 Taylor Rd, Laurinburg 28352 (910-610-1248)
 S. Camille Yorkey, 6025 Bur Trail, Raleigh, NC 27616 (919/875-8855)
10. We recommend the following pastors to be placed on Incapacity Leave for the first time:
 Susan Harsh-Cafferty, July 1, 2002
 11. Who have been placed on Incapacity Leave since the last Annual Conference?
 Victor Louis Galipi - March 1, 2002
 Stacey Z. Graves - August 1, 2001
 Ronda Lee Torres - December 1, 2001
 Lon William Miller - February 1, 2002
 Debra Starling Watson - November 1, 2001
 12. We recommend that pastors and congregations in the communities in which our disabled pastors reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Incapacity Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities.

Charles L. Pollock, Chairperson

INSURANCE, COMMITTEE ON

I. Group Term Life Insurance

- A. The current life insurance program is provided by Blue Cross Blue Shield Medical Life.
- B. Our coverage is $25,000 for active participants, $12,500 for retired clergy up to age 72; $2,500 for clergy over age 72. Current spouse and child coverage is $10,000 per person. The spouse's insurance terminates upon retirement of the subscriber. Accidental Death and Dismemberment is provided to active participants in amounts equal to current life coverage but does not cover retirees, spouses, or children.
- C. The life insurance plan is non-contributory. Life insurance premiums are to be paid by the salary-paying unit.
- D. LIFE INSURANCE CLAIMS PAID IN 2001:

Don Paul Lee	$2,500.00
James E. Sponenberg III	2,500.00
Charles Maness Mitchell	2,500.00
Albert D. Byrd, Jr.	2,500.00
Herman S. Winberry	2,500.00
Clarence O'Briant	2,500.00
Robert S. Pullman	12,500.00
Catherine Draper	10,000.00
Worlise Knowles, Jr.	25,000.00
TOTAL BENEFITS PAID	$62,500.00

II. Health Insurance Benefits

- A. Group
 1. The Insurance Committee will mail the proposed benefits to the members immediately before each Annual Conference session. The committee considers the most current financial information that is available before adopting its recommendations.
 2. Insurance companies who make inquiries, for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.
 3. Health Screening will be sponsored by the Insurance Committee on a biannual basis. The Insurance Committee encourages everyone to take advantage of this service in 2002. For each subscriber in the Conference plan who participates in the health screening, the Insurance Committee will donate $2.00 for handicapped camperships.

4. The Insurance Committee is to be made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2, Board of Pensions; 2, Committee on Incapacity; 2, Board of Ordained Ministry; 3, Lay Members appointed by the Commission on Laity; 1, Conference Treasurer (without vote); 1, Conference Controller (without vote); 1, Conference Benefits Manager (without vote); 1, Director of Ministerial Relations (without vote). The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies. Once elected from its constituent groups at the beginning of each quadrennium, the Insurance Committee's membership will remain established for the remainder of that quadrennium.

B. Policy and Rules

1. The extent of the benefits provided by the insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee.
2. Effective January 1, 2001 the North Carolina Conference joined the HealthFlex health insurance plan administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits in Evanston, Illinois. Health, pharmacy, and dental benefits will be administered by Cigna. Mental health benefits will be administered by United Behavioral Health. Additional benefits will include Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care Accounts. Details may be obtained from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits or from the Treasurer's Office.
3. Coverage is not automatic. Completion of an enrollment form on a timely basis is required.
4. Open enrollment and annual election of benefits (Medical Reimbursement and Dependent Care Accounts) end on November 30, for an effective date of the following January 1. A change of life circumstances (divorce, death, loss of spousal coverage) will allow a mid-year change.
5. When there is a change of address, or a change in family status, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.
6. Effective January 1, 2001 Health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 12 months after employment is terminated provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
7. Adding new family members or changing the type of coverage based on eligibility or a change in life circumstances while enrolled is permitted at any time. In the absence of a Certificate of Insurance, a one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will continue to be required for late applicants.
8. Participants applying at any time other than the initial enrollment period (thirty days from the date first eligible) would be subject to the one year pre-existing conditions clause. Submission of a valid Certificate of Insurance may eliminate or decrease this 12 month clause. The exception to this rule would be possible by a change in life status causing loss of coverage: divorce, death of spouse, loss of spouse's employment, reduction of hours regarding spouse's coverage.
9. When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (clergy or lay), he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed, there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement. At the time of retirement, the participant should be enrolled in Medicare parts A & B.

10. A participant must be covered in the Healthflex plan for five consecutive and uninterrupted years immediately prior to retirement to retain health benefits after retirement. All participants enrolled on January 1, 2001 will be prorated under this rule.
11. Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services. Pre-certification: Pre-admission certification is required on all inpatient hospital stays. Effective January 1, 2001 call Cigna at 1-800-788-5614. All Nervous and Mental benefits should be pre-certified through United Behavioral Health at 1-800-438-0247 .
12. Appeals to the processing of claims should be initiated through Cigna. Once all levels of appeal through Cigna have been exhausted, an appeal may be made to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits HealthFlex team at 1-800-852-2201.
13. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Personal checks cannot be accepted due to IRS regulations governing Section 125 cafeteria plans. The personal portion of insurance premiums should be withheld from the participant's salary by the salary-paying unit on a pre-tax basis.
14. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
15. Lay persons or clergy on maternity/family medical leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
16. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.
17. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.

III. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

IV. Eligibility Policies

If you enroll in this program, you are eligible for your coverage to begin on the first day of the month following your first day of work.

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

- A. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary and commissioned probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
 1. One of the churches or charges of the NC Conference.
 2. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 3. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:

- (a) Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions may apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.
 - (b) The Institution shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.
- 4. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the Conference are entitled to these benefits.
- B. Clergy on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.
- C. Lay Employees:
 - 1. Each church/charge must apply for a group insurance contract with the Conference Treasurer's Office in order to offer insurance to eligible lay employees. An insurance administrator must be appointed at each church/charge to manage insurance policies dealing with lay staff. This contract may be obtained from the Conference Treasurer's Office. It is the responsibility of each local church/charge and its officers to be apprised of the parameters of the Conference insurance plan.
 - 2. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan. Those churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue their current coverage of lay employees now under the Conference plan. Diaconal Ministers are not subject to this rule.
 - 3. The employee must work a minimum of 30 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment - this period being within 30 days of date first eligible, or be added as a late applicant.
 - 4. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.
 - 5. All churches providing post-retirement benefits to lay employees will be billed in full for all premiums associated with retirement insurance benefits. The Annual Conference is not responsible for the premiums of local church retired lay staff.
- V. The Insurance Committee strives diligently to present the best possible health and life insurance coverage available to the North Carolina Annual Conference. Careful consideration is given to benefits and rates that are proposed each year. The Committee wishes to thank the members of the Annual Conference for their support.

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline ¶1506.22a for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Compensation. The 2003 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $49,166.
- C. The current rate is $445 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Compensation increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAC to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. The unfunded liability as of January 1, 2003 at this rate is $33,363,720 using explicit assumptions. Our current funding plan has used explicit assumptions since 1991. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 2003 be increased to $467 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Compensation increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability under explicit assumptions of $45,516,589.

- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.
- E. The Annual Past Service Deposit for 2003 required by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits is $4,947,673 (Due Date December 31, 2002). The amount needed in the 2004 budget to fund our total liability by the year 2021 is $2,700,000. Additionally, for other benefit plans; such as, health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., the 2004 budget request is $1,950,000.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the plan document. A copy of the summary plan document is available on request by contacting pension services in the treasurer's office.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
- B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated by the GBOPHB according to the plan document:
 - 1. No vouchered travel is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since this is considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be local expense.
 - 2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
 - 3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is 25% times the cash salary.
 - 4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)
- C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
- F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.
- G. Unfunded Liability Actuarial Funding Plan (Amended 1993)
 - 1. Interest assumption is 8%.
 - 2. Past Service Rate assumption continued at a 5% increase.
 - 3. No change at the present is required in contribution pattern (new money).

III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

- A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP, whose charges are paying at least minimum full-time salary.

1. Death Benefits provide $50,000.00 as the benefit paid on the death of an eligible active participant. Upon retirement at any age, death benefits drop to $12,879.00
2. Effective January 1, 2002, the disability benefit equals 70% of plan compensation, with plan compensation capped at 200% of the DAC. (The DAC for 2002 is $42,930.00 and for 2003 is $45,717.00) The disability benefit is reduced by any disability benefits payable under the Social Security Act. This revised benefit applies only to eligible clergy whose disability effective date, as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, is on or after January 1, 2002.
3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- B. Effective January 1, 2002, the cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) is a total of 4.4% of the actual Plan Compensation up to 4.4% of 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of 200% of DAC) and the church or charge shall pay 3.4% of the Plan Compensation (up to 3.4% of 200% of DAC). ¶1506.19 in The Book of Discipline 2000.

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
 FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation for MPP and 3.4% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 3.4% of 200% of the DAC) ¶ 1506.19, Book of Discipline 2000
 STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
 LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
 INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility
- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of 200% of the DAC) for CPP.
- C. It is recommended that the pastor make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.
(The following Item V. was approved by the 1997 Annual Conference to be placed in effect at the conclusion of the Session of the Annual Conference, Year 2000:)

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

- A. Surviving spouses of active participants must be enrolled in the HealthFlex program at the time of the participant's death in order to receive health insurance benefits under the current HealthFlex plan.
 1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
 2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate. Future benefits under the HealthFlex program are waived.
 3. A surviving spouse, who married the pastor after he/she retired, can remain covered by the HealthFlex insurance plan if the surviving spouse pays the monthly premium associated with the health coverage. The Board of Pensions assumes no liability for the premiums.
- B. A participant must be covered in the HealthFlex plan for five consecutive years immediately prior to retirement to retain health insurance benefits after retirement.
 1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference may receive life and health insurance benefits when the minister attains age 62 and receives pension benefits or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits provided at least twenty of the thirty-five years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference. The following policies will apply:
 - a. Before the retired pastor and/or spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility (currently 65 years of age), the retired pastor will pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year in which he/she retires. The Conference Board of Pensions will pay the difference between the minister's payment and the costs of his/her health insurance. The retired pastor must continue to pay the amount of premium that he/she paid in the year of retirement until both the retired pastor and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility. Billings will be made monthly from the Treasurer's Office.
 - b. If a pastor, who prior to retirement, has been covered as a single individual for the purposes of health insurance, wishes at the time of retirement to add family members to his/her health care plan, he/she must pay the premium applicable to that type of coverage for the year in which he/she retired. The retired pastor must continue to pay that amount of premium until both the retired pastor and his/her spouse reach the age of Medicare eligibility.
 - c. Upon a pastor's or retired pastor's spouse reaching the age of Medicare eligibility, the Conference Board of Pensions will pay for the retired pastor/pastor's spouse's Medicare Supplement.
 2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty (20) full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference is responsible for the individual health insurance premium payments as described in #1 above. When he/she attains age 62 and receives pension benefits, the Conference Board of Pensions will pay a share of the remaining health insurance premium costs by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%
17	85%	15%
16	80%	20%
15	75%	25%

14	70%	30%
13	65%	35%
12	60%	40%
11	55%	45%
10	50%	50%
9	45%	55%
8	40%	60%
7	35%	65%
6	30%	70%
5	25%	75%
4	20%	80%
3	15%	85%
2	10%	90%
1	5%	95%

This payment formula remains in effect throughout the participant's lifetime.

3. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 2000] Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinued ¶1346.1, or Probationary Members, ¶1318.6, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶1356.3; who are granted Honorable Location, ¶1357; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶1358.1; who surrender the ordained ministerial office ¶1358.2; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶1358.3; and Conference Members who are placed on Administrative Location, ¶1359.3 are ineligible to receive retirement health insurance benefits or life insurance when payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits begin.
4. Clergy Couples' Insurance
 - a. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired pastor according to schedule V B1 and V B2.
 - b. Medical insurance will be provided for the spouse and dependent children of the retired clergy partner according to schedule V B1 and V B2.
 - c. No life insurance is provided for the spouse, or dependent children of the retired clergy partner.
- D. The North Carolina Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired pastors. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.
- VI. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our health insurance plan have dental insurance. Dental benefits became available July 1, 1987.
- VII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under Medicare Supplement

The maximum lifetime benefit under the Medicare Supplement for retired clergy and spouses is $2,000,000.
- VIII. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)
- IX. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance (For Income Tax Purposes Only) RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 2001 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Please Note: There is no place on your 1040 Tax Form to list this Housing Exclusion. The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has provided a sample statement to be used: "I received $_____ from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Incorporated in Missouri; and $_____ from the Duke Endowment (total $_____) as reported on the attached 1099 - R's. I did not include that amount on Line 16b because $_____ has been excluded under provisions of IRC Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code as a rental allowance exclusion. As a retired clergyperson, I am entitled to take this rental allowance exclusion." (In this blank put the least of the 3 amounts on your Housing Exclusion Worksheet.)

Attach this note to your 1099-R forms.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund

- I. The Principles of the Fund - The Ministers' Transition Fund of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church (the "Fund") was established effective November 20, 1937, to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his or her housing. The Fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries-Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that all ministers participate in the Fund. The Conference does not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he or she contributed to the Fund.

The Conference vigorously emphasizes that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available shall be irrevocable. The Fund is intended to be a church plan within the meaning of section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") which has not made the election under section 410(d) of the Code and is also intended to meet the requirements of a retirement income account under section 403(b)(9) of the Code. The Plan shall be interpreted, wherever possible, to comply with the applicable terms of the Code and all applicable formal regulations and rulings issued under the Code.

- II. The Conference Treasurer - The Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference (the "Conference Treasurer") shall serve as Treasurer and custodian of this Fund. He or she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.
- III. Eligibility for Membership - Membership in this Fund is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference Institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) or other Episcopal appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be eligible to join.

In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full-time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he or she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his or her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

IV. Apportionments and Assessments

- A. Conference Contributions - Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items, and this amount shall become part of the Fund.
- B. Minister Contributions - Each minister in a pastoral appointment who participates in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he or she receives each year from the charge he or she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources.)
- C. Council on Finance and Administration Contributions - The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment into the Fund an amount equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff.
- D. District Superintendent and Conference Ministerial Staff Contributions - District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.
- E. All Other Ministers - All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference Average Salary, whichever is greater.

- V. Deadline For Receipt of Assessment - The plan (fiscal) year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference Treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he or she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he or she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his or her required assessment for three consecutive years, he or she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

- VI. Base Benefits - Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Transition Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00

If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00
If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00
If retired at the end of sixteen years of membership	1,700.00
If retired at the end of seventeen years of membership	1,800.00
If retired at the end of eighteen years of membership	1,900.00
If retired at the end of nineteen years of membership	2,000.00
If retired at the end of twenty years of membership	2,100.00
If retired at the end of twenty-one years of membership	2,200.00
If retired at the end of twenty-two years of membership	2,300.00
If retired at the end of twenty-three years of membership	2,400.00
If retired at the end of twenty-four years of membership	2,500.00
If retired at the end of twenty-five years of membership	2,600.00

VII. Allocation of Dividends After Ten Years of Membership - After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to the members account.

Any funds, except as provided below, including apportionments, assessments, forfeitures and earnings thereon, remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members for the plan year shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for more than ten years and are not in arrears for the previous year.

A reserve equal to ten percent of the members' payments and dividend fund balances as of December 31 each year shall be maintained. Unrealized gains on investments shall be reserved and are not generally eligible to be distributed as annual dividends. The Hearing Committee may supplement the annual dividend from such reserves to maintain the declared dividend in an amount consistent with previous year levels when such action is deemed appropriate considering current investment returns and current economic conditions. The purpose of maintaining these reserves is to insulate the members in any year from market fluctuations and preserve the ability of the fund to consistently provide for housing needs in their retirement.

VIII. Limitations on Contributions Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code

A. In General - The contributions for any calendar year allocated to a member's account under Articles VI and VII on behalf of a member under all Qualifying Retirement Plans in which the member participates shall not exceed the member's Limit on Annual Additions as determined in subsection B of this Article

VIII. The provisions of this Article VIII are intended to provide the limits on the amount of contributions to this Fund which are excludable from the gross income of the member pursuant to Code sections 415, and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with that Code section.

B. Limit on Annual Additions Under Code Section 415

(1) A member's Limit on Annual Additions shall for any calendar year be an amount equal to the lesser of:

- (a) 100% of the member's includible compensation within the meaning of Code section 415(c)(3)(E) in such calendar year, or
- (b) $40,000, or such greater amount as is permitted under Code section 415(c) as adjusted under Code section 415(d)(1)(B).

in
 415(h), annual

For purposes of determining a member's Limit on Annual Additions, the case of a member who has more than 50% control of an employer ("Controlled Employer") within the meaning of Code section 415(h), contributions to a plan of the Controlled Employer that constitute additions (as defined in Code section 415(c)(2)) to the member shall be treated as contributions to this Plan.

(2) A member's "includible compensation" for purposes of paragraph (1), above, shall mean the amount of compensation received from an employer within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3) and 414(e) which is includible in gross income, computed without regard to Code section 911 for the most recent period ending not later than the close of the taxable year which is counted as a one year period of service as defined under paragraph (3) below. Such term shall not include any amount received by a former member after the fifth taxable year following the taxable year in which such member was terminated, or utilities to the extent such amounts are not includible in compensation pursuant to Code section 107.

(3) A member's "period of service" for purposes of paragraph (2) above shall be expressed as a number equal to the member's number of full years of service plus one-twelfth for each one month period of service in addition to his or her full years of service. Part-time service of a member shall be taken into account as the percentage of such service that is equal to the percentage of full-time service served.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Article VIII.B to the contrary, the Limit on Annual Additions of a member who has made an election under Code section 415(c)(7) shall be determined under such Code section and the regulations issued thereunder.

D. Prohibition on Before-Tax Salary Reduction Contributions - Before-tax contributions under a salary reduction agreement shall not be permitted under this Fund.

IX. Death Benefits - When a participating member of the Fund dies, the Treasurer shall pay to his or her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his or her estate, the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the dividends, if any, added to his or her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the eleventh year of membership, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary, beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the ministers death than the member's assessments plus simple interest credited annually at the rate of The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the most recent four quarters prior to the date of death.

X. Designation of Beneficiary - Each member shall provide the Conference Treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the death benefits described in Article IX are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference Treasurer. A designation shall not be effective unless such form has been duly completed and filed with the Conference Treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

XI. Irrevocable Election Regarding Distribution of Funds - Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 2000, ¶¶356.1, 356.2a, 356.2b, 356.2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

XII. Payment of Benefits

A. In General - At retirement or early termination from the Fund, members who have accrued the same number of years of service credited under the Fund (during the same calendar years) will have exactly the same accrued benefit and will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Fund, all payments under this Fund must be made at least as rapidly as required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code and any proposed or final regulations thereunder, including but not limited to the incidental death benefit requirements of Code section 401(a)(9)(G).

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters prior to the retirement date.

- (1) Ministers With Less Than Ten (10) Years. For ministers retiring between January 1 through Annual Conference, and who retire or terminate from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid in a single lump sum immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he or she retires or terminates. For ministers retiring between Annual Conference and December 31, payment shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The benefit shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members under Article VI plus minister contributions
- (2) Ministers With Ten (10) or More Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month or month of termination due to early retirement or disability. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefits as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited. Interest will accrue on the principal balance beginning on the later of the retirement date or July 1 of the retirement year and will continue until the account is paid in full. The interest rate will equal the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters. All payments excluding the payment of member assessments shall be subject to income tax.
 - (a) Two payment option: The first payment shall be equal to the cumulative amount that the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the remainder of dividends and base benefit payment earned during their membership and interest accrued.
 - (b) Six payment option. The first payment shall be the equal to the cumulative amount that the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining dividends and base benefit payment earned during their membership and interest accrued. The six payment option shall not be available to a member following attainment of age 70.

For ministers retiring between January 1 and Annual Conference, under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of the Annual Conference following the ministers' retirement or termination from the Fund. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid annually between January 1 and January 10 of each year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires until the account is paid in full.

For ministers retiring between Annual Conference and December 31, the first payment and second payment for either payment option shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. Unless the minister selects the six payment option, the account shall be disbursed in full in the first January after retirement. If the six payment option is selected, the four remaining installments shall be paid annually between January 1 and January 10 of each subsequent year until the account is paid in full.

B. Direct Rollovers

- (1) This Article XII.B applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993. Notwithstanding any provision of the Fund to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Article XII.B, a distributee may elect at the time and in the manner prescribed by the plan administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

(2) Definitions:

- (a) Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code as made applicable by section 403(b)(10) of the Code, any amount that is distributed upon hardship, and the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities).
- (b) Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the Code, or an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the Code (including custodial accounts described in section 403(b)(7) of the Code and retirement income accounts described in Section 403(b)(9) of the Code) a qualified plan described in section 401 (a) or 403 (a) of the Code, or an eligible plan under section 457(b) of the Code which is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state which agrees to separately account for amounts transferred to such 457(b) plan from this Fund, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution.
- (c) Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.
- (d) Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.
- (3) Within a reasonable time before making an eligible rollover distribution from the Fund, the Conference Treasurer shall provide or cause to be provided the written explanation to the distributee required by Code section 402(f).

XIII. Disability Leave - A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave granted by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
- C. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.
- D. Terminate from the Fund and receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference Treasurer in writing of his or her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus interest, determined as described in Article IX.

XIV. Leave of Absence - A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation while on leave.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member under Article XVI.
Conference Average Compensation means the Conference Average Compensation as determined annually by the General Board of Pensions.

XV. Less Than Full Time Service - A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation (within the meaning of Article XIV) while serving less than full time.
- B. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions of Article XVII.

XVI. Membership Transferring - Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He or she may leave his or her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the benefit under this Fund will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with interest determined in the manner described in Article IX, determined from the date of transfer to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he or she may reinstate his or her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

XVII. Withdrawing From The Fund Prior to Retirement - If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference Treasurer, he or she shall receive the amount he or she has paid into the Fund, plus interest determined in the manner described in Article IX each year he or she was participating in the Fund. Amounts in the members account in excess of the amount determined under the preceding sentence shall be forfeited and reallocated as dividends for the year of forfeiture pursuant to Article VII.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference Treasurer with a statement indicating that he or she has received the funds for which he or she is eligible, and that he or she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination other than The United Methodist Church will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the formula set forth in the first paragraph of this Article XVII.

XVIII. Reinstatement - A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he or she were a new member.

A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his or her ministerial career.

XIX. Hearing Committee

A. The Committee - A Hearing Committee consisting of the Board of Pensions Executive Committee, Conference Treasurer, Director of Ministerial Relations, Conference Controller, and the Conference Insurance Group Administrator shall have authority to act on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, this constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund. The Plan Administrator for the Fund for other plan administrative matters and matters delegated by the Hearing Committee shall be the Conference Insurance Group Administrator. Determinations by the Hearing Committee, the Board of Pensions or the Plan Administrator shall be conclusive and binding on all persons and shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

B. Claims Procedure - If a claim is wholly or partially denied, the Hearing Committee shall furnish the member or beneficiary with written notice of the denial within sixty (60) days of the date the original claim was filed. This notice of denial shall provide:

- (1) The specific reason or reasons for denial;
- (2) Provide specific reference to pertinent plan provisions on which denial is based;
- (3) A description of any additional information needed to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such information is necessary; and
- (4) An explanation of the plans claim procedure.

The member or beneficiary shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of denial notice in which to make written application for review by the Hearing Committee. The Hearing Committee shall issue a decision on such review within sixty (60) days after receipt of an application for review as provided in the preceding sentence. Such decision on review shall be made in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant. All decisions and denials of claims by the Hearing Committee shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

XX. New Rules and Constitutional Provisions - The rules and guidelines of this constitution supersede all previous Conference legislation regulating this Fund. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of this constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment or modifying the benefit or any member who retired prior to the date of such amendment, unless the amendment expressly so provides.

The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the members benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

XXI. Miscellaneous Provisions

A. Prohibition Against Diversion - Subject to Code section 414(p), there shall be no diversion of any portion of the assets of the plan other than for the exclusive benefit of members and their beneficiaries.

B. Delegation of Authority - The Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and the Hearing Committee may authorize any agent or agents to carry out their duties, and may employ such counsel, auditors, and other specialists and such clerical, actuarial and other services as it may require in carrying out the provisions of the Fund.

C. Notification of Mailing Address - Each member and other person entitled to benefits hereunder shall from time to time file with the Conference, in writing, such persons post office address and change of post office address. Any check representing any payment due hereunder, and any communication forwarded to a member of beneficiary at the last known address as indicated by the records of the Conference shall constitute adequate payment to such person and be binding on such person for all purposes of the plan. The Conference, Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and Hearing Committee shall not be under any obligation to search for or ascertain the whereabouts of any such person.

D. Unclaimed Benefits - If any benefits payable to, or on behalf of, a member are not claimed within a reasonable period of time from the date of entitlement, as determined by the Hearing Committee, and if the member cannot be located at his or her last provided mailing address, such member shall be presumed dead and the post-death benefits, if any, under this plan shall be paid to his or her beneficiary if he or she is then living and can be located. If the members beneficiary is not then living or cannot be located, or if no beneficiary was effectively named, the member's account shall be forfeited and treated as dividends pursuant to Article VII.

E. Facility of Payment - Whenever, in the Hearing Committees opinion, a person entitled to receive any payment of a benefit under the plan is under a legal disability or is incapacitated in any way so as to be unable to manage such person's financial affairs, the Hearing Committee may, to the extent permitted by law, make payments directly to the person, to the person's legal representative, or to a relative or friend of the person to be used exclusively for such person's benefit, or apply any such payment for the benefit of the person in such manner as the Hearing Committee deems advisable. Any benefit payment (or installment thereof) made in accordance with the provisions of this shall completely discharge the obligation for making such payment under the plan.

F. Commingling of Assets - The assets of the Fund may be commingled in a common fund made up of such accounts or in a common fund with other amounts exclusively devoted to church purposes, provided that the part of such fund which equitably belongs to the plan shall be separately accounted for and cannot be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of employees and their beneficiaries. The reasonable costs of administering an account may be charged against the account. Such costs may include the reasonable costs of administering a retirement income program of which the account is a part, including costs associated with informing employees and employers of the availability of the program.

G. Governing Law - This plan shall be administered, and its validity, construction, and all rights hereunder shall be governed by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and by the laws of the State of North Carolina to the extent not in conflict with such Book of Discipline. If any provisions of the plan shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof shall continue to be fully effective.

H. Limitations on Liability - The Conference, Conference Treasurer, Board of Pensions and members of the Hearing Committee shall not be liable to any person or entity for any of their acts carried out hereunder in good faith and based upon the information available at the time.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

MISSION

Since 1955, the Mission of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. has been to:

- Provide professional investment management services for long-term funds of local churches, institutions, and ministries of the North Carolina Conference.
- Educate, encourage and receive planned gifts from individuals in support of their local church, institutions, and special ministries of the North Carolina Conference.

RELATIONSHIP

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. is an independent, non-profit corporation, related to the North Carolina Conference through the Board of Institutions. Strengthened by its faith connection and a rich tradition of excellence in mission and service, the Foundation serves only the churches, missions, agencies and institutions of the North Carolina Conference.

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

All funds entrusted with the Foundation are invested according to the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church as guided by the Statement of Investment Guidelines (Revised Edition 11/99) of the Investment Committee of the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church. The Consulting Group of Salomon Smith Barney provides the Foundation with investment consultation and management services. Seven professional investment fund managers, employed by the Foundation's Board of Directors and reporting to the Investment Consultant, successfully accomplish the day-to-day management of the Foundation's total assets.

While the Foundation's Investment Management Service provides valuable support for ministry throughout the Conference, the heart of the Foundation's mission is truly its Planned Giving and Endowment Building Services. These "donor focused" services provide specialized "technical" assistance helping individuals and their legal, tax and financial advisors accomplishing their benevolent goals.

Additionally, the Foundation serves as trustee for a number of Individual Family Endowments and various life-income Gift Plans with charitable remainders benefiting a variety of ministries within the Church. As Trustee, the Foundation is responsible to assure that all charitable remainder amounts and Endowment Fund earnings support the mission and ministry chosen by the donor.

The United Methodist Foundation welcomes opportunities to assist individuals and families wishing to create special gift plans that benefit their local church, Conference Institution or other ministry of the Church. The Foundation encourages local churches to strengthen their stewardship programs by including planned giving and endowment programs as a part of their overall stewardship program.

The Board of Directors and staff of United Methodist Foundation wish to express sincere appreciation to all Investment Partners for their ongoing support of the stewardship ministry of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Of special importance is the support from Conference, District and Church clergy whose leadership and initiative provide significantly to the Foundation's overall stewardship ministry.

ASBURY HOMES, INC.

The Asbury Homes continues its unique ministry with the physically and mentally challenged adult through a partnership with the North Carolina State Department of Mental Health. Goremont, the Tabor City facility, continues its caring ministry, in the name of Jesus Christ, to its 5 residents, family members, governmental regulators and the larger community. The St. Paul United Methodist Church in Tabor City provides an inclusive ministry in this local church's Sunday school, worship and fellowship opportunities.

The needs of the challenged adults in the state of North Carolina continues to grow in numbers in spite of the limited funding and shortage of group homes like Goremont in Tabor City. The next step for Asbury Homes in seeking to meet this need will be to establish a new facility in Pembroke. This new facility will be built in Pembroke through a cooperative agreement with the SEJ Native American Ministries (SEJANAM), the Native American Cooperative Ministries of the Robeson County and the Pembroke community. The Southeastern United Methodist Agency for Rehabilitation (SEMAR) is the jurisdictional agency of the church that is a resource for development, financing and operations.

SEMAR has been assisting Asbury Homes in obtaining a combination of interest free and below market loans for the interim financing until grants are received from foundations and US Department of Housing and Urban Renewal. Ground will have been broken for the new facility on May 25, 2002, with completion within the next 12 – 18 months. Applications for residency are now being received. The establishment of a second facility will require a change in the administrative structure of Asbury Homes that will be completed by the time the Pembroke facility is operational.

It is with a sense of deep gratitude that Asbury Homes expresses its appreciation for all the generous gifts that have enabled the Home to provide needed program extras and the special needs of the residents. We ask you to join us in praying for our residents as we give thanks to God for this opportunity to minister in the name of Jesus Christ which offers six-week courses and weekend seminars. And our many programs of continuing education provide the means for spiritual and intellectual growth needed by every person who serves in ministry.

A great education requires great resources.

The resources available to the Candler community are also those of Emory University. Candler is both a school of the church and a school of the university. Our students prepare for ministry in a vibrant intellectual environment, with internationally renowned degree programs in law, business, and health, plus specialized programs in ethics and the arts, to name a few.

All of those programs, besides the outstanding resources of the Emory University library system and its unique museum, combine Candler's academic and ecclesiastical contexts in a thriving urban environment, making this an extraordinarily fine place to prepare for ministry in the twenty-first century.

Yet the resources at Candler are distinguished in themselves. Most significant are the 56 members of the Candler faculty who are involved in teaching, advising, research, and writing. Several individuals are new to the faculty this year. Brent Strawn, who teaches Old Testament, previously taught at Asbury Theological Seminary. Thomas G. Long, who is the Bandy Professor of Preaching, is one of the most highly regarded preachers in America. Lewis Ayers, whose field is early church history, earned his doctorate at Oxford University and previously taught at Liverpool Hope University in England. Other new faces on campus include William B. Lawrence, Associate Dean for Development and Church Relations, who formerly taught at Duke Divinity School and most recently was Senior Minister at the National United Methodist Church, Metropolitan Memorial UMC, in Washington, D. C. Also new to our administration are Anna N. Hutto (M. Div. '99), who serves as Associate Director of Alumni Relations and Development, and Peter M. Paulsen, our Communications Director.

At the core of Candler's enduring resources is our outstanding library. This past year, the Pitts Theology Library reached a remarkable milestone in its growth. Among all theological libraries, Pitts is now the second largest in North America, with more than 500,000 volumes. During November, the staff and friends of Pitts Theology Library celebrated its acquisition of a Methodist hymnal from the 1730's as the 100,000th item in the library's special collections. Among the rare materials now available to scholars at Pitts are the thousands of items from the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation housed in the Richard C. Kessler Reformation Collection, tens of thousands of items from English Church history, and many more documents in Wesleyan studies, not least of which are in hymnody.

Financial resources are necessary, as well. As one of the thirteen theological schools in United Methodism, Candler is deeply grateful for the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF), which is apportioned to every one of the 36,000 local churches in the denomination and through which our students are connected to every United Methodist whose contributions support their study. About $1,500,000 comes to Candler each year through the MEF. In addition to that amount, approximately $1,000,000 comes from such sources as local churches and annual conferences whose gifts help fund external scholarships.

Yet, as sizable as those amounts might seem, they are only a small part of our total financial responsibilities. For instance, our students were awarded more than $8,500,000 in aid toward the cost of their education in the last academic year. Further, we are making plans to construct two new buildings on campus as well as to renovate a third. The collections at Pitts Theology Library continue to grow, and they require not only larger but also environmentally sensitive space. Bishops Hall, which was completed in 1957, requires a thorough interior reconstruction. Our student population is now 50% larger than it was when Bishops Hall opened as the main Candler facility. Our faculty has doubled since then. Construction costs alone for these new and renovated facilities are estimated to exceed $40,000,000. Increased resources for faculty development and student financial aid will have to be found. In the near future, new faculty will be added in the fields of Biblical studies, Wesleyan theology, and parish ministry studies. Through a planning grant of $172,000 from the Lilly Endowment Inc., we are laying the groundwork for a proposed graduate education program in practical theology.

The needs are immense and the challenges are great. But Candler is committed to building leaders who will, in the wonderful Wesleyan sense of mission, reform the continent and spread scriptural holiness over the land. We are grateful for your participation with us.

Russell E. Richey, Dean and Professor of Church History

DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRIES

Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries (DBOM) continues its history of exciting ministry in North Carolina. The marriage of DISCIPLE Bible Study, outreach ministry and lay empowerment changes lives both in the prison and in the pew. The positive impact on society cannot be overstated.

This year DBOM conducted DISCIPLE Bible Studies in 51 prisons ministering to more than 700 incarcerated men, women and youth weekly. In August more than 200 lay and clergy volunteers received training and certification at Jamestown UMC. The highlight of this event was a closing commissioning service led the authors of the DISCIPLE Study Manual, Bishop and Mrs. Richard Wilke. Our relationship with the NC Department of Corrections continues to be strong, and DBOM, in partnership with the UM Publishing House, offered DISCIPLE Bible Study training for NC prisons chaplains with 40 in attendance. A task force, comprised of DBOM staff, churches volunteers and ex-offenders, completed a training manual for the Faithful Friends Ministry. This ministry links ex-offenders who participated in DISCIPLE while incarcerated with mentoring groups in local churches for prayer, scriptural study and support. Recruitment and training for this ministry is now underway. In May 2001 and April 2002 Cross and Key fundraising banquets were held at First UMC, Cary under the direction of Dr. William Green.

This spring, DBOM began yet another exciting initiative. In partnership with the NC Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, DBOM is developing a program to teach the Bible to NC's youngest offenders. This new program will join Bible study, character development and aftercare support in a comprehensive effort to combat the tragic rate of recidivism among the boys and girls released from NC training schools.

In addition, DBOM continues to promote DISCIPLE in the local churches of NC providing scholarships to small-membership, rural and ethnic minority churches and serving as the conference liaison with the UM Publishing House. DBOM is working with Bishop Edwards and cabinet of the NCC to insure that every church will have the desire and ability to be involved in DISCIPLE Bible Study. We extend our appreciation to the NCC and WNC conferences, the Duke Endowment and churches and individuals throughout the state for their financial support. May God bless our efforts as more and more people are equipped and empowered to serve as Jesus' disciples!

DIVINITY SCHOOL OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

Professor Richard Lischer preached the anniversary sermon to highlight a year of activities for graduates and friends during our 75th Anniversary.

Enrollment was 475 students from 31 states and 10 foreign countries. Fifty-five percent of the students (62 percent of M.Div. candidates) are United Methodist. In fall 2001, the school welcomed the first group of 12 Divinity Fellows, each of whom is focused on a program of study leading to parish ministry.

Duke Youth Academy for Christian Formation held its initial two-week session, engaging 70 rising high school students of diverse races, cultures and Christian faith traditions in an intensive experience with Duke faculty.

Duke Institute for Care at the End of Life continues to make an impact with teaching, research and outreach on the "good" death in contemporary communities, including major conferences on African Americans and end-of-life care.

Pulpit and Pew, a four-year research project that focuses on strengthening the quality of clergy and lay leadership, released selected findings from the massive National Clergy Survey.

Bishop Kenneth L. Carder delivered the Hickman Lectures to highlight the annual Convocation and Pastors' School. The 2002 Convocation is set for October 14 and will feature Richard Hays and Roberta Bondi. Other Continuing Education highlights included the second Laity Weekend and an expanded Jameson Jones Lectures schedule. Twenty-four UM clergy graduated from the Reynolds Program in Church Leadership.

We look forward to continuing to prepare men and women for faithful and effective parish ministry.

GOLDEN CROSS

"Golden Cross" is a ministry that reaches out in love to the laity in our Annual Conference who are experiencing financial difficulty due to excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross, United Methodists care for members of our local churches in time of emotional stress and financial need. During 2001 we assisted 27 families from 9 of our 12 districts. Each one represented someone active in their local church. People just like each of us, who in a moment of struggle found means of grace and love coming from "their" church.

Golden Cross is a special ministry of love and care that reaches out across our Conference. Please remember that sometimes the needs that cross my desk challenge the funds we have available. In 2001 the Golden Cross budget was $26,912.31. We spent however $40,161.73. We were able to do that because we had a carry over surplus from the last several years. Obviously Golden Cross cannot continue to do this and this year I will more than likely have to deny some heartbreaking claims because of the lack of funding. This is where you can help. If you can, take a special offering one Sunday and send that offering to Golden Cross c/o Caroline Buckland, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605. Some of our churches have done that, and I would like to publicly thank those three who sent in a special offering to Golden Cross this past year. So a big thank you to Central, City Road, and Old Dock United Methodist Churches.

Now if I can just get the rest of our churches to do the same we will be able to meet the needs of some very special lay people in our United Methodist Churches.

NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The North Carolina Council of Churches has existed for more than sixty-five years to give witness to our oneness in Christ and to enable us to work together on issues of justice and compassion. Its members are the North Carolina judicatories of fifteen Christian denominations, along with six congregations whose judicatory is not a Council member.

Programs and ministries for 2001 included:

- Co-sponsoring "Time for Healing and Hope," an Interfaith Memorial Service following the attacks of September 11.
- Preparing worship resources for Public Education Sabbath and to commemorate the second anniversary of Hurricane Floyd.
- Opposing a state-run lottery and lobbying for programs which serve children, the elderly, people with disabilities, and others who often lack advocates.
- Issuing "The Elephant in the Courtroom," a report and adult education curriculum on the impact of racism on the criminal justice system.
- Engaging in research, education, and advocacy in opposition to the death penalty (in conjunction with People of Faith Against the Death Penalty, an affiliate project of the council).
- Supporting legislative initiatives which further racial justice, gender justice, and economic justice.
- Sponsoring the 2001 Legislative Seminar and publishing Raleigh Report to undergird the work of faith-based legislative activists.
- Training people of faith to respond to global warming.
- Publishing A Balm in Gilead: Health Care and the Church, a study guide for churches.

We are grateful for the contributions of United Methodists through the Advance Special and for the participation of many United Methodists in the Council's program committees and governing boards.

OUTDOOR & CAMPING MINISTRIES

When was the last time you toasted a marshmallow to perfection as others around the fire laughed and argued the finer points of s'more making? When was the last time you wracked your brain for all the words and at least some of the right notes to "Pass It On"? When was the last time you sat and listened to teenagers share about their relationship with God as the campfire died down and the crickets began to sing God's praises? When is the next time you will take some time out of your hectic life and revisit one of your four conference camps? Fond old memories and exciting new opportunities are waiting for you at Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee, Kerr Lake, and Rockfish.

One of the hardest of life's activities—self-assessment—becomes easier when we participate in camping and retreat ministries. Who am I? Why am I here? What do I know of God? What does God know of me? What is my next step? As a group, your board of directors has undertaken a self-assessment of our own as we enter our second decade of service and ministry in eastern North Carolina. Our task is to support, to resource, and to provide camping and retreat ministries for children, youth, and adults, a tradition that is as old as Methodism itself! And as we continue a process of strategic planning, it is our hope to lead camping and retreat ministries into the future with strength, with boldness, and with passion.

RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION 1: TO CREATE COMMISSION ON SMALL TOWN AND RURAL CHURCHES

Whereas, The United Methodist Church and more especially the North Carolina Annual Conference is a church that is made up of Small Town and Small Rural Churches;

Whereas, these churches not only make up the majority of our houses of worship but also pay the largest share of the Apportioned Giving;

Whereas, many of said Small Town and Small Rural Churches feel that the Annual Conference does not hear their voice;

Whereas, there is a growing dissatisfaction, with the response of the Annual Conference and General Conference, among our Small Town and Rural Churches, to their needs;

Therefore, be it resolved, that a "Conference Commission On Small Town and Rural Churches" be created by this Annual Conference.

Be it further resolved, that said, "Conference Commission On Small Town and Rural Churches" have a seat on the "Conference Connectional Table" with voice and vote, and that said seat is to be occupied by the Chairperson of said Commission.

Be it further resolved, that the duties of said Commission be, but not limited to, to address the issues of Small Town and Rural Churches and bring them to the "Conference Connectional Table" and recommend courses of action. Further duties being the oversight of Conference ministries as they relate to said small town and rural churches, calling the Conference to accountability as to those issues.

Be it further resolved, that said "Conference Commission On Small Town and Rural Churches" be made up of one lay person and one clergy person from Small Town or Rural Churches from each District. Said Commission is to elect its Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Secretary / Treasurer, or Secretary and Treasurer at the first meeting following the creation of said Commission.

Be it further resolved, that the "The Conference Council On Finance and Administration" adequately fund said Commission in the amount necessary for it to be able to meet once quarterly. With the first quarterly meeting of each new year to be held in a retreat setting to formulate legislation or other business to be brought to the next session of Annual Conference.

RESOLUTION 2: PROPOSING ACTIVE OPPOSITION TO RACISM AND DISCRIMINATION, AND ADVOCATING EVANGELISM OF ETHNIC MINORITY, MARGINALIZED AND POOR COMMUNITIES BY ALL LOCAL CHURCHES.

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has adopted the logo of "Open Hearts and Open Doors and has advertised this nationally.

Whereas, the 2000 Book of Discipline in the social principles specifically calls upon all United Methodist Churches and United Methodist's to be persons who welcome persons of Ethnic Minorities to full participation into our churches at all levels of ministry.

Whereas, the 2000 Book of Discipline plainly asserts that appointments will not be made with regard to race, color, creed or gender.

Whereas, there are many areas of the North Carolina Annual Conference where Ethnic Minorities such as African-Americans, are in the majority, but are for the most part totally absent in the congregations of local United Methodist Churches.

Whereas, the blight of discrimination, and in particular racism, is regularly placated rather than being confronted and eradicated as we profess with our campaign of "Open Hearts and Open Doors".

Whereas, in direct conflict with our 2000 Book of Discipline, the truth is, that in reality the doors of so very many of our Churches, are in fact closed to the participation of Ethnic Minorities at any level of ministry.

Whereas, the creation of "Token Box" Churches, rather than intense and active evangelization of the Ethnic Minority, Marginalized and Poor Communities is inherently discriminatory, as this sends the message that: 1) You are not good enough to worship with us, 2) That we do not want to worship with Ethnic Minorities, Marginalized and Poor Communities and 3) it is selling the Ethnic Minority, Marginalized and Poor Communities short.

Therefore, be it resolved, that the 2002 session of The North Carolina Annual Conference mandate that every United Methodist Church in the North Carolina Annual Conference begin the process of organizing and executing evangelism ministries for the minority communities in their larger communities as the whole.

Therefore be it also further resolved that the Bishop, Cabinet, C.F.&A., Multicultural Ministries, and the Board of Ordained Ministry be charged by this Annual Conference to formulate a means by which all United Methodist Churches and Pastors are held accountable for their ministry, or lack thereof in the poor and minority communities in their local areas. Said report to be returned to the 2003 Annual Conference for appropriate action by the Executive Session and the General Session of the 2003 North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

RESOLUTION 3: CONCERNING THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH AND MENTAL ILLNESS

Whereas, Jesus Christ came preaching, teaching and healing;

Whereas, our living Lord and Savior's ministry of healing and wholeness continues through the Church;

Whereas, the ministry of John Wesley, Methodism's founder, included a broad Biblical focus on healing;

Whereas, The United Methodist Book of Worship includes services of prayer for healing and wholeness;

Whereas, the Social Principles of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church affirms our responsibility to be in ministry with and advocate for persons suffering from mental illness and their families (162.G);

Whereas, the Social Principles of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church recognizes the role of governments in ensuring that each individual has access to those elements necessary to good health (162.T);

Whereas, the Social Principles of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church supports the basic rights of all persons to equal access to medical care (162);

Whereas, the United States Congress failed to resolve the parity issue between physical and mental health insurance coverage;

Whereas, the North Carolina State Legislature's Mental Health Reform Bill H831 will lower us from 40 county mental health centers to 20 regional HMO type mental health centers, called a Local Management Entity, over the next five years;

Whereas, these changes in our State's Mental Health budget and services will likely mean that only those with the most money, the best insurance, and the easiest to cure problems will get help;

Whereas, The National Alliance for the Mentally Ill (NAMI), North Carolina, the state's largest grassroots organization provides Education, Support, and Advocacy for mental health consumers and their families through 32 NC affiliates as well as on a national level;

Whereas, NAMI North Carolina offers Shirley H. Strobel's Creating a Circle of Caring: the Church and the Mentally Ill to equip churches for this important ministry of healing and wholeness for our suffering brothers and sisters;

Whereas, The United Methodist Churches of the NC Annual Conference need greater awareness of those suffering as mental health consumers and families;

Whereas, Christ's Holy Church is called to offer ministries of healing and wholeness to a hurting and broken world;

Whereas, our United Methodist Igniting Ministry states that we are a people with open hearts, open, minds, and open doors as the central part of its invitation;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the NC Conference Commission on Church & Society lead us in advocating for Congress to pass a bill establishing parity between physical and mental health insurance coverage;

Furthermore, We call upon the NC Conference Commission on Church & Society to lead us in advocating for our NC House of Representatives to budget more funds for better mental health services to a wider range of people;

Therefore, be it resolved, that Wellspring and/or the Office of Church Development offer regional workshops for local churches desiring to fulfill this timely call to ministry.

Thereby, equip people for service in ministry to their suffering brothers and sisters; to advocate for legislative measures that benefit and protect the mental health consumer and their families, and to become a provider of rehabilitation services, such as housing and social clubs. We would encourage using the workbook mentioned earlier from NC NAMI;

Furthermore, We call upon the District Superintendents, during Charge Conference, to ask what local churches are doing and/or plan to do in providing needed ministries to those mentally ill whom society is cutting short, and to plan and hold seminars that will inform pastors of services that available to their people.

Let us hear afresh I John 3:17 (NRSV), "How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?" as we ponder this great need in our state and ministry opportunity for us as United Methodist Christians.

ACTION: ADOPTED

RESOLUTION 4: NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE FUNDING OF NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES CHRISTIAN UNITY COMMITTEE PROJECTS

Whereas, the North Carolina Conference is fully committed to advancing Christian unity that is based on Christian truth and love; and

Whereas the Christian Unity Committee, of the North Carolina Council of Churches (NCCC), strives to foster and promote unity among the various Christian communions, denominations, and congregations of North Carolina; and

Whereas, the Christian Unity Committee of the NCCC is planning to organize, initiate, and complete projects that will engage, study and apply the faith and morals of the Church universal;

Therefore, be it resolved that the North Carolina Conference will make available funding for grants for specific projects, undertaken by the NCCC's Christian Unity Committee, that concern "the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 3) and Christian unity based on Christian truth and love. The total amount of funding for these projects shall not exceed $5,000 per year, and the funds shall be taken from the North Carolina Conference's Christian and Interfaith Unity Council monies. Grant proposals for NCCC project(s) will be received and considered, by the Christian and Interfaith Unity Council (CIUC) of the North Carolina Conference, during the years 2002 through 2005. CIUC will determine if the proposed NCCC Christian Unity Committee projects fall within the guidelines of this resolution and, if they do, how much they will be funded. No projects that are contrary to the current United Methodist Book of Discipline will be funded.

RESOLUTION 5: TOWARDS A JUST PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has deplored violence whether it is used by the state or groups; and...

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has stood behind the just claims for a homeland for the Palestinian people; and...

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has also been in favor of Israel's right to exist within secure and recognizable borders.

Therefore be it resolved, North Carolina Annual Conference deplores the current state of violence existing between the Palestinians and the Israelis and support our government's active involvement in diplomatic efforts to bring about the cessation of the violence.

RESOLUTION 6: OPEN HEARTS, OPEN MINDS AND OPEN DOORS

Whereas, The United Methodist Church during the fall of 2001 advertised itself as an open church through its "Open Hearts, Open Minds and Open Doors" campaign; and...

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has traditionally has had an open table for communion; and...

Whereas, there is a significant portion of the population in the United States that is either "unchurched" or "dechurched".

Therefore, be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church fully dedicate itself to the practice of "Open Hearts, Open Minds and Open Doors" and be open and welcoming to all whom seek Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, seeking to break down barriers that estrange or divide us, and encouraging all to Christian Perfection. And that is emphasized in our evangelistic and church development efforts.

RESOLUTION 7: WAGING PEACE

Whereas, Christians are called to be peacemakers and America is desiring peace in a troubled world; and

Whereas, Wars are raging in many places in this decade, and more unrest is ready to breakout; and

Whereas, our nation, the United States of America, is confronting these endless global unrests with military solutions;

Therefore, be it resolved that we the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church urge that a much greater effort, and much greater resources be directed to alleviating poverty and developing viable infrastructures in third world countries.

RESOLUTION 8: REACHING OUT TO CUBA

Whereas, the world communism threat is past and we have a peaceful relationship even with our former enemy North Vietnam; and

Whereas, Cuba is ninety (90) miles off Key West, Florida and well within range of our economic community for trade, and the embargo we impose serves only to diminish the lives of a weakened people; and

Whereas, Trade benefits would accrue to the US business community, especially our farmers and producers of food products as well significant improvements in the lives of the Cuban people;

Whereas, it is our Christian duty to contribute to better human relations in these troubled times, and the Cuban people would soon be our friends;

Therefore be it resolved that we the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church urge the United States government to lift the sanctions/ embargo against Cuba and move towards establishing diplomatic relations with Cuba once the following conditions are met: the government of Cuba agrees to hold free and fair elections and guarantees basic human rights, including freedom of speech, assembly and worship.

RESOLUTION 9: THE FREEDOM GOD GIVES

Whereas, the Triune God creates the human person in God's own image; and

Whereas, the human person, created in the image of God, has God -given dignity; and

Whereas, human dignity originates from the Creator and not from the created one; and

Whereas, human dignity includes the capacity for relationship with God in such moral freedom that the human will may be freely submitted to and ruled by God's loving will and, therefore, empowered to direct the emotions, desires, and bodily appetites to holy ends; and

Whereas, human dignity and freedom are undermined by individual realities (e.g. original sin) and by social forces (e.g. repressive governments and slavery); and

Whereas, the human person is fallen from God's original intention so that the person, no longer ruled by the Creator, is unable to control the emotions, desires, and bodily appetites (Article VII, "Articles of Religion"); and

Whereas, the Church's Holy Scripture teaches and history confirms that human life is disordered by sin so that the soul's aspirations and the body's appetites are in conflict with one another; and

Whereas, one is truly free only when one is freed from enslavement to or determination by the emotions, desires, and bodily appetites, and freed for joyful obedience to Jesus Christ; and

Whereas, God's design for human freedom, which was lost by human rebellion, can be restored only by the One who has the power and authority to give it in the first place; and

Whereas, the Lord Jesus Christ says, "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free," and "If the Son set you free, you shall be free indeed" (John 8:32, 36); and

Whereas, Jesus Christ enables the Christian person to live in the dignity of a grace-empowered freedom which brings into subjection, through sanctification, the unruly appetites of the body;

Therefore, be it resolved that we believe that our Savior, Jesus Christ, is also our Liberator from bondage to sin, for he alone restores the true freedom which coheres and conforms with original human dignity;

Be it further resolved, that we reject any notion of human dignity which teaches that such dignity is found in surrender to the passions of the heart and appetites of the body, rather than in the grace-given freedom and power to resist sin and to bring these passions and appetites under control.

ACTION: POSTPONED INDEFINITELY

RESOLUTION 10: CONCERNING THE EVALUATION OF MINISTRY

Whereas, United Methodists believe in the ministry of all Christians;

Whereas, we believe that ordained and lay ministry are called to minister and work together through healthy relationships in Christ;

Whereas, ministerial evaluation occasionally evaluates the ministry of the pastor and the whole local church;

Whereas, current research concerning church life in America and Biblical reflection upon what effective ministry is in light of Jesus' earthly ministry calls us away from the Church, Inc. approach and toward a Biblical, systemic, organic approach;

Whereas, the business model of the Church, Inc. approach does not build healthy churches, but instead builds unhealthy churches on human resources alone;

Whereas, churches built and/or operating from a Church, Inc. approach may appear successful outwardly, they often lack the marks of congregational health such as joy, unity, patience, and enthusiasm;

Whereas, beneath the veneer of functional standards for these congregations, they are often exhausted, under-nourished, and fearful with a worn-out pastor, a troubled parsonage family, and estranged associate pastors;

Whereas, the Church, Inc. approach adopts a mechanical view instead of a Biblical organic view of the local church;

Whereas, the Church, Inc. approach measures functions and crunches numbers, such number crunching often leads to people crushing;

Whereas, the Church, Inc. approach is not only unhealthy for the local church and its outreach, it also undercuts the Biblical integrity of pastoral ministry by reducing it to that of a professional service provider;

Whereas, many clergy and local churches seek the continuation faithful biblical ministry, our systems of assessment have made such ministry increasingly difficult;

Whereas, when the volume of activity becomes the measure of ministry for the sake of keeping the machine running, matters of interior transformation often go unnoticed and neglected such as the Biblical formation of the congregation's spirituality, attitudes, behavior, thinking, and relationships;

Whereas, instead of making the sick well, churches that do not also intentionally work on matters of interior transformation condemn themselves to catching the illnesses Jesus Christ commissions His Church to heal;

Therefore, be it further resolved, that the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry consult with the Section of Elders and Local Pastors of The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry to discover and use new tools for evaluating the ministry of local churches and pastors together from a systemic, Biblical approach.

THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN

In Service to God, our mission is to build upon the social, physical, emotional, and spiritual strengths of children, youth, and families and to affirm their worth.

The 2001 service year was a very productive and challenging year. Some of the milestones for our agency included:

- The opening of the Jordan Child & Family Enrichment Center.
- We served 217 youth in our group homes, 179 youth in our juvenile homes, & 263 youth in our foster care.

- We served 200 families in our In-Home Family Support/Preservation Services.
- We completed 26 adoptions and we have 65 adoptions in process.
- We expanded our family preservation services to include 13 new communities.
- We designed and implemented a “values-based model of care. The values adopted are Honesty, Empowerment, Compassion, Respect, Responsibility, and Spirituality.

- The announcement that MHC has been selected as the recipient of the United Methodist Association’s Organization of the Year Award 2002.

- The announcement that Mr. Bert Armstrong, MHC’s Vice President/Chief Development Officer, has been selected as the recipient of the United Methodist Association’s Public Relations/Development/Marketing Director of the Year.

We look to the future with the knowledge that there are many challenges facing the Methodist Home including:

- Staff Retention. A national workforce crisis is looming among child and family service agencies. It is essential to the success of MHC to retain direct care employees who are caring and capable.

- Covering the cost of care for our children has become a major challenge. The challenge has arisen as the State has greatly decreased their reimbursement rate for children in their custody.

We ask for your continued support and prayers as we seek to serve children, youth and families with the best quality services that are possible.

Michael W. Safley, President/CEO

THE STATE OF THE CHURCH ADDRESS

Moments ago, I called the annual conference to order. It is necessary that I use that gavel to do that, as your presiding bishop. However, at this time, I’d much prefer to speak to you, not as the presiding officer, but as your chief pastor of this episcopal area, the North Carolina Annual Conference. I call us beyond order to a spiritual community. The church is not an institution but a living body of Christ’s beloved. The reality we seek is the living Christ in our midst. We are here to be about God’s business: the business of the formation of God in our hearts. The business of shaping ourselves so that we become a moveable, spiritual feast as we go about our work. The business of shaping ourselves in that kind of manner. The business of reminding ourselves that what we do is no better than what we are in Jesus Christ

We have a spiritual center. Without that spiritual center, we descend into routine, into agendas, just doing what comes next. It is true for this bishop, for the cabinet, for pastors, for church committees. The temptation always for me is to become task-centered, agenda-driven and to neglect our baptismal right, our cross-shaped identity, our Pentecostal reality. Now that’s what Wellspring is all about. That’s the vision I had in mind at the beginning of this quadrennium when I talked about developing a great center of transformational spiritual leadership in this annual conference and Wellspring came out of that. It is something in process. It is not a finished product. It is not complete. It is not just for clergy but for laity and for local churches. The Wellspring flows, the cross is lifted up, the Holy Spirit descends. Where two or three are gathered, there is Christ in the midst of them! And I am far more interested these days in being spiritually formed as a bishop and as a cabinet, as pastors and laity than I am about doing the business of the church.

I call us to a new vision for all our life together: for every gathering of the people called United Methodists to be spiritually-laden. For prayer, spiritual meaning and learning, and loving community to saturate our common life. It seems to me that when a group of clergy come together at a district clergy meeting, that it ought to have a primary agenda and it’s not for the next meeting, or the next report but it is the state of our spiritual life and what is happening inside our churches and our ministry. For every meeting of local church and district and conference, leaders ought to be called to spiritual accountability. And out of that vibrant experience of Christian community, abundant life will flow in the mission of the church. Now we went around this conference, clergy did, and by district rallies and gatherings, for district bishop days apart with David Brownlee, our leader of the Wellspring ministry, talking to clergy about a new world opening up in the 21st century, about spiritual formation and rootage in the life of our ministry and we learned a great deal from what we shared and prayed about in those ventures but we have only begun this ministry.

This, my friends, is the heart of Wellspring. The story is told of a small child who begged for a huge portion of cotton candy at the fair. Her father asked, "Are you sure you can eat it all?" She responded confidently, "Oh, yes daddy, I'm bigger on the inside than I am on the outside." That is our destiny in the North Carolina Conference: to be bigger on the spiritual inside, to be stronger on the inside, to be sure on the inside so that our outward ministry can take on power and direction.

The invitation of the Wellspring is the formation of an inner compass, an inner rudder, that points us always, in everything, toward Christ Jesus. Near the cross, at the wellspring, we develop character, inward character, as followers of Jesus. Spiritual formation is the good new language we use to indicate that we build on the foundation of years gone by, of Christian education, of Christian nurture, to lean now even more toward God, to practice disciplines that welcome the forming of Christ in us, the hope of glory. No longer are we defined by the world around us. We are formed in Christ. Christ is formed in us. Our character becomes the character of Christ.

John Wesley expressed it in A Plain Account of Christian Perfection – "A Methodist is one who loves the Lord God with heart and soul and mind and strength. God is the joy of the heart and the desire of the soul. That one is happy in God . . . as one having a well of water springing up unto everlasting life and overflowing the soul with peace and joy." That's what Wellspring is all about. It is reminding clergy and laity that in the 21st century church, we must be formed inwardly if we are to claim outwardly the world of the 21st century.

Come to the water, a gift of Jesus Christ. It is a gracious invitation, this invitation we have embraced for this whole quadrennium. An invitation to come: for the first time, for another time. For a first touch, for a second touch. For a first healing, for a second healing. Listen to this water. It calls us again to Jesus. It is refreshing sounds of the wellspring, overflowing, ever-flowing, never depleted.

St. Augustine, in the first book of Confessions, described the limitless scope of God's goodness in this way. He wrote in this language, "O God, when you are poured out, we are filled, yet you are not diminished." Thanks be to God for this glorious truth.

Today we celebrate all the ways that God has blessed us, comforted us, guided us in the past twelve months. Before we moved toward God, God was moving towards us in these past twelve months. God decided to embrace us, to draw us into himself, to woo us, to forgive us, to redeem us, to sanctify us, to perfect us. God decided also to stay with us over these past twelve months. We have felt that close presence in extraordinary ways since we last met here.

On September 11, we are prone to say that everything changed. Some things did not change: The love of God did not change. The mission of the church did not change. The Igniting Ministry campaign was launched in September, proclaiming open hearts, open minds, open doors of United Methodist people. Little did we know the providential timing of this initiative. United Methodist Communications was quick to respond to the tragic events of September 11, altering the media messages to give comfort, invitation, and encouragement. Local church leaders - lay and clergy - responded quickly offering prayer vigils, gatherings for supportive Christian community. It has been said that a tragedy makes theologians of us all. The world turned toward the religious community. From the resources of the Wellspring, we respond.

Camille Yorkey shares work at Ground Zero.

Bishop, colleagues, friends, and guests - I never meant to write a book. I never meant to write an online journal that over 10,000 people would read. I simply meant to go to the conference office and say that my chemotherapy is over for a year, and my lymphoma is dormant. I'd like a job. My CAT scan is clear. I need to work. Two days later, when UMCOR called me from New York and said, "Do you want to be a volunteer chaplain?" I could only respond, "Here I am. Send me."

I made six trips to New York. I carried you in my heart each and every trip. The first 2 weeks I was there, I never even got inside of Ground Zero but ministry was everywhere. It was in everybody's mind, heart - on every door, on every corner. The first day, I stood on the street in front of one of our Methodist churches, on the street, at rush hour. My job was to smile at people and say, "How are you? Would you like to come in to the open door behind me? Would you like to come in and pray or talk?" And it was frightening. It was rush hour. Hundreds of people walked by and they looked at me like, "What? Are we on 'Candid Camera'?"

But the most comforting presence was the banner that stood on the street in New York City beside me, that said "Open Hearts, Open Minds, and Open Doors" a symbol of our Methodism, true Methodism, our Igniting Ministry program.

The first day that I went down to Ground Zero, I got off at the Brooklyn Bridge exit. Everything looked different. I had lost my perspective. I couldn't tell where I was exactly but I looked to my right and there was City Hall, heavily guarded I might add. A lump began to come into my throat. This is what I was here for. I don't usually walk up to police officers. In fact, I usually try to stay away from police officers. I'm always afraid they're going to catch me doing something wrong. Also, I'm such a pacifist that it scares me to see the guns and the billy clubs and the mace but I said, "Camille, God has called you here. This is why you're here."

I went up to those police officers and I put out my hand and I said, "Hi, I'm Camille Yorkey and I'm from North Carolina. I'm a chaplain and I just want to know how you are doing since September 11." I thought they might just shoo me on my way. They didn't. They each began to tell me exactly how they were and tears began to run down their faces. And this was NYPD. I didn't expect that. And so, tears began to run down mine as well and they said, "See the woman on the end? You need to talk to her. She was actually in the building as it collapsed." And I went down to her and she was young, younger than my children and I said, "Tell me." And she said, "Well, I was on the steps and I had been overcome by the smoke and I always knew I'd give my life to the NYPD but I just didn't know I'd be so young and that it would happen so fast when all of a sudden I heard the voice of someone up the stairs crying for help." And she said, "I don't know how I did it, on autopilot, I went back up and got the other person and together, we made it out together alive."

My friends, this is our Christian story, when we reach out to another from our very point of loneliness, lostness, darkness, brokenness and despair, that we too find new life. We find a new beginning from our own darkness. We are called to follow the example of that young, 24-year-old female police officer. As I wrote on the back of my card that day, the numbers where she could call me, the card was covered with gray ash.

There are hundreds of stories I have to tell. There's a story of a young man who was working for Cantor Fitzgerald, who was supposed to be on the 104th floor that day but he was on vacation. When I first met with him, he said, "Camille, look at my pictures. These are all from my 31st birthday party. This one's dead. This one's gone. This one's gone. This one's gone. This one's gone." Every person in his life was gone. Every person. He made more money in one day than I make in a month. He was handsome; he was young. He was a Duke graduate. And he had lost his life. He has a huge hole in his soul he is still trying to fill.

On another trip, I got to work at St. Paul's chapel. This is the most wonderful place. It's on the inside of Ground Zero and it's filled with the letters and fifteen hundred people a day, the workers, the police officers and the fire fighters, the construction workers, the other volunteers, the crane drivers - they would come there for respite care. They would see a smiling face; they could eat 24 hours a day. There were also a few chaplains there to listen to their stories. It wasn't hard for me at that time to take the cotton out of my ears and put it in my mouth as I listened, because I really couldn't come up with a lot of words of wisdom. It was a huge, huge job. I can only remember the words of Mother Teresa when she said, "I can't look at the crowds. I can't deal with the crowds. If I did, I would never know where to start. You only deal with one person at a time." Over and over.

It's true what Paul said to the Philippians when he said "All that has happened to me has helped advance the Gospels." I went to New York to Ground Zero as a broken vessel. I was a widow in my early thirties. I raised two children as a single parent, and I had hellacious teenagers. I even had hellacious step-teenagers. I went through a very difficult divorce and I had lymphoma. And yet, God used me. I didn't have any particular answers. I was just the vessel for the breath of God to flow out and accept the love of those who were speaking to me there. One of the doctors that was a volunteer from Hawaii came to me and said, "I look at the pit, Ground Zero, like it is a huge wound in our country and all of the volunteers and all of the chaplains, and all of the people who have written love letters are the white cells rushing to do the healing." That's true.

"Be not overcome with evil but overcome evil with good." There was a young woman sitting with a small bowl of something in front of her. I almost didn't go up to her to talk to her inside of St. Paul's because she was tall and skinny and that was intimidating enough, but she looked like she was huddled up and didn't want anybody there. By the way, I believe I was probably the only United Methodist chaplain to work inside of St. Paul's because it was very Episcopalian - high, high church Episcopalian. Oh, they would let me work in the services, they would let me read the scriptures. At one point, I actually did get to read the wonderful Moses scripture about the burning bush and we're standing on hallowed ground and as you looked around, truly this church was being the church and was very holy. But as I heard the story of this young woman, she was a conservator. She had several degrees from Columbia University and she was restoring the tombstones, the oldest tombstones in our country. And I got so wrapped up in her story that I forgot to say, "How are you?"

And when I asked that question, she said, "I got married just four days after Ground Zero," and the tears began to flow from her. "I had planned it for a year at the university and nothing could go as it was supposed to go." We shared her napkin as we both cried and I thought to myself, "Nothing goes in this life as we had planned it. It didn't take 9/11 for you to know that." She couldn't even have her reception. I asked her "Why not?" "Because it was supposed to be at Chelsea Pier" and that was being used as the temporary morgue. There are not pat answers; no perfect Christian sentences or words that can fix life's tragedies. Only the breath of God, blowing through each of us, just as we are, and embracing the one next to us, just like they are, will begin to heal our hurting world.

On another trip, I worked in the morgue. I guess the most frightening part was walking by myself at midnight (it was an all-night shift) to get to the morgue. I kept thinking, "God, do you really want me to do this?" I can't tell you exactly if I was praying that perhaps they wouldn't bring any bodies in that night or whether I hoped that they would bring in a lot of bodies that night so I could be of service. But the second that I stepped in there, I knew what to do. You would have known what to do as well. They were just people. In fact, the kids working in there, the NYPD, the EMTs are young and we wait and when they brought in a body bag, I had the absolute honor and privilege of reading the tag to the captain while the captain wrote down all the facts in the book of details. What an honor for our country and I carried you with me in my heart. There were fifteen that night. The very first memorial that I did, after it was over, I had said a prayer and had given what I thought was appropriate comments about this person's life and how they would be missed and the captain said, "Do you always wing it like that?" and I thought, "Oh no! What have I done wrong?" And then as we talked about it, 95% of all the workers at Ground Zero were Catholic and the others were Episcopalian and they read from the BCP and I asked them if they would prefer that I just read from the BCP, the few sentences and they said, "No, we like it just the way you did it. Keep doing it!" It was an absolute honor to work with them.

One young child was afraid of the "terrors" in the closet at night. And a therapist said to that child, "You need to get a flashlight and put it beside your bed and call it a ghostbuster and use it like a ghostbuster because terrors are afraid of the light." Isn't that just perfect? Terrors are afraid of the light. Isn't that just perfect! The darkness is always afraid of the light. The light of Jesus Christ that shines in us - we have our own personal ghostbuster at all times with us - to shine into the darkness because the light shines in the darkness and the darkness will not overcome it.

On my last trip, I had the opportunity to spend several hours with a young woman whose boyfriend had worked on the top floor in the Windows of the World Restaurant and she had just come down for the first time to Ground Zero. She was hysterical at first. It was a very difficult trip for her to make but as I listened to her whole story of their life together and the last few days together especially and the last hours, she was able to muster enough courage to walk out onto the ramp and to look out on Ground Zero, into the pit. I also walked with her to the list of names where all of the names were written on there. She took a picture out of her pocketbook and tears are running down her face, and she taped it up (we had brought some tape from St. Pauls). She taped it up next to his name on the memorial wall. She got out a pen to write a love note to him but her pen wouldn't write. And about that time, a big, burly man from behind us came up with tears running down his face and he just handed her his pen and just nodded. She nodded and only then did I notice that a whole crowd of people had gathered around us and they were there from all different cultures, all different backgrounds, from different countries but offering their support to someone in grief because we're all in this together. Our spirits are so connected.

As I worked in the morgue and I stood on one side of the gurney while the medical examiner stood on the other and the bag was opened to first determine whether these were human remains, and then if they were, they were given to the chaplain to bless and to pray for and to give hope to those who were standing there, I was so aware that before me on the table, there was no way to tell how much education that person had, what ethnic minority they may have been, the color of their skin or background, what was their sexual preference, whether they were Catholic or Jewish or agnostic or Hindu or Muslim, or even whether I was blessing a terrorist. There was no way of knowing. We are all spirit, only dressed in this body suit on a journey called life for a very short time and our spirits are in God's hands. Our spirits overflow to embrace one another.

The United Methodist Church knew how much after 9/11, we needed to be one body across this universe and they produced this beautiful spot that I'd like you to watch with me. Thank you so much for letting me share so much of my ministry with you. (Conference watches the video clip "Amen.")

BISHOP: Camille has written a book and I hope that it is on sale over at the Cokesbury and I encourage you to purchase it. One example of how we are reaching out as a wellspring church. But let's look nearby, here at home, we are engaged in significant ministry: Spiritual formation, discipleship, overflowing evangelism. This can happen and is happening in every local church, smaller and large, rural and urban, long-established or new. The measure of a local congregation is quality, not quantity. In fact, the secret to a vital, vibrant Christian community has long been the class, the band, the small group. In small congregations and in small groups within large congregations we have the glorious opportunity of living together toward God. My vision as your bishop is for thriving congregations, some naturally petite, small, some naturally of larger size. Each embracing its God-given character and mission. Let the word go out that The United Methodist Church, this bishop, this cabinet in North Carolina is committed to the small membership congregation. We are not in the business of closing those churches. We are in the business of helping them find vital, vibrant mission and ministry in their community.

A rich example of small-group life overflowing in mission is Disciple Bible Outreach Ministry. The dynamic is simple but very profound: Local churches form Disciple Bible Study groups, sometimes 12 persons, sometimes fewer, sometimes larger, persons in each of them. Then Disciple alumni become teachers in missional settings, such as correctional facilities across the state of North Carolina. Do you realize that we have Disciple Bible study in most every correctional institution in North Carolina now, between the east and the west conferences? I want you to listen to what happens when the Wellspring of life overflows through one of these Disciple Bible studies in one of our correctional facilities.

Otis Hardy shares Disciple Bible Outreach Ministry's impact on his life.

Thank you very much. I want to thank God for being here today. It's a great honor for me. Bishop, thank you sir. It is only by the power of the Holy Spirit that God can move people's hearts to be able to allow me to come here today and fellowship with you and I thank God for that. I appreciate you.

In 1998, I was minding my own business. I had things to do. I was comfortable with my life and this man came to visit me and his name was William Green. He'd come to me to talk with me about Disciple Bible fellowship and I was really intrigued, not by what he said to me but because of the way he presented himself to me. There was something about the man that really impressed me. I believe that there are people in your life, that you're going to run in contact with, that you're going to meet in your life, maybe you are sitting beside them, that have something in their life that you need and if you don't receive it from them, you're not going to be able to grow and be prosperous in your life. That's why you never turn a stranger away. The book of Hebrews talks about that. You could be entertaining an angel and not even know it.

So I was minding my business and this man talked to me and shared with me and I got myself involved in the Discipleship program. At that particular time, I was working in the Governor's Mansion. I was making a dollar a day. I was a chef for the governor and many of you may not have realized that. But I was successful. I was successful because I came to the idea that money was not being a successful tool in my life. The success in my life was that I knew that God had given me a gift and I wanted to know how to take this gift and implement it in this society of this generation. So I got involved in this group and this group became such a magnitude in my life, became to bless my life. I learned how to study scriptures; I learned how to fellowship; I learned how to deal with people. Now I say these things because I had spent 21 years in prison - 21 years. They took me out of prison and put me into the Governor's Mansion. I became the governor's personal chef. Praise God!

I appreciate your clapping your hands but there is a story about Jesus, that rode into Jerusalem and everyone was saying, "Hosanna! Hosanna!" The miracle about this thing was the donkey. The donkey never looked up because the donkey knew that they weren't talking about him. So I understand. But anyway, this life of mine became such an inspiration because of the Discipleship program. And you don't realize how important it is, when you see men going into institutions and into homeless places, going places where Jesus talks about "going into the deep." There are places that people go, now everybody may not be able to go and everybody may not be called to go, but we are called to do something or we may be called to go through something to get to where we supposed to be because I believe God has created each one of us all for a specific purpose. And when we find that purpose, we can be successful. If you never find your purpose, then you are not in your place and if you're not in your place, then you are misplaced and if you're misplaced, then you are in someone else's place. You are causing problems. So if you find out your gift and work with your gift and implement your gift, you can change lives because God has already given to you the power in you already to implement into other lives to change lives. Now God has done that.

There's many men each day talking ... I just come from a prison Tuesday night, and they were talking about the Discipleship Bible program - how good it was to them, how inspirational it was to them, although they don't stay in a place long enough, but they say that maybe only a week of it is all they needed. But even so, God has a purpose in people's lives so be faithful.

Continue on and do what you are suppose to do. You may not go to prison but you may have to drive a car to get someone to the prison. Or you may be able to write a check. You may be able to do whatever is necessary to be done. It is important that we all support this program and I admire The United Methodist Church, the First United Methodist Church in Cary, and the great works they are doing now.

Mark Hicks called me. Minding my own business again. He says he wanted me to come to this program tonight. I am a very busy man. I'm like a bee. A bee lives for eight weeks and he's busy every day of the week. I travel all over this country. I deal with all kinds of people. But yet, when he called, I knew I was supposed to be here tonight. It didn't matter where I was supposed to be because I knew God had ordained me to be here so I'm here. If I were anywhere else other than here, I'd be out of the will of God. And I've been out of the will of God all of my life and I don't want to be out no more. I want to stay as close as possible. Amen! Praise God!

But we need to understand that we all have a gift. We all have something that we can implement but the most important thing is that when we minister to people, we have to understand that we, as Christians, have two tongues. One tongue is in your mouth. It's what you say. You can say anything. But there's another tongue and it's the most important tongue, I think, and that's the tongue in your shoe. It's how you walk. People watch you. They watch the way you walk. You know, everybody talks. If talking could save and convert the world, everybody would be converted. But people want to know if you really believe, what type of life are you living, and do you really care. And when you go into the prisons, they want to know if you really care.

And if you can touch a life like that . . . that's why prisons are the most wealthy places on the earth because you've got men in there whose lives have been broken. They are talented. They are very intelligent. And all they need is somebody that's willing to say, "Send me." But that's all they're waiting for, for someone to say, "Send me."

Since that time, I teach Bible studies. I work closely with men. We just started a Bible study in the Catholic church and that's our aim and goal - to start it everywhere. And we want to work very closely with the Discipleship program to do whatever is necessary to get this message over to people. My service and my allegiance is for this group no matter where I'm at. So I'm available. And I just want to thank Mark and Chaplain Green, and thank God for the bishop for giving me the opportunity to come.

I just received a letter. First of all, I sit on five Boards of Directors, North Carolina Oral History Society at Duke. I am a person who goes to college - I will graduate next year with a Bachelor's degree and I work on numerous committees. I received a letter from Dick Cheney, Vice President of the United States and this is what he said. "I write to invite you to join the President and Mrs. Bush for a private dinner here in Washington, DC to ask you to serve as a representative of Cary, NC. In fact, a special of honor . . ."

You know, when Jesus fed the 5,000, we think that was a miracle. But that wasn't a miracle because he was God, so he was able to do that. This was the miracle. After everyone ate, Jesus told the disciples to pick up the scraps, pick up the fragments, pick up the Otises, pick up people in prison, pick up the scraps. God will pick up the scraps and do like a clockmaker. Your best clockmakers in the world are people that work with scraps - wood that people throw away. God bless you and thank you very much. I appreciate you and I love you.

BISHOP: And thank you, Otis Hardy. He almost makes me want to join up in prison. Great. Yet another example of how the wellspring of the Holy Spirit moves in a church, great things happen. Life together around the Wellspring is deep and rich and good. Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain, free to all, a healing stream. We need to give careful attention to our common life, the life we share as the church and the life we share in the world. We remember the times and ways that we have excluded one another. It is a part of our sinful past. We remember and repent of our acts of racism and injustice and prejudice. We know that there is no good future for The United Methodist Church in eastern North Carolina without forgiveness. We know that the truth sets us free. In this quadrennium, as we started, I cast a vision that the people called United Methodists in North Carolina, would learn and re-learn the story of our past, we speak the truth in love, we ask for forgiveness and receive this rich gift, and we move into the future God holds for us.

We are confident that Goodness is stronger than evil, love is stronger than hate Light is stronger than darkness, life is stronger than death.

We will use this chorus throughout our annual conference session as a reminder that the living water renews us long in our living and loving, just community with one another. Let us listen and remember:

Dwayne Alston portrays Richard Allen.

I was born the year of our Lord, 1760 on February 14, a slave to Benjamin Shoe of Philadelphia. My mother and father, and four children of us, were sold to Delaware state near Dover. And I was a child and lived with them until I was upwards of 20 years of age, during which time, I was awakened and brought to see myself poor, wretched, and undone, and without the mercy of God must be lost. Shortly after, I obtained mercy through the blood of Christ and was constrained to exhort old companions to seek the Lord. I was constrained to go house to house, exhorting my old companions and telling to all around what a dear Savior I had found. I joined the Methodist Society and met in class at Benjamin Wells in the forest in Delaware state. John Gray was the class leader and I met in his class for several years. I received permission from my slave owner, Stokely Sturgess to purchase my freedom in 1783. And I became an itinerant Methodist preacher.

While spending a few weeks in Philadelphia in 1786, I saw a large field, open and seeking and instructing my African brethren, who had been a long-forgotten people and few of them attended public worship. I wanted to find a place of worship for my African brethren who were in a forlorn state. In the mean time, we all attended St. Georges Methodist Episcopal Church on 4th Street in Philadelphia. When the colored people began to get numerous in attending the church, they moved us from our seats that we usually sat on and placed us all around the walls. On the Sabbath morning, we went to church and we got the seats and then the elder said, "Let us pray." We not been long on our knees before I heard considerable scuffling and low talking. I raised my head and saw one of the trustees taking hold of the Rev. Absalom Jones, pulling him up off his knees and saying, "You must get up. You must not kneel here." Mr. Jones replied, "Wait till the prayer is over." The trustee said, "No, you must get up now or I will call for aid and force you away." Mr. Jones said, "Wait till the prayer is over and I will get up and trouble you no more."

With that the trustee beckoned to another trustee to come to his assistance. They went to pull up William White but by this time, the prayer was over. We all went out of the church in a body and they were no more plagued with us in the church. With some of my own money which I saved from my chimney sweep business, I had my eyes cast on an old blacksmith shop on the corner of 4th and Lombard streets. I was able to turn that old blacksmith shop into the first church of our denomination and I called it Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church and I let the world know that just as our motto was then and as it still remains today, our motto is "God our Father, Christ our Redeemer, and man, our brother." This was Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, a place where my people could have a place to worship and feel at home. I'd like to introduce myself here today. My name is Richard Allen.

*Goodness is stronger than evil, love is stronger than hate
Light is stronger than darkness, life is stronger than death.
Victory is ours, victory is ours, through Him who loved us.
Victory is ours, victory is ours, through Him who loved us.*

BISHOP: Well, wonderful glimpses into the church at work as we reach out. As we come to the conclusion of this state of the church, as your bishop, I cast a vision in annual conferences past for our life together. At the last annual conference, you embraced by overwhelming vote five strategies for the 2001-2004 quadrennium. We are moving forward well, using these strategies. We haven't completed them, we are struggling and learning as we go.

It was what I called initially a center for transformational spiritual leadership. It has emerged as the quadrennium has unfolded in what we are calling wellspring. And out of the leadership over this past first year, as we have ventured into it, has been reconfigured as we begin a second year of emphasis. We will now have a leadership team of three persons that will be in place when I release appointments at the end of this conference. David Brownlee will continue as the visionary leader and head of what is called the large church initiative. We are bringing on board Branson Sheets as director of the small church initiative. He will remain 50% of his time as the pastor of Bailey and 50% of his time as leader of the small church initiative. Glenda Johnson, in her retired relationship, will have a part-time position as director of spiritual formation. I am grateful to Covenant church as a teaching congregation for midsize and larger churches and the Bailey Charge that will become a teaching charge for small membership churches and charges. And I'm glad that Glenda Johnson will be working with clergy and laity SEAL groups for study, enrichment, accountability, and learning; covenant groups, pastors and laypeople are going to be encouraged under Glenda's leadership to dig deeply and to be involved in covenant groups. Wellspring will be housed beyond the Methodist Building. It will be in the east. It will be in the west and the north and south. It will not be locked up in the Methodist Building in Raleigh and it will have a wonderful spiritual formation and focus as it leads us in new directions.

Now part of this that I want us to hear very clearly. This new leadership configuration is going to call special attention to small congregations, to the small membership churches. It is my commitment in the year ahead to convene gatherings across the annual conference to focus on ministry in small membership churches; to convene a series of rallies that will invite small membership congregations, members and pastors to come together for a special focus on how we can create vital vibrant ministries in small membership congregations. We are in the business of opening these churches up to great and effective ministry. Let the word go out that we are in the business of enlivening small membership churches, not closing them. That is the commitment of this vision. You'll want to know that through the office of congregational development, Steve Compton and others on his team have held numerous consultations in small membership churches of the past several years and will continue to do that. As your bishop, I am eager to encourage you, to listen to you, to provide helpful resources, to celebrate your ministries. And we look to Branson Sheets and his leadership as we move in this direction. And that's one of the great strategies of this quadrennium, this unfolding around Wellspring.

We also set another great strategy of 20 new missions in communities affected by poverty. We haven't gotten there yet but we are on the road. We are moving forward in the creation of new ministries in communities affected by poverty. Circle of Ministry has been formed for ministries among Hispanics in the Raleigh District, with Hector Millan as pastor and director and six new ministries flowing out of local churches. In the Rocky Mount District, Calvary Church has begun in the Clark Street Community with the anticipation of Circles of Ministry growing in African American communities in Nash and Halifax Counties. In the Greenville District, the Grimesland Hispanic Ministry grows, with the appointment of Jose Luis Zamora as director. These strong beginnings witness to the possibility of such ministries in areas affected by poverty in every district in this conference. The Methodist movement began among the poor, with the poor, by the poor. In the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the Methodist Church moved away from its roots. In the 21st century, in the North Carolina Annual Conference, let the word go out. We want to do faithful ministry among all God's people, including the poor.

Now another strategy we pointed out at the beginning of this quadrennium was to strengthen local churches for inclusive mission. I'm delighted to report though I don't have the actual numbers this afternoon, but of the 826 churches, many are reporting ethnic minority persons among their membership. Not as many as ought to be. There's still room to go but churches in every district are reaching out to children and families in new and just and creative ways. And it's encouraging to see that happen as we move across this conference.

However, there is much room for growth in this area. I observe too many churches who witness in the conduct of their life and mission, inclusion of a very few persons who are not like them. God help us to open those doors. A great living example of inclusive mission and ministry is flourishing in this conference under a project we are calling Hand in Hand, which is where we reach out to God's children in public schools of all types and we are delighted that Susan Pennock and others are helping us to develop this inclusive ministry among children of this annual conference.

We started this quadrennium with a continuing goal of 20 new congregations in this conference. Now we are moving towards that, we are working on it. We continue to be a leader in the United Methodist connection around the country in this regard. Thirtysome plus new churches since I arrived in North Carolina, not because I came but because you had this plan in place in your office of congregational development before I ever arrived. And I'm grateful that that ministry and mission continues.

And we're grateful that one of those newest ventures has been our collaboration with the General Church. Grants from the General Board of Global Ministries and the Native American Urban Initiative have boosted our capacity to do this. For example, the Triangle Native American UMC in Raleigh received $60,000 for the new congregation serving Native American persons in the Research Triangle. And if you looked carefully at the bulletin insert that you received for the Native American Ministries Sunday offering, you will remember that it included a picture of Sylvia Collins, with the children of this new church. This was used all across our denomination.

Now the final thing that we developed at the beginning of this quadrennium was finding and developing sources for mission and ministry, financial resources. I talked about a committee of 100. I think we've pretty much abandoned that particular vocabulary but I am delighted to report that we have a wonderful new foundation that has been created with the office of congregational development in cooperation, where we are seeking to uncover financial resources from people in this conference who are able to give and it is beginning to happen in wonderful new ways. I sent a letter out recently to 25 people in our annual conference, asking them to join me in the creation of this group of people who will help us develop financial resources and I am receiving a wonderful response to that. It's happening all over the place.

For example, we sent forth an episcopal letter asking for your response in the collection of blankets. Over 42,000 blankets were collected, and over $130,000 was given. Stop Hunger Now, with offices located in Raleigh, helped us, worked this out, and helped this to happen. Now we have a new ministry to Afghanistan, Student to Student, in collaboration with NC Public Schools. All of these resources, teaching kits for the children of Afghanistan are being stored at the MERCI Center in Goldsboro and in the Western NC warehouse.

It's exciting folks, it's happening. John Wesley said, "If your heart is as my heart, give me your hand." That is our outlook as we seek to maximize resources for Christ's mission in the world.

In conclusion, I share my joy at the progress we are making together and my hopes for dreams yet unrealized. We press on together, near the cross, by the wellspring because we have decided to follow Jesus. The old hymn says it well. Let us stand and sing:

*I have decided to follow Jesus. . .
The world behind me, the cross before me. . .
Though none go with me, still I will follow. . .*

THE UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

At the end of calendar year 2001, Croasdaile Village reached an average census of 98% occupancy. This was a significant achievement for this 457-unit continuing care retirement community, and now Croasdaile Village is entering its stabilization period. Construction is now complete; the enclosed pool opened for use during the summer of 2001.

For Cypress Glen Retirement Community in Greenville, the year 2001 marked the completion of reconstruction from the devastating effects of Hurricane Floyd. It was a year of continuing hard work and rebuilding. Over 52,000 square feet of apartments and health center units were destroyed on the first floor of Cypress Glen. The abatement and reconstruction effort has taken close to two years to complete at a cost of $3.5 million. Unfortunately, the community carried only $1 million of flood insurance since it lay outside the 500-year flood plain. Cypress Glen was able to secure a $1.5 million low-interest FEMA loan, but still the community had to use $1,000,000 of its own cash reserves to complete the reconstruction. Despite the turmoil of reconstruction, marketing efforts were successful, and at the end of 2001 the community reached a 95% sold status. Cypress Glen also recently achieved Medicare certification in its health center.

Wesley Pines Retirement community in Lumberton once again achieved a deficiency-free state health center inspection, which is an achievement that has now occurred five years running. The Board of Directors of The United Methodist Retirement Homes approved moving forward with the development of a 24-unit affordable housing project on the Wesley Pines campus. UMRH has applied to the North Carolina Housing Finance Administration for tax-credit financing. A $300,000 grant from The Duke Endowment, Rural Church Division is supporting this endeavor. This is an important step in fulfilling UMRH's strategic plan to provide affordable housing alternatives for senior citizens in eastern North Carolina.

Last year, UMRH extended its management contract with Quail Haven Retirement Village in Pinehurst. Currently, the community is completing a conversion of its assisted-living beds into a skilled nursing facility. The renovation is expected to be completed in the spring of 2002, and the residents are looking forward to this new level of care.

The Board of Trustees approved a plan to embark on a capital fund raising campaign to raise $6 million dollars by the end of year 2003. The theme of the campaign is "Responding to an Aging Society – The United Methodist Retirement Homes Heritage Campaign". The goal is to increase the benevolence endowment fund, raise monies for certain capital projects at each retirement community, and secure risk capital for the development of low and moderate-income housing. In October of 2001, the campaign moved from its silent phase into its public phase. At the end of the year, UMRH successfully raised $2.7 million in commitments.

Despite continued reductions in federal and state reimbursement for nursing and health care costs, The United Methodist Retirement Homes provided a combined $1.4 million in charity care for independent, assisted-living, and Medicaid skilled nursing residents during year 2001.

UNITY DIALOGUE

In the 1998 State of the Church address at Annual Conference, in the midst of a denomination polarized by issues related to homosexuality, Bishop Edwards shared deep longing and strong hope that the laity and clergy of the North Carolina Conference would live in unity with one another in the midst of our divergent opinions on homosexuality. Having participated by invitation in the General Church Dialogue on Theological Diversity in The United Methodist Church, Bishop Edwards brought both the vision and the experience to lead the North Carolina Conference in a process of dialogue. He urged all laity and clergy to stay in conversation with one another around the table; he gave four imperatives: 1) follow the teaching of Jesus, 2) study the teaching of John Wesley, 3) live humbly and gently with one another, and 4) remember the directive of The Discipline that all persons are of sacred worth. The Annual Conference, later in the 1998 Session, called for the facilitation of these conversations and for strong participation by annual conference members in the unfolding process of dialogue.

Twenty-six persons were invited by the Bishop to lead in the work of the Unity Dialogue. The purpose of the Unity Dialogue was articulated in this way: "to design and to put in place district sessions primarily for the lay and clergy members of Annual Conference in which dialogue will be used to explore issues of theological diversity, especially as this diversity expresses itself in the issue of homosexuality. At the center of this process will be careful examination of the church's teachings and positions and careful listening to all in attendance."

The Unity Dialogue worked to design and put in place a process for dialogue across the annual conference. Regional dialogues were held in the spring of 1999 in Fayetteville, Greenville, Wilson, and Graham, gathering over 800 persons for worship, teaching, testimony, and dialogue. Following worship and Bishop Edwards' teaching, each gathering featured a panel witnessing to diverse experience in relation to homosexuality and break-out sessions for small group response and dialogue. Bishop Edwards, in the 1999 State of the Church Address, urged the annual conference to "stay at the table" of worship, teaching, testimony, and dialogue. A new Unity Dialogue group of 16 persons was put in place with the charge to resource districts, local churches, and individuals who are led to explore these issues more deeply. The focus to the Unity Dialogue continuation group was clear: 1) to provide resources dealing with the authority and interpretation of Scripture around this issue, and 2) to provide resources for helping local churches and pastors to develop ministries with homosexual persons and families consistent with the Church's position outlined in the Social Principles.

Delayed in 1999-2000 by Hurricane Floyd and record winter blizzards, the Unity Dialogue resumed its work in March, 2000, and has continued to meet for worship, teaching, testimony, and dialogue. Meetings of the Unity Dialogue have been devoted to Bible study, reading and discussion of A Plain Account of Christian Perfection by John Wesley, and working together through the United Methodist resource, The Church Studies Homosexuality.

In the 2001-2002 conference year, the Unity Dialogue has continued to worship and to work together at one table, embodying and exemplifying faithful effort to be in dialogue. The Unity Dialogue now humbly offers this witness to the North Carolina Annual Conference: Places of agreement that may ground and guide our life together toward holy conversation: 1. God loves and pursues all people. 2. Jesus Christ welcomes all to grow as Christian disciples in communion with his body. 3. To the honor and glory of God in Christ, we seek to know, to speak, and to serve the truth in love. 4. Conversation, dialogue, and even disagreement, if conducted patiently in the spirit of truth and love, is "Christian conference" (Wesley) and as such can be renewing for The United Methodist Church.

The Unity Dialogue offers encouragement to local churches to continue the dialogue: In the winter of 2002, lay and clergy leaders at University United Methodist Church in Chapel Hill planned and carried out a series of six sessions during the Sunday school hour by using The Church Studies Homosexuality. The series was offered within the membership of the church without wider publicity, yet experienced participation at the level of 150-230 people weekly. While there was not unanimity of opinion on the issue of homosexuality, there was a deep sense that this effort was of God's leading and a powerful experience of Christian conferencing. The series revealed the need for pastoral care and an ongoing group for persons led to explore these issues more deeply. University Church, and other churches that have studied and dialogued over homosexuality, offer to share, as invited, their experience of visioning, planning, offering, and evaluating.

Commitment to continue holy conversation at one table with the oversight of Bishop Edwards, the Unity Dialogue participants affirm the importance of this work. Gatherings of the Unity Dialogue are projected to take place two or three times in the next year. As you have input for this process and desire to participate directly, you are invited to contact Paul T. Stallsworth and Laurie Hays Coffman, co-chairs of the Unity Dialogue for 2002-2003.

The Litany For the Faithful Departed Rev. Benjamin

Leader: Let us pray responsively: Holy God, we pray for Your human family everywhere;

People: That we may be one.

Leader: For the gift of all the lives, which have touched us and helped to make us who we are, who have finished their course of faith, and now rest from their labor;

People: We give You thanks, O God.

Leader: For our departed brothers and sisters who have faithfully served as ministers of the gospel in the North Carolina Annual Conference; who have taught us with their words, led us with their lives, and helped to knit us together in one fellowship of Christ.

People: We lift our hearts in gratitude and praise.

Leader: For those faithful companions: mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, daughters, sons, husbands, wives - who have shared our love and our lives, who worship You before the throne of Heaven;

People: We give thanks and praise.

Leader: O Holy God, have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

People: That they may be delivered from their distress.

People: Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Leader: We praise You for all Your saints who have entered into joy;

People: May we, encouraged by their example and strengthened by their fellowship, be partakers with them of the inheritance of the saints in Your Heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reverend Albert Dewitt Byrd, Jr., 72 of Calypso, died Sunday afternoon, July 15, 2001 at Southeastern Regional Medical Center in Lumberton, NC. He was the son of the late Albert D. and Ruth H. Byrd.

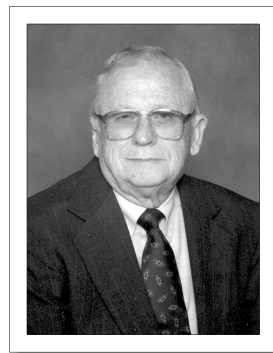

From 1950 until his retirement in 1991 he was a faithful and dedicated United Methodist pastor with a passion for evangelism and missions as he served churches in the Wilmington, Fayetteville, Elizabeth City, Raleigh, Durham and New Bern districts of the North Carolina Conference. While pastor of Plymouth United Methodist Church in the Elizabeth City District (1958-1962) and pastor of Whiteville United Methodist Church in the Wilmington District (1962-1966) he initiated and led district preaching Missions with Dr. Harry Denman of the General Board of Evangelism as evangelist. In 1968 he traveled with Dr. Wilson Weldon (Editor of The Upper Room) to Japan, Korea, Vietnam, Indonesia, the Philippines, Australia, and Hawaii on behalf of The Upper Room. While pastor of Weldon United Methodist Church in the Rocky Mount (1971-1974) he led the Key '73 Preaching Mission for the Weldon-Roanoke Rapids area for which Dr. Wilson Weldon was the evangelist.

Throughout his ministry he was strongly committed to the mission and outreach ministries of the Church which resulted in outstanding stewardship response from the churches he served.

Following his retirement in 1991, A.D. and his wife Rose, returned to the town of his birth, Calypso, where they lived until a few weeks prior to his death. He is survived by his wife, Rose Anderson Byrd of Wesley Pines United Methodist Retirement Home in Lumberton; daughter, Rosemary and her husband, Clifford Stalter, of Chattanooga, TN; and sons Albert DeWitt Byrd III of Ft. Lauderdale, FL and Timothy Byrd of Wilmington, NC; brothers Reverend Nathan Byrd and his wife Jackie of Banner Elk, NC and the Rev. Dougla Byrd and his wife Carolyn of Raleigh, NC.

A service of death and resurrection was led by the Rev. Dr. Paul Leeland, Rev. Roger Paxton, and Rev. James T. Weaver, Jr. on July 18, 2001 at First United Methodist Church, Mt. Olive. Burial followed at the Calypso Cemetery in Calypso after which family and friends gathered at the nearby family home in Calypso.

The Family

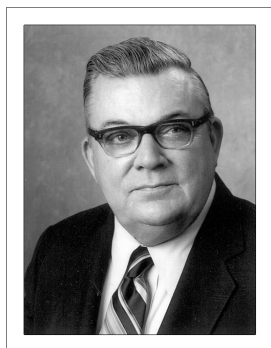

HERMAN STANFORD WINBERRY

1923 - 2001

Herman Stanford Winberry was born January 8, 1923, in Verona, NC (Onslow County) to Spencer Lee and Hattie Morton Winberry, the second of three children born to them.

His parents and family were active members of Hallsboro United Methodist Church, where Herman as a young person felt the call of God to preach the Gospel. A fine Christian man who was Herman's Sunday School teacher had a profound influence on his life, as did Dr. Cecil Robbins who was pastor of his parents' church in Mt. Olive.

After graduating from high school, Herman attended Duke University where he received his B.A. degree in 1945 and his Master of Divinity degree from Duke Divinity School in 1948. He was introduced by a mutual friend during a wedding rehearsal to Christine Crawford, who was DCE at Broad Street Methodist Church in Statesville at the time. She became the love of his life and agreed to marry this young pastor with the deep, resonant voice and wonderful sense of humor. Herman's love for his beloved "Chris" only deepened and grew in the 51 years of their marriage: what pride and joy he found and expressed in their companionship. They were blessed with two children, Stan and Lisa.

As a member of the North Carolina Conference, Herman served many appointments from 1947-1988. Upon retirement, Herman was honored as Pastor Emeritus of Chestnut Street UMC in Lumberton, a title he carried until his death. In his retirement years, Herman served several churches parttime, including: Asbury UMC in Lumberton; Trinity and Olivet in Fairmont; St. Paul in Maxton; St. Paul in St. Pauls. He also served as Chaplain of Wesley Pines Retirement Community in Lumberton.

Herman enjoyed good health most of his life, but during the last three years he suffered from Pulmonary Fibrosis. He spent the last six months in Wesley Pines Retirement Center, and he died at Southeastern Regional Medical Center in Lumberton on August 1, 2001.

A Memorial Service celebrating the Christian life and faith of this remarkable man was conducted on August 4, 2001, at Chestnut Street United Methodist Church in Lumberton. Burial was in Gardens of Faith Cemetery in Lumberton.

Herman is survived by his wife, Christine C. Winberry, of the home; son, Herman S. Winberry, Jr. of Greenville, SC; daughter, Lisa W. Claydon and husband, Tim, of Jacksonville, NC; grandchildren, Justine Elkert of Asheville, NC, Kristen Elkert, two great-grandchildren of Jacksonville, NC; a sister, Marie Shaw of Durham, NC and a brother, S.L. Winberry of Louisburg, NC.

This greatly loved pastor and Christian leader was known as a man of prayer. He had a very special love for the people he served, for his family and for his Savior, Jesus Christ. He found his greatest joy in seeing persons give their lives to Christ. He was held in great love and respect by his peers and all whom he served as pastor, youth leader or District Superintendent. The hallmark of his ministry was found in his frequent admonition to his preachers while serving as a District Superintendent. Following the practice of John Wesley himself, Herman frequently and enthusiastically exhorted "Offer them Christ!"

WILLIAM ADDISON CROW

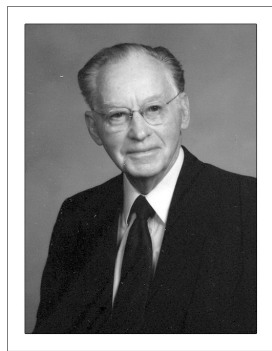

1902 - 2001

William Addison Crow was born to Ella T. Smith and Ernest D. Crow on November 25, 1902 in Grafton, West Virginia, and died on August 12, 2001 at First Health Moore Regional Hospital in Pinehurst, NC.

Bill completed his bachelor of arts requirements at Florida Southern, graduating in 1932. He left Florida to travel to Durham, to attend Duke Divinity School. Over a period of four years, he met the final academic standards for the ministry, and was awarded the BD degree in 1936. His first episcopal appointment was at Portsmouth-Ocracoke.

While attending Pastor's school at Duke in the summer of 1939, Bill met a young school teacher from Trinity in Randolph County named Loise Massey. The two were married October 28, 1939. Bill brought his new bride to Grimesland to become a homemaker in an old wooden house that had outlived its usefulness. He divided his time between patching the house after a fire, and preaching at Grimesland, Salem, Wharton and Providence churches.

In the winter of 1949, Bill started preaching at the old historical church in Elizabethtown, Wesley Chapel, and at Clarkton and Bluefield. He greatly appealed to teenagers and soon built a large following of older youth in the downtown church over a two-year period. In 1954 he moved to serve in Warrenton at Wesley Memorial Church along with Macon, Warren Plains and Hebron.

Bill was a confidant to preachers, and listened to anyone else sharing a problem with him. Everybody knew that Bill enjoyed people, playing golf, gardening, making picture frames and writing volumes of reminiscences and letters. His contact with those who came to see him and others he met along the way provided an opportunity for Bill to share his faith and give encouragement. An example of his voluntary spirit was his assistance to the Conference Secretary during Annual Conference sessions, an attitude of helpfulness he continued to maintain.

What most people did not know was that Bill kept a private prayer list and lifted those names daily to the throne of grace; that he constantly read theology and classical works along with the holy scriptures until his sight dimmed and Loise took up the task of reading to him daily. In every aspect, Bill was patient in life and equally long suffering during those last few days when his vitality ebbed, and he went to be with the Lord whom he served and obeyed.

Bill is survived by his wife, Loise of sixty-two years; a son, William Ernest, a daughter, Elizabeth and another son, David. He also has four grandchildren, one great-granddaughter and a hosts of friend.

ROBERT S. PULLMAN

Rev. Dr. Robert Stanford Pullman was born in Durham, North Carolina, November 1, 1932. He was the son of Percy S. and Zena S. Pullman. His maternal grandfather, John Frazier Starnes, was an elder in the North Carolina Conference.

Robert received numerous academic awards throughout his academic career beginning in first grade. He graduated, salutatorian, from Durham High School in 1951 and then with high honors from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1956. In 1959, he received a B.D. degree with honors from Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia. He also received the Doctor of Sacred Theology degree from Emory University in 1973.

Robert grew up in the Asbury Methodist Church in Durham, where he was active participant in both the children's and youth programs. He was confirmed there on March 25, 1945. In July 1953, he felt called to the ministry and was ordained an elder at the North Carolina Annual Conference in 1961.

During his entire ministry, Robert supported all areas of the Boy Scout Program. In 1990 he was presented a medallion and citation during a Religious Award Program at Trinity UMC in Red Springs. The award honored his selection for the God and Service Award for Adults and was approved by a national committee, P.R.A.Y., in St. Louis, Missouri.

In June 1998, Robert retired from St. James United Methodist Church in Newport. At the 1998 North Carolina Annual Conference, St. James was the recipient of the Key Taylor Award for its mission outreach programs.

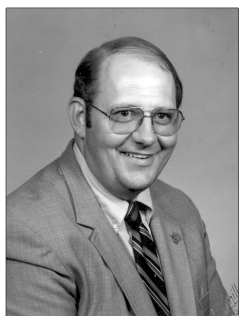

Robert was grateful for being a United Methodist minister and always found his ministry to be rewarding. He served as chairman of the Conference Board of Worship, was a member on the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, and was secretary for the Continuing Education Committee. At the time of his death, he was on the Board for the Asbury Homes and the Board for the Southeastern Reading Radio Program. He stated in his retirement speech at the 1998 Annual Conference that, to paraphrase Jimmy

Stewart, "It's been a wonderful life."

On September 22, 2001, Robert died at Rex Hospital in Raleigh, NC. He had become ill while on a cruise to Bermuda. The cause of his death was bacterial endocarditis. His funeral was held at Southern Pines UMC with Rev. Dr. Mark Wethington, Rev. Dr. Kermit Braswell and Rev. Rufus Butner officiating. Burial was at Bethesda Cemetery in Aberdeen.

Robert is survived by his wife Margaret (Peggy) J. Eton Pullman. In addition to Peggy, he is survived by a brother and sister-in-law, Edward and Carol Pullman; nephew, Robert of Chula Vista, CA; two nieces, Mrs. Cynthia Pullman Allan of Fairfax, VA, and Mrs. Marnie Pullman Wade of Manassas, VA and four great-nephews.

Peggy Pullman

1947 - 2001

Worlise (Worley) L. Knowles, Jr. born August 27, 1947 to Matilda (Tilley) and Worlise L. Knowles, Sr. of New Bern, NC. Worley had one brother, Rodney Lee Knowles and a sister, Elizabeth J. Knowles.

Worley grew up in New Bern and graduated from New Bern High School in 1967. Upon graduation he went to Chowan College for one year. He came back to New Bern and began his law enforcement career with the New Bern Police department as a City Policeman and remained with them until he applied with the North Carolina Highway Patrol in 1974 and became a State Trooper stationed in Tyrell County, Columbia. He stayed in Columbia until 1976 and then transferred to Carteret County, NC. Upon his retirement in May of 1999, Worley went back to college and got his Associate Degree in Criminal Justice.

Worley was married to Martha Slann in November, 1970. They had two children Emily A. Knowles and Worlise L. Knowles, III. His wife Martha died of cancer in 1984. In April of 1993 Worley married Loretta and they made their home in New Bern.

Worley's love for the Lord and wanting to spread the Good News of Salvation, the call came on his life to become a pastor in 1997. He completed the process to become a local pastor and in June 1998 he was assigned to the Verona United Methodist Church. He served as pastor there until June, 2000 when he was assigned to the Trenton/Maple Grove Charge and served until he went home to be with the Lord on September 23, 2001.

Worley is survived by his wife, Loretta, and his two children, Emily K. Morris and Worlise K. Knowles, III; two grandchildren, Kaitlyn Morris and Jacob Morris.

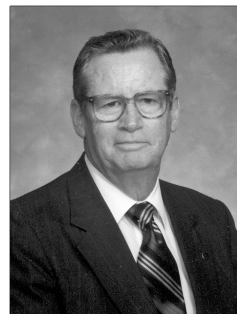

CLARENCE E. O'BRIANT

1926 - 2001

Clarence was born December 31, 1926 in Durham, North Carolina to Clarence and Eunice O'Briant.

He graduated from Magnum High in May 1946. Upon graduation from high school he attended Wingate College and furthered his education and graduated from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1960 where he received a Master of Divinity degree.

Clarence, for a number of years was the Education Director for several Baptist Churches before coming into the Methodist Conference in 1973.

Everyone who knew Clarence, knew him to be a very gentle and loving soul who loved people. He was a good shephard to every church he pastored. He loved his Lord most of all and serving God was his reason for living.

As a husband and father, he was the very best! He loved his family deeply and we are looking forward to the day when we will be reunited with him in heaven. Until then we will continue to run the race with faith. Clarence's life was an example for all who please, praise and worship God.

He is missed here on earth, but heaven has gained a gentle and loving soul. Praise God - Amen.

Ruth O'Briant

WAVERLY D. LAMB

1926 - 2001

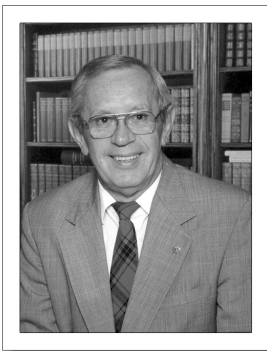

Waverly D. Lamb was born to Joseph and Ruby Lamb of Henderson, NC on December 29, 1926. He grew up as an active participant in City Road United Methodist Church in Henderson. It was in his home town that he completed high school and married Margaret Parrot on April 28, 1944. This marriage produced two sons: W.D. and Ted.

Doug served in the US Navy and owned a dry cleaning delivery business until God saw fit to use him in Christian ministry. He served a number of churches from 1968 until the present until his health required him to retire.

Waverly D. Lamb was a loving and faithful husband, father and friend to many. He labored diligently in the church. Some of the happiest days of my ministry was having Doug serve with me as Minister of Visitation.

He never served a large membership church, but he served in large ways. Being a member of the local ministerial association was a priority for him. He served as president of the association in Havelock and longed to see the church involved in meeting the needs of the poor community. He labored diligently and faithfully wherever he was assigned until our Father call him home on November 18, 2001.

EMERSON MCLEAN THOMPSON, JR.

The Rev. Emerson McLean Thompson, Jr., 70, of Greenville, died at home on December 19, 2001 as a result of renal cell carcinoma.

Em was born in Raleigh on December 3, 1931, the son of the late Emerson McLean and Grace Neathery Thompson. He grew up in Burgaw, NC, where his parents served as educators. He felt the call to ministry while attending Louisburg Assemblies at Louisburg College in 1948. He graduated from Duke University in 1954 with an A.B. in English and he earned a bachelor of divinity from the Duke Divinity School in 1958. Em was ordained a Deacon in 1956 and an Elder in 1958. Em met his beloved wife, Catherine T. Thompson, on June 9, 1953 while both were serving as camp counselors at Camp Don Lee. They were married exactly three years later on June 9, 1956.

For 40 years he faithfully preached the Word and ministered to many congregations across the NC Conference. He served as trustee of Methodist College from 1977 to 1985, and as a trustee for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. from 1986 to 1996. Em loved to tell jokes and he always had a funny story to share. His humor along with his faith in God and his love for his family and friends, sustained him through his illness and death. Laughter had a soothing and uplifting effect on his spirit, and he loved to share smiles and laughter with others.

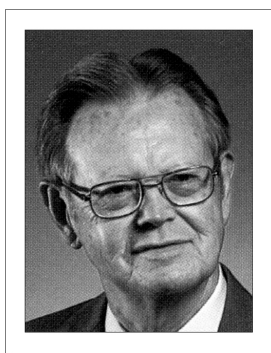

In addition to his wife, Catherine, Em is survived by his daughter, Catherine T. Rockermann and her husband Brian F. Rockermann, of San Jose, California; two sons, Emerson McLean Thompson III and his wife, Ellen B. Thompson of Charlotte and David S. Thompson, M.D. and his wife Katherine S. Thompson of Kitty Hawk and the six most awesome grandchildren in the world. Em is also survived by his brother and sister.

One of Em's greatest joys was the privilege of baptizing each of his grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, December 22 at Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church. Rev. Carol Goehring and Rev. David Goehring officiated the service and Bishop C.P. Minnick read scripture, offered a prayer and a personal reflection. Pallbearers were the district superintendents with whom he served, and a quartet of those district superintendents sang a medley of hymns.

"Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master." Matthew 25:21, NSRV

Catherine T. Rockermann

KERMIT R. WHEELER

1912 - 2002

Kermit R. Wheeler graduated from Berea Academy, Barton College and Duke University Divinity School. Forty years of ministerial service followed in the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. He is survived by his two sons, David Wheeler of Marietta, GA and Charles Wheeler of Winston-Salem, NC; nine grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Kermit served as a Methodist minister for 60 years and was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Mount Dora. During the World War II, he conducted funerals for many sailors whose ships had been sunk by submarines Cape Hatteras. Those sad experiences caused him to always to encourage the young members of his churches not to waste their opportunities. He would insist that it's never too late to start and that no door is totally closed.

He was a member of the Mount Dora Masonic Lodge and Mount Dora Kiwanis Club. He also served as a member of the United Methodist Board of Pensions, as trustee of Louisburg and Methodist Colleges.

Later in his ministry there were large congregations and many honors, but nothing was as significant to him as introducing someone new to his church. Soon after his retirement in 1978, he began his second career as visitation minister for the First United Methodist Church of Mount Dora.

After a stroke in 2001 Kermit let it be known that "getting old is not for sissies." And then he added, "I'm sure glad the good Lord doesn't like me so much that we have to be together right now." His newest homily was "old ministers never retire; they just bring in new members."

Kermit passed away on February 19, 2002, along with his humor and his service to others. He will be remembered.

SAMUEL D. MCMILLAN, JR

1934 - 2002

Dr. Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., 67 died in North Myrtle Beach on May 28, 2002. He served the Lord and His church for 43 years through the North Carolina Conference.

Sam was born in Jacksonville, Florida on June 1, 1934, the only child of Samuel D. McMillan, Sr. and Flora S. McMillan. He married Frances L. Bellamy of Wilmington, NC on June 16, 1956. Together Sam and Fran had four children and six grandchildren. countless friends through their service in churches in eastern North Carolina.

After graduating from New Hanover High School in Wilmington in 1952, Sam attended Duke University, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in History in 1956 and the Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1959. He was awarded the Doctor of Divinity degree by Methodist College in 1983.

Always full of joy and energy, Sam shared his love of Christ with fellow clergy and devoted laity during his life as a minister of the Gospel. His family and friends were greatly impacted by his high ideals, Spirit-filled vision and Christ-centered love. His laughter and enthusiasm were contagious, and he leaves a wonderful legacy of joyful and purpose-filled living.

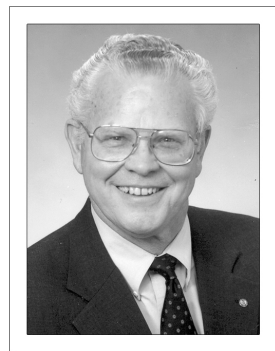

Sam served with distinction in a variety of ministry settings. In addition, Sam will be remembered for his devoted service to youth across the conference, his work on the Board of Trustees at Methodist College, chairing the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry and the Commission on Camping and Outdoor Ministries, and his service on the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Christian travel was a high priority in his latter years of ministry, and he led many tour groups to the Holy land and other destinations. At the time of his death he was the Regional Director of Educational Opportunities, a ministry devoted to travel for Christian pilgrims.

Sam is survived by his wife, Fran, of the home; son and daughter-in-law, Mack and Paige McMillan of Wake Forest; daughter and son-in-law, Elizabeth and Harrison Smith of Grand Forks, ND; daughter and son-in-law, Sara and Cary Perkinson of Garner; his beloved grandchildren; Cameron Smith, Duncan McMillan, Forrest Smith, Hannah McMillan, Kenneth Perkinson and Lane Perkinson; a brother-in-law and his wife, Walker and Jean Bellamy of Clinton; and a nephew, Dennis Bellamy and his family of New Bern.

A memorial service was held a White Plains United Methodist Church in Cary and Inurnment was held in the Oakdale Cemetery in Wilmington.

CATHERINE P. DRAPER

1946 - 2001

Catherine Poindexter "Cathy" Draper was born in charlotte, North Carolina on February 10, 1946, the daughter of the late Reverend R. L. Poindexter, Jr. and the late Eddis Tallent Poindexter.

Upon graduation from High Point University, Cathy was married to the Reverend Dr. H. Dennis Draper, Jr. on July 15, 1967. To this union were born two sons, Howard Lee Draper of Elizabeth City, North Carolina and Robert Lee Draper of Melbourne, Florida. In January 2001, Cathy became the proud grandmother of a beautiful granddaughter, Riley McKenzie Draper, who resides with her parents, Rob and Tracey Draper. Cathy loved her sons and proudly followed their accomplishments. In the spring of 2001, she was in "seventh heaven" as she spent two months with her son, Rob and his family, taking care of her new granddaughter.

Cathy followed Dennis through 34 years of marriage and ministry across the North Carolina Conference. They served together at Mamers in Harnett County; Star in Montgomery County; a special appointment at the Halifax County Mental Health Center in Roanoke Rapids, while at the same time they helped at Spring-Lebanon-Garysburg in Northampton county; Hawkins-Tabor in Halifax County; the Kenansville Parish in Duplin County; Saulston in Wayne County and at Plymouth in Washington County. In each place she actively backed her husband's ministry by singing in the church choirs, often teaching Sunday School and Bible School and more often than not had the Children's Sermon. When there was a church dinner, Cathy could be counted on to be right in the middle of all the activities cooking, decorating and doing whatever needed to be done. Cathy was actively involved in the work of the UMW everywhere she went and even served as Secretary of the Rocky Mount District UMW. With Dennis she served on the Conference Secretary's staff, first as a typist and later as the corrector of grammar for the Conference Secretary's staff at Annual Conference.

Cathy had a great love for her Lord and for his children. Besides her family and her church, as a High School English teacher Cathy influenced the lives of an untold number of youth for 30 years wherever she and Dennis lived. Wherever Cathy and Dennis served, she made friends throughout the church community. As she journeyed through life, by example she modeled the Christian life to countless people where she and Dennis lived.

In late May of 2001, Cathy suddenly became ill with what first appeared to be pneumonia and was admitted to Washington County Hospital in Plymouth. As her condition worsened she was transferred to Pitt County Memorial Hospital in Greenville where she was diagnosed with Acute Respiratory Distress Syndrome. Shortly before five o'clock on the morning of June 27, 2001, Cathy joyfully went to her home with the Lord she loved and had so faithfully served all her life.

A Service of Life, Death and Resurrection was conducted at Plymouth United Methodist Church in Plymouth, North Carolina, on June 30, 2001 by her friends the Reverend Dr. Bruce D. Taylor and the Reverend Dr. James L. Bryan. Interment followed at Cedarwood Cemetery in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina.

Cathy is greatly missed by family and friends, but she has joined her Lord in the Church Eternal. Through her Christian influence, Cathy touched countless lives.

ANNIE P. MILLER

1909 - 2001

Annie P. Miller was born June 28, 1909, in Cheraw, South Carolina. Known as Lorene to family and friends, she was the fifth of nine children born to Eugene B. and Hughla J. Poe.

Lorene married George D. Miller. They lived in Columbia, SC, mostly, though she spent a few years in Chicago, IL. George gave her the nickname that would stick with her a lifetime. Lorene had long hair that she braided each night, and lying down in bed she sometimes threw the braids over the pillow. "You look just like a rabbit, a bunny rabbit," he teased. From thenceforth he called her Bunny.

Always a churchgoer, Lorene attended several congregations in her life:

Nazarene, Wesleyan, Baptist and Methodist. She said it didn't matter as long as you loved and worshiped God and Jesus, His son. In 1982, wanting to be near their children and grandchildren, Bunny and George moved to Florida. They lived in a little community called Palm Lake Village and joined the First Christian Church of Dunedin.

Lorene Miller was my grandmother. She loved two things above all else: God and her family. When she met a stranger, she told him or her about God, talked about her family and made a new friend. She wasn't always able to go to church in her 80's and 90's, but she watched TV preachers and made notes on their sermons. She had power of prayer like no one I know. We know that when Grandma prayed, God answered and loudly.

I am so thankful that God let me get to know her as more than a granddaughter, but also a friend. We shared "happy meals", jokes, secrets, prayers, and life lessons. Even though she is no longer with us, memories of her life and our times together will still be inspirational for me.

Debbie Price, granddaughter

PAULINE (POLLY) T. ETHERIDGE

Our mother - beautiful, kind, gentle and loving, an inspiration to all who had the privilege to know her.

Pauline was born to Lula and William Taylor August 1, 1912. She was an only child. She married Cicero Etheridge. Cicero was ordained a Baptist minister and later accepted into The United Methodist Church. Pauline traveled all over North Carolina to different churches her husband pastored. She loved being a preacher's wife, always meeting different people. Her whole life was revolved around the church.

Pauline had six children, three boys, John Etheridge of Wilson, NC, Dr. Richard Etheridge of Mobile, AL and William Etheridge of San Angelo, TX. Three girls, Esther Edmondson of Tarboro, NC, Judy Dixon of Bethel, NC and Joyce Reale of Long Island, NY. Pauline was happy to brag about her 14 grandchildren and her 24 great grandchildren. The family reunions were a sight to behold.

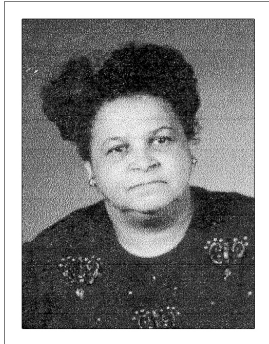

Pauline moved back to Wilson, NC when her husband died in 1978. She became a member of The First United Methodist Church in Wilson, NC. Her pastor was the Rev. William Presnell. She was very active in her church. She belonged to so many clubs that she was busy almost every day. She stayed active in most church functions until her late 80's. She enjoyed singing in the choir and being a member of The XYZ singers.

On July 21, 2001 Polly was ready when God said it's time to come home. She lived a beautiful full life. She was just two weeks shy of her 89th birthday. Up until the very end of her life, she still dressed to-a-tee. She had her hair styled and her nails polished. She always wore jewelry and a scarf.

Her funeral was held at Shingleton Funeral home in Wilson, NC. The service was conducted by William Presnell and she was laid to rest at Evergreen Memorial Gardens in Wilson, NC

Until we meet again, with all our love forever,

Tom, Harry, Esther, Judy and Joyce

ALMA B. CRAVEN MCCRAE

1902 - 2001

Alberta was born June 10, 1902 in Randolph County. She was the daughter of Rev. William and Sallie Craven. She died on September 5, 2001. Funeral services were held at John Wesley UMC in Fayetteville. Rev. Jesse Brunson officiated.

While attending Bennett College she met her future husband Rev. R.B. McCrae. They were married in 1926 while he was pastor and she was teaching in her hometown of Ramseur, NC. She accompanied Rev. McCrae when he continued his education at Gammon Theological Seminary and on all his pastoral assignments which included Ramseur, Goldsboro, Franklin, Mt. Pleasant, Winston-

Salem, Hamlet, Charlotte, High Point, Reidsville, Forest City, Maxton and Fayetteville. He also served as DS of the Laurinburg District.

Though she was never blessed with her own biological children, Aunt Alma took a special active interest in the educational development of her nieces and nephews. For several years she had responsibility for the care of a niece who was physically and mentally challenged. In her professional life she taught for 45 years in many elementary schools in North Carolina. 16 of those years were in special education. She painstakingly gave herself to children with special needs in and out of the classroom.

Alma retired from teaching in 1968. She continued to reside in Fayetteville where she had lived for several years. She taught a Sunday school class, directed the "Keen Agers", a group of senior women singers, worked on expanding subscriptions to the Christian Advocate, was active in ministers wives organizations, Church Women United, the United Methodist Women and continued to participate in a variety of other meetings for her Church and the Conference.

She loved the Methodist church and John Wesley UMC in particular. Deteriorating eyesight and failing health forced her to curtail her participation in its programs.

Aunt Alma is survived by a nephew, three nieces, a large number of great-great nieces and nephews. All of us miss her though we realize that her love continues to shine through our lives and her wisdom continues to influence our thoughts.

MARIE R. MOORE

1910 - 2001

Marie Reel Moore was born January 21, 1910 to the late George M. Reel. and Beatrice W. Reel of Bayboro, NC. She died November 19, 2001 at Sunbridge Care and Rehabilitation for Mount Olive in Mount Olive, NC. A graveside service at Pineview Cemetery near Seven Springs was held on November 21, officiated by Dr. Don Gordon. She was preceded in death by her husband the Rev. Virgil N. Moore and a sister, Dorothy King in 1998.

My mama and dad began their ministry with the North Carolina United Methodist Conference in 1959. They served Woodington-Webb charges in Kinston, Seven Springs charge in Seven Springs, Turkey charge in Turkey and Aulander/Coltrain charge near Ahoskie.

Mama and Dad always spoke of themselves as country preachers and I have many special memories of weddings, worship services, homecoming meals and visiting members during times of illness and death. My parents' loving and gentle spirits spoke of their love for God and their commitment of preaching the "Good News" of the Lord Jesus.

Mama wrote her living testimony in three books, "Visions of Glory", "Along our Pilgrim Way" and "My Summary of the Gospels". In her memorial testimony she wrote, "What mercy, what infinite love and divine grace finds expression here at Thy cross! Such an hour of seeming defeat and despair, but only an hour. There is glorious sequel! He intercedes for all, "Father, I will that they may behold my Glory." "What a vision of glory to behold! My glory will be simply to share His glory!"

My mama gave me the best gift of any parent and that was a Christian home. I shall miss her smile and twinkling blue eyes and her voice saying, "Honey, I love you."

She is survived by one daughter and son-in-law, Jane and Malcolm Mervin; one grandson, Chris of Charlotte; one sister, Mabel Bynum of Wilmington, and four nieces and nephews.

Jane Moore Mervin

SARAH L. MASON ROMINES

1922 - 2001

Sarah was born August 8, 1922 in Mecklenburg County. She passed away at Pitt County Memorial Hospital in Greenville, NC on December 2, 2001.

Her "Celebration of Life", was held on December 9, 2001 at the Brogden United Methodist of Dudley by the Rev. Bob Kretzu and Rev. Craig Langston. Louise was a member of the Falling Creek United Methodist Church of Goldsboro, but also attended Brogden United Methodist Church of Dudley. She was laid to rest beside her first husband, Rev. Clarence P. Mason at Spring Hill United Methodist Church in Lillington, NC.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, Rev. Clarence P. Mason, and her second husband, William B. Romines; a son, Clarence D. Mason and one brother, Robert McCarver.

She is survived by two daughters, Rebecca T. Young of Citrus Heights, California, and Brenda Brown of Clinton, NC; seven grandchildren, two great grandchildren, six brothers and sisters.

Mother continued to reside in Goldsboro, NC. She loved the community and the people and felt very much at home. She was a minister's wife for twenty-eight years and continued to serve in the nature of the calling even up until her death. She was a very loving and caring individual who radiated beauty all around her. Mom's utmost faith was in the Lord and it was shown in her contacts throughout the community. Three of the most important days in the week to her were Sunday, where she would try to attend both services at the two churches, Wednesday Bible study and Fridays when she would go and visit the sick in nursing homes.

Mom was not only a minister's wife but she was a wonderfully devoted mother. She was always full of charm, highly intelligent, very energetic, talented, loved baseball and her favorite team was the Duke Blue Devil basketball team. She taught us to be strong and of good courage. We loved our mother and cherished every minute that we had with her. She provided the road map of life for us to follow, by praying with us, reading the Bible to us when we were growing up and of course going to church.

I not only called her my mom but my closest and best friend. As we all try to carry on after her passing, it will be the most challenging cross for us to bear, for she will be missed and remembered by everyone that knew her.

Her favorite Bible verse that she lived by was: Isaiah 26.3 "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee."

Rebecca M. Thomas-Young

Charles Treihart and Susan Elizabeth Treihart met in July of 1946. We married in January 1947 and had four daughters, eleven grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

She supported my ministry call up until death. Her walk was godlike; her voice was godlike; her temperament was godlike. She was the epitome of Proverbs 31 and Colossians 3:12. She founded Brouland Homemakers Club as their first President and her popularity was overwhelming.

She was cremated January 3, 2002. A loving wife and mother, she will be missed by her family and friends.

Rev. Charles Treihard

EDITH M. MANESS

1913 - 2002

Edith Mae Hill Maness was born January 11, 1913 (the same day as Richard Nixon she often reminded us) in Ritchie County, West Virginia, the daughter of Hosea and Myrl Hill. Edith died January 8, 2002, at Harborview Healthcare Center in Morehead City, North Carolina. A memorial service was conducted by the Reverend Homer Morris at First United Methodist Church in Morehead City.

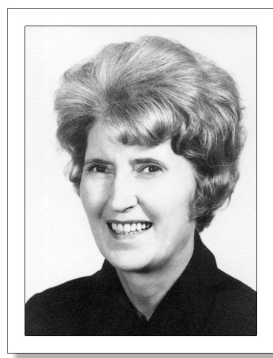

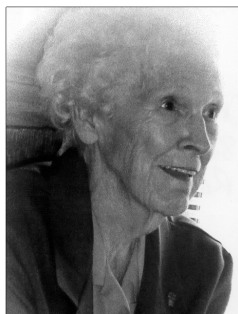

On Christmas Eve, 1931, Edith was married to Paul R. Maness, a Methodist minister in the West Virginia conference whose father had been a North Carolina Methodist minister. After the births of Paul Wesley, Myrl, and Beth, the family moved to North Carolina where our father served the Oriental, Mount Olive, and Garysburg charges before being stricken with ill health in his fifties.

Mama started working for the J.P. Stevens textile mill in Roanoke Rapids where she was given the city's 1969 Mother of the Year Award. She was admired for her unselfish service to her church and community, her faith and courageous handling of her family's welfare during my father's long illness and subsequent death, and the death of her only son who as a college student was killed in a hunting accident, and for her unbelievable optimism and sense of humor in spite of the personal tragedies.

Throughout my father's ministry, he and Mama brought to live in our various parsonages, my paternal grandmother and her blind brother, two youths who were victims of an alcoholic father, and a nephew and a niece whose parents were divorced. Thanks to the sewing and moneysaving abilities (mostly self-sacrificing on her part), my mother was able to send two daughters through college.

When my girls' basketball coach in Oriental left before the school year, Mama was persuaded to take the team using the abilities she had learned on her own high school team in West Virginia. Typically, she was late for Christmas dinner at our home one year because she had delivered food baskets to twenty-five indigent families by herself when her church partner fell ill. Mama was kind, compassionate, and nonjudgmental toward everyone, even those the rest of us found intolerable. When her house burned down after my dad was forced to retire, contributions of money came pouring in, mostly from former church members they had served, enough to rebuild the small bungalow they had lost.

Mama is survived by two sisters, Gertrude Elder in Elyria, Ohio, and Freda Hardman in Winter Haven, Florida; three grandchildren; Wesley Paul McCotter in Bradenton, Florida, Michele Andrews in Madison, Alabama, and Shannon McCotter in Chester, Virginia; six great-grandchildren, Brittany, Caitlin, Joshua, Noah, Courtney, and Hannah. Her daughter Beth resides in Southern Pines and my husband Bill McCotter and I reside in Morehead City.

MARY M. HOBBS

1938 - 2002

Mary R. Hobbs was born on August 10, 1938, in Winston-Salem, NC, and was the daughter of Henry and Emma H. Russ. The oldest of three children, Mary graduated from Reynolds High School and went on to attend and graduate from Women's College in Greensboro, NC where she received her teaching certificate in mathematics.

On a summer trip to a Methodist Student Conference at Lake Junaluska in 1957, Mary met a young pre-ministerial student from Clinton, NC. On August 21, 1960, she and Jim Hobbs were married at Ardmore Methodist Church in Winston-Salem and after Jim's last year at Duke Divinity School they set out together as servants of the Lord and The United Methodist Church. Together they served over a span of forty years in various appointments. Their life together was blessed with three children - Katherine, Lynn and Mary Elizabeth and two grandchildren, Sarah and Emily.

Mary loved to sew and teach. She made all the children's clothes when they were young and taught math for a number of years in the state school system. She was also a very active participant in the program of the church especially in the work of The United Methodist Women and Conference Ministers' Wives. She loved singing in the choir, children's ministries, and did volunteer work for many years with the Girl Scouts. She gave unselfishly of her time, her energy, and her cheerfulness. Even after she became ill, Mary was known by all who visited her for her beautiful smile and uplifting spirit.

Mary died on February 10, 2002 at Duke University Medical Center, after a long struggle with multiple sclerosis. A memorial service was celebrated on Friday, February 15, at Croasdaile Village Retirement Community, officiated by the Rev. Milton Hadley and assisted by the Rev. Denise Waters and Dr. Wilson Nesbitt. A brief service for interment was led by the Rev. Rodney Hamm on the following day at the Clinton Cemetery in Clinton, NC.

Mary Hobb's life was one full of love for her family and service to God and to others. Thanks be to God.

MAYDEAN E. BLANKENHORN

1922-2002

Maydean E. Blankenhorn, wife of Rev. Richard Blankenhorn, died on February 26, 2002 in Raleigh, NC following a stroke. She was living in Fuquay-Varina where Dick was pastoring the First United Methodist Church. The funeral was held on March 1, 2002 at her church in Fuquay-Varina conducted by Dr. Kermit L. Braswell, Rev. Robert M. Poulk and her grandson, Rev. William H. Allen IV. Burial followed in Oakwood Cemetery, Raleigh, NC.

May was born on June 29, 1922 in Ravenden, Arkansas, to Lura W. Eaton and Benjamin H. Eaton. She met her husband while working and attending college in Memphis, TN. They married in Arkansas in 1944 and after time spent in Arkansas, Wisconsin and Illinois moved, with their four small children, to North Carolina where they began their life in the ministry in 1954.

While serving churches in eastern NC (Harlowe-Oak Grove, Dover, Asbury) May was the quintessential "preacher's wife". She taught Sunday School and Bible School, sang in the choir, was an active member of the UMW at each location; she helped whenever needed in every aspect of local church and community life. She was a Cub Scout den mother and a substitute teacher. She did all of this while raising five children and for a while worked part-time at Hudson Belk department stores in Goldsboro and Raleigh to help send their children through college.

While living in Goldsboro, Raleigh, Roseboro, Edenton, and Durham she endeared herself to each parishioner in these towns with her steadfast devotion to God, the church, her husband and her family and friends.

After 36 years in the ministry, May and Dick retired to Misenheimer, NC and attended Wesley Chapel UMC where she continued to support her church as diligently as ever. Even after their retirement in 1990 (which did not last long!) she moved with Dick first to Raleigh, then Goldsboro and finally to Fuquay-Varina to serve churches in need of a minister.

May was a wonderful cook, an avid gardener, a fair-weather golfer, and always ready to travel.

She is survived by her husband of 58 years, Dick Blankenhorn; a daughter Jean Godbold and husband, Les; sons: Jack Blankenhorn and wife Christine; Bruce and wife Dena, and Darnell, all of Raleigh; and daughter Shelia Barclift and husband, Chuck of Fort Mill, SC. She leaves behind nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Her entire life was spent in heaven to God, her husband and her family.

With St. Paul she could rightly say, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." (II Timothy 4:7)

KATHLEEN HALL KNOTT

1925 - 2002

Kathleen Hall Knott was born July 14, 1925 in Union County, Mississippi, one of the ten children of Charlie and Willie Mae Hall. She died March 1, 2002 at Croasdaile Village in Durham. Her funeral was conducted at First United Methodist Church in New Albany, Mississippi, by the Rev. Leslie Nabors, with burial in New Albany City Cemetery.

She was a county all-star basketball player in high school, as well as an outstanding student. After graduation she worked as a bookkeeper until our marriage on February 8, 1947. Kathleen was an invaluable support in my efforts at education during the years at Mississippi State, Emory, and Boston University. The faculty wives club of the Theology School at Emory awarded her a PhT (put hubby through).

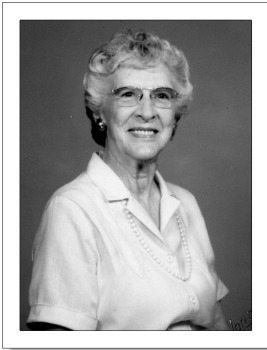

She endeared herself to the parishioners of our churches in the (then) North Mississippi Conference by visiting in homes, making the rounds of all the rural churches, and setting an example of Christian life and love. Later, she was active in the campus life of Methodist College. During this latter period she worked for twenty-two years as supervisor of telephone sales for Sears in Fayetteville.

Kathleen was at all times a devoted wife and mother, teaching by word and act the love of God and love for all people. She faced her ten years of decline with bravery, faith, and concern for others.

Besides me, her survivors include a son, Thomas E. Knott of Raleigh; a daughter, Laura C. Knott of Brookline, Massachusetts; two sisters, Virginia Farris and Katye Snipes of Tupelo, Mississippi; two brothers, Bobby Hall and Roy Hall of New Albany, Mississippi; and three grandchildren. Another daughter, Allison, died in 1961 at the age of twelve.

"Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

Garland Knott

RUTH S. BEEDE

1911 - 2002

Ruth S. Beede was born September 14, 1911 in Mt. Olive, NC to James O. and Clara L. Davis Stanton. She died March 6, 2002.

The Stanton's moved from Mt. Olive to Goldsboro. Ruth was the oldest of five children. In 1924 her father and mother decided to move to Raleigh. Ruth enrolled in the preperatory department at Peace College. She was so fortunate to be a music student of Miss Jones. She also took her business course at Peace.

After working for several years, she met a NC State student from Spencer, NC, Herbert S. Lyerly. They married in 1933. They made Burlington, NC their home. The year quickly slipped away and they stayed busy operating their Electrical Company.

Herbert took ROTC training at college and during World War II he was called to duty. Captain Lyerly was so fortunate to return home after serving six years in the 182nd Airborn Division of the military service in the States and overseas. He continued in his electric work until he fatally suffered a heart attack.

Adjustments were difficult but had to be faced. Rev. Harold R. Beede a widower from Massachusetts came to visit his son and family. They had become good backyard neighbors and friends. Ruth and Harold became close friends and later on decided to share their life together. They were married and made their home in Massachusetts. Harold continued to serve as a chaplain in a State hospital. The Beede's retired in 1970. They were so happy to make Raleigh their home. They joined Fairmont Methodist church and both were soon active members. She joyfully served in numerous positions in the The Margaret Hook class, especially as one of the pianist for twenty-five years. She was an active member of her circle and looked forward to meeting with the ministers wives group each month.

Harold died in September 1975. Ruth stayed alone in her home for several years. The family decided to move her into Whitaker Glen, a retirement home. She was living there at the time of her death.

2002-2003 ALPHABETICAL ROLL OF MEMBERS IN FULL CONNECTION, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS OF

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. these records include only servcie in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the far right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

2002 - 2003 ASSOCIATE MEMBERS,ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference associate members, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, Inc., as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The Conference does not record the cost of postretirement benefits other than pensions nor disclose certain information regarding such costs as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Rather, the Conference's policy is to expense such costs as incurred. The effects on the financial statements of these matters are not reasonably determinable.

In our opinion, except for the effects of not recording the cost of and disclosing certain information regarding the postretirement benefits other than pensions as discussed in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, Inc., at December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

The Conference is incorporated in the State of North Carolina and is the fundamental body of the United Methodist Church, Inc., which under Episcopal leadership provides the mechanism for admitting and ordaining clergy, appointing itinerant pastors to churches, and supplying them with mutual support. The Conference is composed of ministerial and lay members and other individuals as required in The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church which in an annual meeting defines the programs and responsibilities of the Church as a whole. Included within this report are all funds administered by the Conference Treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. and the Board of Missions, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Investments: Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are stated at fair value. Changes in the fair value of investments, including both realized and unrealized gains and losses, are included in the accompanying statements of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets. In determining realized gains and losses, the cost of investments is determined using the specific-identification method.

Property and equipment: Land, buildings and equipment are recorded at cost since 1983. Prior to 1983, if historical costs were unavailable, estimated historical costs were used.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings	30 - 40
Improvements to buildings	10 - 40
Furniture and equipment	5 - 15

Church properties assumed by the Conference as well as land donated to the Conference are stated at their estimated fair value at the time of receipt.

Estimates: In preparing its financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Other accounting policies: The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from apportionments of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue shown in the accompanying statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

In preparing its financial statements, management has elected to expense postretirement benefits other than pensions on a pay as you go basis. The expense for the postretirement other than pensions was $1,541,068 and $1,453,566 for 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Income taxes: No provision is made for income taxes because the Conference is exempt from state and federal taxes on income.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $300,000 to be maintained. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds are invested in this program each business day. The amount invested in this program at December 31, 2001 and 2000 was $2,679,000 and $3,183,000, respectively. The Conference places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

Note 3. Investments

Investments are comprised of the following:

	2001	2000
Certificates of deposit	$ 388,775	$ 370,829
GBOP Superannuate Endowment Fund	216,169	209,872
National United Methodist Foundation	932,255	-
United Methodist Development Fund	1,000,000	-
GBOP Deposit Account	10,585,321	10,904,750
Investment in United Methodist Foundation, Inc.	31,072,458	34,130,388
	$ 44,194,978	$ 45,615,839

The Conference's investment in United Methodist Foundation, Inc. represents approximately 51 and 52 percent of the unitholder equity of the Foundation at December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively. The Foundation's net assets were approximately $61,190,000 and $65,150,000 at December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and consisted primarily of common stocks and fixed income securities.

Note 4. Property and Equipment

A summary of property and equipment is as follows:

	2001	2000
Land and land improvements	$ 298,743	$ 283,502
Buildings and building improvements	2,632,519	2,585,581
Furniture and equipment	1,343,246	1,171,620
	4,274,508	4,040,703
Less accumulated depreciation	2,441,783	2,191,398
	$ 1,832,725	$ 1,849,305

Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 was $250,385 and $221,589, respectively.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 5. Other Assets

Other assets consist of the following:

	2001	2000
Loans to Churches, less reserve of $12,137 and $12,137 for 2001 and 2000	$ 2,879	$ 16,570
Inventory	121,004	162,095
Church properties and donated land held for resale	1,554,098	420,802
Note receivable from Camps	546,852	576,917
Other	9,112	670
	$ 2,233,945	$ 1,177,054

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981, the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Four defined contribution plans provide benefits for Clergy and lay staff as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, clergy members of an Annual Conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under Episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. The Cumulative Benefit and Pension Fund provides retirement benefits for lay staff of the Annual Conference. Funding in 2001 and 2000 was based on 12% of plan compensation for both plans. The expense for these two plans was $324,587 and $276,637 for 2001 and 2000, respectively.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan. The Basic Protection Plan provides death and disability benefits for lay staff who participate in the Cumulative Benefit and Pension Fund. Funding in 2001 and 2000 was based on 4.4% of actual plan compensation for both plans. The expense for these two plans was $44,041 and $38,623 for 2001 and 2000, respectively.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference voluntarily agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1982. On January 1, 2001, the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $445 per service year was $32,491,129. Current expense for the prior service liability was $2,556,098 and $2,419,347 for 2001 and 2000, respectively. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 7. Related Party Transactions

United Methodist Foundation, Inc.: United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, Inc. Net amounts of accounts receivable were $189,050 and $141,689 due from the Foundation at December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Board of Missions, Inc.: Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repair of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to Churches established in eastern North Carolina. The net amount due to the Board was $592,550 at December 31, 2001 and $91,247 at December 31, 2000.

Note 8. Pledged Assets and Long-Term Debt

On December 6, 2001, the Conference entered into a secured note payable to The United Methodist Development Fund. The note is due in 180 monthly installments of $4,924, including interest at 8.5%, with a final payment due December 2016. This note is secured by land held by the Conference with a carrying value of $708,834.

Maturities of the long-term debt is as follows:

Year Ending December 31,	Amount
2002	$ 17,249
2003	18,774
2004	20,434
2005	22,240
2006	24,206
Thereafter	397,097
	$ 500,000

Note 9. Distribution to Camping Ministries

On January 1, 2000, the Conference transferred to the North Carolina Methodist Outdoor and Camping Ministries all assets and liabilities related to camps Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee, Kerr Lake and Rockfish. The transfer of assets consisted primarily of property and equipment and investments. The transfer of liabilities consisted primarily of amounts due to the Conference. This transfer of net assets in the amount of $2,869,129 has been recorded as a distribution in the 2000 statement of revenue, expense, or distribution and changes in net assets.

Note 10. Reclassifications

Certain amounts on the prior year financial statements have been reclassified, with no effect on net assets or the change in net assets, to conform with classifications adopted in 2001.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees
Board of Missions, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of Board of Missions, Inc., as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Board's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Board of Missions, Inc., as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the change in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

BOARD OF MISSIONS, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations: Board of Missions, Inc. ("Board") was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repairing of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to United Methodist churches established in eastern North Carolina. All loans are collateralized by a first deed of trust on the Church property.

A summary of the Board's significant accounting policies follows:

Estimates: In preparing its financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the statement of financial position date and the statement of activities for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Net assets: Net assets, revenue and expenses, and gains and losses are classified as permanently restricted, temporarily restricted or unrestricted based upon the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. All of the net assets of the Board are classified as unrestricted due to the absence of any donor restrictions.

Cash: The Board places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC limit.

Investments: Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are measured at fair value. Changes in the fair value of investments, including both realized and unrealized gains and losses, are included in the accompanying statements of activities. In determining realized gains and losses, the cost of investments is determined using the specific-identification method.

Property: Property is capitalized at cost as of the date acquired or at fair market value when received by gift. Depreciation of its building is computed using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of forty years.

Note 2. Investments

Investments consist of unit shares in United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Cost and fair values as of December 31, 2001 and 2000 were as follows:

	2001	2000
Cost	$ 870,357	$ 603,201
Fair value	850,954	627,146

The Board's investment in United Methodist Foundation, Inc. represents less than 2 percent of the equity of the Foundation. The Foundation's net assets were $61,186,979 and $65,146,515 at December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and consisted primarily of common stocks and fixed income securities.

BOARD OF MISSIONS, INC

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 3. Property

A summary of property is as follows:

	2001	2000
Undeveloped land	$ 1,506,286	$ 1,666,460
Land	345,845	345,845
Building	112,199	105,210
	1,964,330	2,117,515
Less accumulated depreciation	23,555	20,779
	$ 1,940,775	$ 2,096,736

All property owned by the Board is for future church sites. Included in the undeveloped land is a 12.46 acre tract in Durham County. The Board acquired this tract of land for the Reconciliation United Methodist Church in order to give the church more time to raise money to purchase the land. The Board has given the Church a two year option to purchase this land. The option price of the land is $650,000 and expires on November 3, 2005.

During the year ended December 31, 2001, the Board transferred a 13.5 acre tract with a carrying value of $160,174 to a related entity. Included in this transfer was the write-off of the payable due to the related entity in the amount of $73,600.

Note 4. Commitments

As of December 31, 2001, the Board had approved three new loans to two churches, which had not been disbursed, totaling $754,674.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Unitholders and the Board of Directors of United Methodist Foundation, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations: United Methodist Foundation, Inc. ("Foundation") was established in 1955 by the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church to provide a management-investment pool for long-term and permanent funds of the North Carolina Conference and of local churches, institutions, and ministries of the Church. The Foundation was also established to encourage and receive planned gifts in support of local churches, institutions, and special ministries of The United Methodist Church and to assist donors in placing their gifts.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities: Investments in fixed income securities and common stocks are stated at fair value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities. Short-term investments are stated at market value. Investments in real estate mortgages are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or market.

Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

General: The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for the year ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 were as follows:

	2001	2000
Cost of purchases:
Short-term investments	$ 27,959,448	$ 26,609,936
Other securities	42,469,154	48,126,034
	$ 70,428,602	$ 74,735,970
Proceeds from sale:
Short-term investments	$ 27,909,726	$ 32,269,922
Other securities	42,729,933	43,597,308
	$ 70,639,658	$ 75,867,230

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 3. Restricted Assets and Obligations

During 1990, the Foundation established a separate Annuity fund to record the investment of funds upon which certain restrictions have been placed. In connection with these investments, the Foundation purchased three annuity contracts and established an annuity payable representing the present value of the payments to the annuitants over their remaining life expectancies.

The Foundation also established during 1990 a separate Cash Surrender Value fund for 16 life insurance policies which place certain restrictions on the use of the proceeds at the death of the donor. Three additional policies were recorded during 1991 and five additional policies were recorded during 1992.

In 1994, the Foundation established a separate Real Estate fund for a donation of an apartment dwelling in an irrevocable charitable remainder unitrust. Net income from the fund is to be paid to the unitrust recipient until death of the recipient occurs.

Since the earnings on these investments are not available to all unitholders, they have been accounted for as restricted assets, liabilities and restricted net assets.

Note 4. Net Asset Value Per Outstanding Unit

The net asset value per outstanding unit was $2.80 at December 31, 2001 and $2.98 at December 31, 2000.

Note 5. Income Taxes

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 6. Credit Risk

The Foundation places its cash with a high quality financial institution. At times, such cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limit.
